Bishop Holston invited Mr. Wayne Hester co-chair to provide the Report of the Commission of Equitable Compensation (CEC), pp. 111 and the online video at umcsc.org. He recognized his committee, and then advised that the CEC is recommending a cost-of-living increase of 3.2% to the minimum salary in 2025. We have granted fourteen equitable compensation grants. He thanked the churches for their support and asked them to help to ensure that Pastors are taking their allotted vacation.

- Reverend Jeremy Howell, Spartanburg District – if we accept this report are we accepting the committee recommendation which contradicts GCFA report?
- Reverend Houston: Not today, but tomorrow it could be brought to the floor tomorrow, after being on the floor for 24 hrs.
- Reverend James Friday, Congregational Development Director – Would a motion need to be made now because 24 hours would be Thursday?
- Reverend Houston: That's not necessary. Anything that's brought up today will be considered tomorrow.
- Reverend Larry McCutcheon: It would be much clearer to present a clear motion today. Will we be able to vote on this tomorrow?
- Reverend Houston: Yes, it's appropriate to say the day before. It will be considered tomorrow.
- Reverend Patricia Parrish: Is it fair to have Standing Rules resolve this issue?
- Bishop Holston stated he believed it was being resolved right now.
- Per Standing Rule 21: 12 hours is sufficient.
- Motion by Reverend James Friday for GCFA to consider Equitable Compensation for tomorrow.
- Mr. Wayne Hester stated, “I move the Equitable Compensation budget asking for conference year 2025 be affirmed at that level of asking for 2025 until GCFA report is presented to the Annual Conference on Wednesday, June 12, 2024.”

Bishop Holston received the report and asked for a vote from the body. The recommendation was unanimously approved.

Bishop Holston called the Conference Board of Pensions, Dr. Valerie Brooks-Madden – Chairperson, the Rev. Chris Lollis – Benefits Officer, and the Reverend Rett Haselden, to offer their report. Mr. Salley stated that the General Conference cut the giving to Africa University in half – from $9.4 million to $4 million. Mr. Salley is asking the conference to continue helping fund Africa University fund at 2016 levels. In 2023, 100.81% of funding to the AU fund was given. A $6,500 scholarship was given by Carolina's Black Pastors Retreat. He advised that this year was the eleventh time we've held the Africa University Golf Tournament – and invited the body to sponsor it or register. He stated that there is now a Holston endowed scholarship at Africa University. He celebrated over six hundred students from twenty-two countries who graduated this year. The children at Fairfield mission site (orphanage) received $800,000. He closed his remarks with, "Thank you for having a head and a heart for Africa."

She highlighted the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world and the four priorities. "We reflect God's kingdom, and we must continue to keep Christ at the center of all we do and be the Church in all places and all times as we share God's love in Jesus Christ." She thanked the Reverend Cathy Joens who served for 15 years as a congregational specialist, as well as district/conference connectional ministries, and executive committee members. The July 9-12 Jurisdictional Conference will assign bishops and the setting of episcopal areas. Judge Jenkins asked for the prayers of the body.

of the Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to ratify and approve the closure of the below listed churches:

Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to ratify and approve the closure of the below listed churches.

The South Carolina Conference has used ¶2549 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016) to close churches. Many of these churches were closed on an ad-interim basis because of exigent circumstances.

A number of United Methodist churches in South Carolina find themselves unable to serve the purpose for which they were organized, because issues related to human sexuality have prevented them, in that they cannot accept the actions taken in The United Methodist Church. Thus, the issues of human sexuality have prevented them in their mission to make disciples for the transformation of the world.

The Board of Trustees, with understanding of the difficulties of owning, insuring, and maintaining closed church properties, with prayer, consultation, and reflection, guided by input of the Cabinet and conference leadership, developed, and refined a Separation Agreement.

This Separation Agreement required the local church to participate in a discernment process, and once that was completed allowed for a Church Conference vote on separation from The United Methodist Church.

The following churches have followed this process, and by votes of at least two-thirds majority have voted to separate from The United Methodist Church. They have signed a Separation Agreement and have placed their payments for separation in escrow.

These churches are now before this body for approval of their closure, pursuant to the terms of the Separation Agreement.

It is the belief of the Board of Trustees that these closures are the best pathway to allow the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to follow The Book of Discipline and to allow these churches desiring to depart to do so with grace.

Therefore, be it resolved, that pursuant to the authority granted to the Board of Trustees and to this body under ¶2549.3(b) of The Book of Discipline, as confirmed by the District Superintendents of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, the Cabinet and Bishop Holston, and authorized by vote of this body, be it here approved that the Separation Agreements duly executed by the following churches shall govern the disposition of the property of the below listed churches. The recorded deeds shall be valid to transfer the title to the real property and this document shall be approved by this body as binding on the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Be it here approved that the following United Methodist churches will be closed effective June 30, 2024.

Wednesday, June 12, 2024 – The Fourth Day

Bishop Holston calls the body to order for the morning session at 10:00am, and the body sang, “For the Beauty of the Earth.”

The Reverend Kenneth Nelson shares some prayer requests with the body: the Reverend Tiffany Redman and the Family of the late Mr. Bill Barber. Bishop Holston also acknowledged the presence of the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe, president of the Judicial Council.

The tabled items from yesterday are brought to the floor. The Reverend Mason Cantey made the motion and motion was approved.

- The Reverend James Smith, St Paul Camden, raised a question: “Does the motion have to be placed on the removed/addressed by whoever tabled it?” No Paragraph 1457, Bishop Holston states, the body cannot direct the conference trustees.

The Reverend Dr. Reginald Lee asks for a declarative statement from the Judicial Council. Stating, the paragraph was put into Discipline for mission and ministry. As such, “I do request a rule of law on that particular motion.”

A RESOLUTION DECLARING THE (AD INTERIM) TRANSFER OF VICTOR UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
1 Wilson Avenue, Greer, South Carolina 29651
GREENVILLE DISTRICT
GCFA # 274120

Whereas Victor United Methodist Church (Greer) located in the Greenville District had dwindled to fewer than 10 active members with less than $1,000 in the bank, closure seemed imminent.

However, the Village Church of the Nazarene was already partnering with Victor and growing a new congregation while using their building. The Village Church of the Nazarene actually renovated the Nursery and performed many other needed maintenance tasks. The remaining members of Victor and the Village Church cooperated on Christmas and Easter services over several years and became partners.

This was done using Book of Discipline paragraph 2548.2 which allows transfer to a Pan Methodist congregation such as "The Village Church of the Nazarene". A Charge Conference was held on September 10th, 2023 after proper notice and the vote was 7 to 0 to pursue the transfer under paragraph 2548.2. Pastor and District Superintendent approved as well. [Charge Conference Resolution with signatures available]. (Plat 27@215, MLS9-04-01-124, Deed 68E @ 345)

The Bishop and Cabinet voted approval on September 14th, 2023.

From Cabinet Minutes dated Sept. 14th, 2023: "(GV) Victor UMC in Greer has dwindled to a hand full of members and wants to close under 2548.2 Motion to approve transfer of property, pursuant to Par. 2548.2 of the Book of Discipline, from Victor UMC to The Village Church of the Nazarene. Approved"

Victor UMC was legally transferred to - The Village Church of the Nazarene - on October 27th, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. James D. Dennis, Jr. – District Superintendent of the Greenville District

Adopted and approved this 14th day of September 2023.

Rev. Fran Elrod, Secretary of the Cabinet of the

Acknowledgements

Many bright hands, good hearts, and generous people have added their parts in making this in person annual conference possible. Those names may be found in the supplemental materials guide, but in particular, we owe a profound debt of gratitude to the Reverend Mel Arant, Associate Conference Secretary, and committee on the Annual Conference for its leadership.

The Reverend Nelson requests a point of personal privilege as he ends his tenure as the Conference Secretary and passes the mantle to Rev Mel Arant.

The Reverend Kenneth Nelson offered the following Omnibus Motion: “That any reports, nominations, or recommendations printed and distributed in the conference materials or distributed on the floor during the Annual Conference Session not previously acted upon be accepted and moved to record and that following the completion of The Fixing of the Appointments, that this 2024 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference be adjourned sine die.”

At 12:10 pm, Bishop Holston adjourned the conference for a 10-minute break to prepare for the closing worship service and fixing of appointments.

At 12:20 pm the body reconvened for the Sending Forth and Fixing of the Appointments. Bishop Holston encouraged the body to remember, “What Really Matters!” His message concluded with three points: we can't be so heavenly bound that we are no earthly good; we cannot withdraw from the world we live in; and to never avenge ourselves – but to instead overcome evil with good!

THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
Recommendations to the 2024 Annual Conference

Each and every disciple of Christ is called to be stewards of the blessings from God. On behalf of the Council on Finance and Administration, I want to thank all United Methodists in South Carolina for their generosity in 2023. We achieved a 88.82% collection rate on apportionments. We praise God for our churches and the way they continue to positively respond to the various challenges we face. We celebrate the Orangeburg District for collecting the highest percentage at 98.93%. The largest percentage point increase was in the Greenville District at 5.58.

The following pages outline the complete ministry funding plan for our South Carolina Annual Conference for calendar year 2025. The Council has sought to prepare this document with deep prayer and faithful reflection. The Council is aware that the target is to have a budget at or around 15% of total Conference average net funds. We are happy to report that this percentage has been below the 15% target rate since 2020.

The recommended budget for 2025 is lower by $2,273,811 compared to 2024 and is estimated to be 13.3% of average net funds. This significant reduction is to reflect the apportionments estimated to be lost because of our Conference's separating churches in 2024.

We appreciate the service of Mrs. Elizabeth (Beth) Westbury who is nominated again as our Annual Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services. We are thankful for the Treasurer's Office staff and the many ways they support our local churches. I am also constantly grateful for the devoted work every lay and clergy member of the Council on Finance and Administration. They attend, interact, debate and support the work of the Council in a most faithful and dependable manner. We add our thanks to Bishop Jonathan Holston for his continued support and leadership.

May God continue to bless and guide all the ministries of our beloved SC Annual Conference!

Report No. 1

- A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 2025 will be set at $109,835, a 2% increase. (DS compensation for 2024 is $107,681 and for 2023 was $107,681.) In accordance with paragraphs 613.13 and 614.1a of the 2016 Book of Discipline, housing for each superintendent shall be provided in the form of a parsonage, funded by the respective district as provided in paragraph E below.
- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates 15% ($16,475) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 2025 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance ("utility exclusion"), not including expenses paid by the district. Any subsequent changes to the utilities exclusion that may be requested by an individual may be approved by the Treasurer on behalf of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:

- 1) The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $21,000 per district.
- 2) Exceptions: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of that office rent will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund. Inasmuch as the Columbia District superintendent is designated as the Cabinet secretary, one-half of the salary and benefits of the secretary in that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
- 3) Travel (in and out-of-district) is set at $170,000 for the total of all districts, which includes $8,000 for the common lodging and meal expenses of retreats. This will be set at $13,500 per district or an allocated amount set by the Cabinet not to exceed a total of $162,000. District superintendents will be reimbursed for actual meal and hotel expenses (not per diem) when reasonable in amount and supported by a detailed receipt. In addition, insurance & pensions is expected to be approximately $280,000 ($28,000 per district for 10 district superintendents), and continuing education will be set at the amount recommended by the Commission on Equitable Compensation (currently at $750 per superintendent).
- 4) Vouchers for continuing education must be approved prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training that would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.
- 5) The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $2,800 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 18,000. These funds are not guaranteed and are contingent upon the apportionment receipts and other requirements of the district administration fund. The schedule for 2025 will be as follows:

District	2023 Membership	Amount
Anderson	10,788	2,800
Charleston	20,100	3,000
Columbia	24,284	3,400

Spartanburg	10,060	2,800
Walterboro	11,755	2,800
Totals	170,893	34,400

- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, which provides funds for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an in-coming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $350 packing expenses. To comply with the change in tax law effective January 1, 2018 whereby reimbursements of moving expenses become taxable compensation to the recipient, the amount of reimbursement will be included in the district superintendent's taxable income as reported on Form W-2. Reimbursements of moving expenses for district superintendents shall be paid without the benefit of a gross up for taxes. Each district office shall provide its trustees with regular reports of all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.
- E. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage/Office Fund:

Report No. 2

- A. We recommend that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church and that appropriate free-will offerings be received.

Human Relations Day – January 12, 2025

UMCOR Sunday (formerly One Great Hour of Sharing) – March 9, 2025
Native American Awareness Sunday – April 13, 2025
Peace with Justice Sunday – May 25, 2025
Epworth Children's Home
    Mothers' Day – May 11, 2025
    Work Day – September 14, 2025
    Church school offering first Sunday each month
Aldersgate Special Needs Sunday – August 10, 2025
Youth Service Fund Sunday – September 21, 2025 (youth offering)
World Communion Sunday – October 5, 2025
Conference Advance Specials Sunday – November 2, 2025
United Methodist Student Day – November 23, 2025

B. We offer the following:

- 1) That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data (receipts, bills, contemporaneous travel log, etc.). Payments in excess of $1,000 should be approved by the Conference Treasurer in advance.
- 2) That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit (with management letter) by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration, along with evidence of fidelity insurance coverage and compliance with payroll tax laws.
- 3) That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference reimburse persons at a rate of 24 cents per mile when traveling on conference business. In order to encourage carpooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 32 cents; if a car contains three or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be increased to 40 cents per mile. Pastors who are members of such agencies should submit reimbursement requests to their appointed church or charge for the difference between their conference reimbursement and the approved IRS mileage rate, since participation in the ministries of the district and conference is an expected responsibility of all appointed pastors. Conference employees will be reimbursed at the approved IRS mileage rate when traveling on church business. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid. We also recommend that the guideline amount paid to a person for meals shall be $7.00 for breakfast, $13.00 for lunch and $20.00 for the evening meal.
- 4) That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
- 5) That conference boards and agencies may not spend in excess of funds received on budget for the given conference year, except that funds carried forward may be spent in addition to funds received in the current year if such carryover funds were included in the budget presented to CFA. Any expenses beyond the combination of anticipated receipts (based on previous-year percentage of payment) plus budgeted carryover funds will not be paid by the treasurer.
- 6) That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 2025 apportionments shall mean for each church the two-year average of net funds in the years 2023 and 2022. Newly organized churches will be phased in over four years, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero. Satellite churches will be phased in beginning in the first year they do not receive support from Congregational Development. "Net funds" for churches that provide a housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage will exclude the lesser of the actual housing allowance or 25% of the minister's compensation prior to calculating the church's average net funds.
- 7) That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 41 through 47 (inclusive) of Table 2 for 2022 and 2023.
- 8) That once the apportionments are calculated from Table 2 statistics for any given year, those apportionments cannot be altered. Needed corrections can be made on Table 2 reports for use in future year calculations by providing written explanation of the correction to the Treasurer.

9) Total apportionment funding for Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance (item 11, Report No. 9) reflects changes in funding as a result of Methodist Oaks being sold to a for-profit entity. Methodist Oaks requested the Conference continue assistance for four individuals in residence there. Based on the monthly assistance requested and the life-expectancy of the individuals, an expected need has been projected. For 2025, the apportionment request and the allocation of funds among the participating homes remains the same as in 2024. The recommended allocations are:

Methodist Oaks	27%	27%
Wesley Commons	50%	50%
Methodist Manor	23%	23%

- 10) That the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Scholarship Fund (item 9, Report No. 9) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin University; that the funds received on the apportionment for Camps and Retreat Ministries (item 12, Report No. 9) be distributed to the various Camps and Retreat Ministries as determined by the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries.
- 11) That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts from the Conference Contingency Fund or Permanent Reserve to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
- 12) That the salaries and fixed essential expenses of Conference Connectional Ministries (section A-4 of the Conference Benevolences budget) be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 13) That the salaries and benefits portion of the Campus Ministry budget be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 14) That the budgets of the District Superintendent Salaries, Director of Administrative Services, the Conference Archivist Contract and the Coordinator of Clergy Services be funded up to 100% of a year end deficit, but not more than the amount budgeted, by using funds from the Contingency Fund.
- 15) The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates 15% of the salary for each conference clergy staff for the year 2025, exclusive of a designated housing allowance, as allocated for utilities and maintenance ("utilities exclusion"), not including maid service. Any subsequent changes to the utilities exclusion that may be requested by an individual may be approved by the Treasurer on behalf of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- 16) That local churches of the conference incorporate. An informational pamphlet prepared by the Conference Chancellor and the Cabinet is available at www.umcsc.org. After incorporation, churches should take care to maintain with the Secretary of State, an accurate, up-to-date record of the name and address of their registered agent.

Report No. 3

As noted in our report to the 2009 Annual Conference, economic uncertainties led to the reduction in apportioned budgets for the Senior Scholarship Fund, Spartanburg Methodist College, and Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance Fund. The trend of reducing the budgets for these significant ministries continues. In an effort to increase the funds available for these ministries without adding to the apportionment budget, the voluntary asking Extra Mile for Colleges and Homes was increased from $600,284 for 2017 to $625,000 for 2018. Council recommends the 2025 Extra Mile for Colleges and Homes voluntary asking remain at $625,000 and allocated as shown below. We ask churches with sufficient resources to continue to support the Extra Mile for Colleges and Homes. However, beginning in 2024, the Extra Mile funding request is no longer calculated for churches based on the apportionment formula and included on the bottom of the apportionment statement as a voluntary asking. Removing the Extra Mile pledge is to better communicate that it is a voluntary asking and not linked to apportionment payments.

	2024 Actual	2025 recommendation	Notes for 2025
Senior Scholarship Fund	67%	67%	One-third to each: Claflin University, Columbia College, Wofford College
Methodist Homes	15%	15%	Wesley Commons 70% Methodist Manor 30%

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

“And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a Man stood opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, ‘Are You for us or for our adversaries?’ So He said, ‘No, but as Commander of the army of the Lord I have now come.’ And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, ‘What does my Lord say to His servant?’ Then the Commander of the Lord’s army said to Joshua, ‘Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy.’ And Joshua did so. – Joshua 5:13-15 (NKJV)

In Joshua 5:13-15, we are presented with a profound encounter between Joshua and a divine commander, which underscores the significance of spiritual preparedness and obedience before confronting imminent challenges. This narrative, reminiscent of Moses’ encounter at the burning bush, serves as a poignant reminder of the sacredness inherent in their mission and the importance of aligning oneself with divine guidance.

In light of this, our collective focus is directed toward the Conference’s “Our 4 Priorities”:

Developing Leaders – This entails the deliberate nurturing and enhancement of individuals’ skills, qualities and capacities to equip them for leadership roles within their respective spheres. Through mentorship, training programs, and the cultivation of essential leadership attributes, we endeavor to build a cadre of capable and empowered leaders who can effectively guide and inspire others toward shared goals.

Engaging Our Communities – Central to our mission is the active involvement and collaboration with members of our communities. By fostering relationships, building trust, and promoting dialogue and participation, we seek to create inclusive spaces where all voices are heard and valued. Through community-driven initiatives and collaborative projects, we strive to address common challenges, amplify the voices of marginalized groups, and foster collective action toward positive change.

Connecting With & Growing Disciples – This priority revolves around the holistic spiritual development and maturation of individuals within our faith communities. Through intentional guidance, support and the provision of resources, we aim to deepen individuals’ understanding of their faith, cultivate a personal relationship with their spiritual beliefs, and empower them to integrate these principles into their daily lives. By fostering environments conducive to questioning, exploration and growth, we seek to nurture committed followers of faith who are equipped to make meaningful contributions to their communities and the world.

Measuring Current Realities & Evaluating Missional Opportunities – At the heart of effective mission is a clear understanding of the prevailing realities and discernment of opportunities for impactful action. Through rigorous assessment, data analysis and stakeholder engagement, we endeavor to gain insight into the specific needs, strengths and aspirations of our communities. By leveraging this understanding and identifying strategic opportunities for mission-focused intervention, we aim to align our efforts with the broader mission and values of our organization, ultimately contributing to positive transformation and the fulfillment of our collective purpose.

In essence, these four priorities serve as guiding principles, shaping our collective endeavors and informing our strategic decision-making processes. For more information on our approach and initiatives, please visit umcsc.org/4p. May these efforts be blessed with success and bear fruit in the service of our communities and the greater good.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

The work of Connectional Ministries is to be the steward of the vision of the Church and to keep that vision in front of the people of this Annual Conference. That vision is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

No one can do that work alone, so we have a Connection that works together so that local congregations and their leaders – both clergy and lay – have what they need to be effective and fruitful in their work of making disciples. Our work is to equip and connect local churches beyond themselves to be in ministry effectively and fruitfully.

Through the work of our Conference Connectional Ministries, the District Connectional Ministries, and the conference staff, we have a team that is well prepared and fully equipped to assist local churches with training and resources, visioning, strategic planning, and discerning their next faithful steps of ministry.

We focus this work through the lens of “Our 4 Priorities” – Engaging Our Communities, Developing Leaders, Growing Disciples, and Evaluating and Measuring Our Current Realities and Missional Possibilities. This puts the work we do, together with you, “On the Leading EDGE of Ministry.”

This United Methodist Church is at a crossroads; however, God’s mission has not changed and neither has ours. We still need to be the church in all places and at all times – giving hope and demonstrating God’s love.

We were reminded of that by the ongoing work of the Ministry Advisory Team, which has been meeting regularly to have conversations and to begin to put together a plan, a strategy for moving forward in this time of separation and change. We have kept before us who we are responsible for – the local church – every congregation, those who serve the local churches in all capacities, the communities that our churches serve, and those who have not yet known the saving grace of Jesus Christ. As we move forward with budgets and strategies, these are our most crucial treasures.

We were reminded in early January, when tornados swept through the small town of Bamberg causing devastation to property but by the grace of God, no loss of life. We were reminded that Jesus is Lord, even in the storm. You were there to make a difference immediately, as our Disaster Response Ministries went into action. Through our connectional giving and serving, our Early Response Teams under the leadership of Billy Robinson and Mike Evans went to work to make safe Main Street United Methodist Church and several homes damaged by the storm.

Through our connection with the United Methodist Committee on Relief, a solidarity grant of $10,000 was provided to do the work that was needed to help begin the process of restoring that church, community, and town to wholeness. We have been and are continuing to work with UMCOR to strengthen our conference Disaster Response Ministries to prepare local congregations in the event of a disaster in their community.

We were reminded later in January that God's mission has not changed at Revolution, the discipleship event hosted by our South Carolina Ministries With Young People. More than 1,000 youth gathered at the Township Auditorium in Columbia under the theme, "We Are One." When the invitation to discipleship was given on Saturday evening, a multitude of young people stood to invite Jesus Christ into their hearts so that they might become his disciples. This was followed by a powerful time of prayer.

On Sunday morning, another invitation was given that asked young people if they believed that they had a calling upon their lives to come forward, and there were a number of our young people who came forward to present themselves as having heard a calling on their lives. My friends, this is the hope of our church.

Other key moments in ministry from the past year:

- A group of United Methodist lay and clergy volunteers launched the South Carolina Cognitive Connection Ministry, which is dedicated to teaching how to be in ministry with those living with dementia.
- The Native American Committee provided a Native American cultural experience for three congregations in the Columbia area for their Vacation Bible School.
- The Committee on the Status and Role of Women produced and distributed fliers to every district in the Annual Conference as a resource for Domestic Violence Awareness Month.
- The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns provided scholarships to five clergy and five laypersons from small ethnic local churches for travel on the mission trip to Africa University.
- Lay Servant Ministries has seen an increased interest in the Certified Lay Minister training program over the past year.
- United Women in Faith awarded five Presidential Scholarships to young women to assist with their education.
- MenNMinistry hosted four "Teaching Church" district events to help keep men connected to God and to each other in order to be better husbands, fathers, brothers and uncles.

Meeting people in their times of deepest need, as Jesus did, and helping people to discover that they have a calling and a purpose in their lives as disciples of Jesus Christ – that is the work that we are called to do.

My hope and prayer is that, together, we will continue developing a plan to help this whole body of Connectional Ministries be the ligaments that strengthen and support this Connection as we move forward into our new future.

There will be changes and adjustments. We will need to bring on many new people and provide training and orientation for them. We will move into a new era, but we move into it knowing that God is with us so that we can be "On the Leading EDGE of Ministry."

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Connectional Ministries Team – the staff of Connectional Ministries, who stand ready to assist you; the Four Ministry Areas, Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach; the boards and agencies; and the local churches. I would particularly like to thank those who have served on Connectional Ministries and its Executive Committee above and beyond their time. We thank them for all that they have done in a time that no one could have anticipated nor could have understood beforehand. They have remained faithful through it all. That is leadership, and I am grateful to have served with them.

Finally, to each of you, thank you for all that you do. I believe that our best days are ahead of us, and I have been honored to serve you in this challenging time that has been filled with opportunity. To God be the glory! Amen!

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. Millie Nelson Smith, Director

ALSTON WILKES SOCIETY – UMC Conference ASM Organization Description

The mission of the Alston Wilkes Society is rebuilding lives for a safer community. Founded in 1962, by Methodist Minister Rev. Elli Alston Wilkes as an offender reentry program, the Alston Wilkes Society has expanded its service population and geographic footprint over the past 61 years to include the following programs:

- 1) The Community Services Program: This program carries on the original mission of Rev. Wilkes, providing reentry services such as basic needs assistance, employment supports, and housing supports for returning citizens in eight locations throughout the state of SC. This program serves more than 1,000 individuals annually;
- 2) Federal Residential Reentry Centers: These programs are designed to help federal offenders make a successful transition back into their communities through housing and reentry services. They are located in Charleston, Florence, Columbia & Fayetteville, with a fifth opening in Greenville in the fall of 2023;
- 3) Supportive Services for Veteran Families: Supported by a grant from the Veterans Administration, this program prevents homelessness by helping qualifying veterans and their families gain access to the resources they need to successfully transition to, or maintain, permanent housing. This program covers 36 of the 46 counties in the state of SC;
- 4) Alston Wilkes Veterans Homes: AWS provides transitional housing and supportive services (e.g., clinical, employment, substance abuse, etc.) for homeless veterans in Columbia and Greenville; and
- 5) Alston Wilkes Youth Home: This residential program serves male adolescents referred by Department of Juvenile Justice and Department of Social Services, who are suffering from behavioral and/or mental health issues that require a supervised, therapeutic living situation.

All of these programs have one thing in common – they provide not just services needed to overcome barriers to success, but also offer hope for a better future for those served and the entire community.

BENNETTSVILLE-CHERAW AREA COOPERATIVE MINISTRY (BCACM)

The Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry (BCACM) was established in the late 1960s. Ten United Methodist Churches came together to form the BCACM. The BCACM has 10 member churches today, but they are not the original 10. The BCACM member churches are located either in the Hartsville District or the Marion District. The primary goals of the BCACM are to strengthen the member churches and their communities in the areas of lay leadership, advocacy, discipleship and outreach. These goals are being addressed through Bible study, prayer, workshops, partnerships with local schools and agencies, mentoring boys and girls, supporting vacation Bible Schools at the churches, community engagement, and encouraging and supporting participation in leadership opportunities across the United Methodist connection. We also reach out to those who are less fortunate to address physical and spiritual needs.

The chairperson of the BCACM Council is Robert Short, Rev. Judith A. Knox serves as director, and Araba Sweet is the church and community worker assigned to this ministry.

CHRISTIAN ASSISTANCE BRIDGE

Christian Assistance Bridge partners with our community to end hunger and empower our most vulnerable families with hope and resources through the love of Christ. Volunteers provide food, financial assistance for qualifying clients, and resource counseling. Christian Assistance Bridge gives out over 125,000 pounds of food each year. We also have the blessing of meeting with every client to create a household budget and help them locate resources to increase their income and cut back on expenses. Our goal is to help families thrive, not just survive. During this visit, the volunteer resource counselors may help qualifying clients with emergency financial Assistance for utilities, rent, temporary shelter, prescription medication, etc.

Thank You for allowing us to help families like Ms. Flossie, a senior adult living in her bronco. Because of the support of the Methodist Churches, we have been able to help her move into an apartment, fill her pantry, and allow her to apply for other government resources so that she can thrive. She has now been living in her apartment for over a year. You helped bring her from homelessness to self-sufficiently. Every time we check on her, she thanks God for all the assistance.

Many Blessings, Kate Williams, C: 601-988-7653

THE COOPERATIVE MINISTRY - COLUMBIA

OUR MISSION: To increase the economic self-sufficiency of people experiencing poverty in the Midlands through crisis assistance and sustainability programs.

OUR HISTORY: In 1982, The Cooperative Ministry was founded by five churches (First Presbyterian Church, Main Street Methodist, Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Washington Street United Methodist Church, and First Baptist Church) in downtown Columbia. The goal was to establish a collaborative method of administering assistance to those in need while preventing duplication of services. The Cooperative Ministry is supported by 53 partnering churches, family foundations, corporations and small businesses, government agencies, and thousands of individuals. The Cooperative Ministry is a debt-free organization, and 90 percent of all expenses go to direct ten unique program services. A local board of directors governs The Cooperative Ministry's operations.

WE HELP BECAUSE ... As God's created people, we are called to be like our Creator – to walk in God's way – the way of love, compassion, and mercy. Compassion is at the heart of faith in God, and we are called to care deeply and act concretely to alleviate suffering. Compassion is a call to action and not an easy one, but one which we engage in joyfully and thoughtfully. We are called to release people from bondage to a cycle of poverty. We desire to honor God by reflecting Divine compassion for our clients.

INTERFAITH COMMUNITY SERVICES OF SC (ICS)

Interfaith Community Services of SC (ICS) works with faith and community partners to improve lives of low-income children and families in SC. SC ranks 39th in child-wellbeing with 21% of children living in poverty. ICS values a 40+ year relationship with the SCUMC in this work, addressing factors to interrupt the cycle of intergenerational poverty. We support quality early childhood experiences providing technical assistance, training, monitoring and resources for home child care providers in 23 counties. Approximately 90% of our providers serve children in high poverty school attendance zones. 99% are female and 58% are minority, as are 60% of the children served. As a sponsor organization for participants in the USDA's Child and Adult Care Food Program, we assist childcare providers in receiving reimbursements for nutritious meals served to promote children's healthy development and keep their small family child care home businesses financially stable. ICS is currently piloting a Provider Partnership Program to increase collaboration between home childcare providers and local UMCs to advance our work in building strong families, communities and healthy, thriving children. Local UMCs are paired with a family childcare provider to support these children and their families by providing enrichment resources and extending invitations to the children and families to participate in church activities. Together we are creating and sustaining safe, stable, nurturing relationships and environments for children and families which have been shown to prevent adverse childhood experiences and help children reach their full health and life potential.

KILLINGSWORTH

The mission of Killingsworth, a National Mission Institution of United Women in Faith, is to support, to empower and advocate for women recovering from varying life crises within a safe nurturing Christian environment. In 1947 Corrie Killingsworth's vision of a safe, supportive Christian home for young women leaving home for the first time became a reality. In 1972 the mission changed to serve women who had experienced significant life crises and were preparing to transition back into the community as more stable, responsible citizens.

Residents are referred from across the nation leaving addiction treatment facilities, homeless shelters, prison, domestic violence facilities, and other toxic environments. Residents are expected to work or go to school and be able to pay a nominal fee for residency. Killingsworth provides not only a safe supportive community for residents, but also life skills, Bible study and spiritual development, career development, individual and group counseling and financial literacy as they prepare to return to their homes or create new ones.

JUBILEE ACADEMY

Jubilee Academy is a faith-based organization, working to turn the hearts and lives of inner-city children, youth and families towards Christ and academic excellence.

Vision: At Jubilee Academy, we envision educated, productive citizens who have exchanged the bondage of welfare and poverty for freedom in Christ, in the hopes that these individuals will be the firm foundation for future generations, according to God's word. There is nothing more critical to a community's long-term sustainability than a well-educated and well-adjusted child, for they are our future! Ensuring that all of the children of the Midlands receive the support they need to become well-adjusted, educated, productive members of the community will guarantee a bright future for both these children and the community at large. Jubilee is committed to changing lives forever and breaking the cycle of generational poverty, which keeps these children from reaching their full potentials.

THE COASTAL SAMARITAN COUNSELING CENTER

The Coastal Samaritan Counseling Center's mission is to assist people on their journey toward healing and wholeness. The Center ministers to individuals, couples, and families in crisis through affordable holistic counseling, education, and consultation. The Center also is providing a school enrichment program to assist public and private schools with their students and staff mental health needs. The Center also promotes and maintains close associations with various churches, inter-faith communities, and clergy in the Grand Strand area. Assisting area business, non-profits, and ministry leaders, the Center offers relevant educational and consultative services to help create strengthen and sustain a culture of excellence that is needed in today's COVID -19 world.

While the Center's main office is in the heart of Myrtle Beach at First United Methodist Church, the Center offers has an additional 5 day per week office in North Myrtle Beach serving the North Grand Strand. Because of COVID-19 and the necessary lockdowns CSCC have added Video Therapy to replace our normal satellite locations. With Video Therapy, we can service the entire State of South Carolina.

The Center is affiliated with a national network of faith-based counseling centers called The Solithen Institute. The Solithen Institute accredits counseling centers, which have a theological purpose, offer basic counseling services, utilize a holistic perspective, and require staff to have professional credentials. The Institute's mission is to help affiliated centers provide team-oriented, cost-efficient counseling, education, and consultation, which emphasize the interrelatedness of mind, body, spirit, and community.

THE TRACY JACKSON PROGRAM OF GIFT (General Instruction for Tomorrow)

The Tracy Jackson Program of GIFT has a mission to feed the bodies, minds and spirits of children. We do this by providing a free summer day camp type experience, including free breakfast and free lunch and activities, when school is not in session.

In the summer of 2019 we served an average of 160 breakfasts a day and 190 lunches a day to the children in Abbeville County and in the City of Anderson. In Abbeville 62% of the public school children get free or reduced priced meals at school; in Anderson it's over 94%.

For some of the children, their first knowledge of God is the grace said at meals in our program and the care of our site workers.

Our motto is "We do it for the children." Our prayer is to serve Christ by serving God's children.

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION- SOUTH CAROLINA UMVIM-SC

Volunteers in Mission began as a vision that ordinary people could make an extraordinary difference in the world. South Carolina is proudly the home of these visionaries and the beginning of this amazing ministry that is now worldwide and supported by many Conferences across the United States. It has also served as the model for other denominations as they have followed the lead to create hands on ministries through the years.

Today Volunteers in Mission are men and women who are adventurous in their faith. They yearn to not only serve Christ, but to serve Him in new and exciting ways. They want to broaden their horizons of faith as well as the height and breadth of their lives. They want to go where the need is greatest and meet that need with faith, hope and love.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission is a fellowship of believers, lay and clergy, men and women, adults and youth, who have stepped out in faith to serve the needs of communities around the world.

South Carolina UMVIM consists of people just like you. They have felt and followed the call of Christ in their lives to go out into the world. They share the vision and spread the Gospel of Christ through actively working to ease the burdens of others through construction, medical clinics, evangelism, VBS, and many other means.

Acting as the hands and feet of Christ, UMVIM missionaries help others at home and throughout the world through construction, medical and various other activities. Whether it is building a chapel in the Philippines or building and staffing an eye clinic in Haiti, the men and women of UMVIM, SC strive to put shoe leather on their faith. There are multiple opportunities for short term or long-term service, and opportunities year round in many places.

UMVIM-SC meets the first Tuesday of each month at Grace UMC on Harbison Blvd., Columbia at 7:30 pm except in June and July. We invite all to attend even if you have not participated in UMVIM before.

UNITED MINISTRIES

United Ministries' mission is to serve and empower those on the transformative journey 200 200 to self-sufficiency. Our vision is a community working together to ensure that everyone has the opportunity to thrive in Greenville.

WALLACE FAMILY LIFE CENTER

The Wallace Family Life Center is a family-oriented facility. The mission of the center is to provide educational, cultural, recreational and religious programs to enrich the lives of the people in the Wallace community. Currently, the center offers the following: children after school program, summer camp, summer youth garden club, adult education, adult Bible class and medical assistance, CDL and mental health referrals.

Although, Wallace is located in an economically challenged area in South Carolina, the pandemic has selfishly had a devastating impact on some households and often meals are insufficient. Therefore, the WFLC also periodically distributes food to assist families in need within the Wallace community on a first-come, first-served basis. It is the support of United Women in Faith, South Carolina UMC, Churches, individuals and others throughout the year which allows the WFLC to provide valuable services to children and adults in the Wallace and surrounding area who utilize the center.

LAY LEADERSHIP AREA OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES – REPORT 1

Purpose:

Lay Leadership falls under the 4 areas of ministry in the SC UMC Conference Connectional Ministries program. Lay Leadership serves to unite laity across the Conference and to encourage laity to be engaged in their local church and active in the district. From the smallest membership churches to larger membership churches, all churches are important.

Key moments from the previous year:

Lay Servant Ministries has seen an increased interest in the CLM (Certified Lay Minister) training program over the past year. Annie Crocker, CLM, and Spartanburg LSM Director, presented a testimony as the first CLM in SC before the CLM Network Conference/AC Directors LSM meeting in Nashville.

United Women in Faith were busy this year with activities to meet their $10,000 challenge to the Legacy Endowment Fund. They contributed $112, 947.57 over the last 9 years. UWF awarded 5 Presidential Scholarships to young ladies to assist with their education. The Spiritual Growth Event was held in April with over 200 attendees.

MenNMinistry had 4 District “Teaching Church” events this past year. These events kept men connected to each other and God. A conference was held in February at Journey Church with 180 men attending. The men were encouraged to stay close to God and be better husbands, fathers, brothers, and uncles.

Youth around the Conference enjoyed Revolution and Immerse, two very well attended events. A retreat for youth was held at Asbury. SC Ministries with Young People (SCMYO) sponsored a coaching cohort to equip youth leaders. A “Collaborative Youth Ministry Think Tank” event was held for youth leaders.

Laity were given the opportunity to spend time with Bishop Holston as he traveled to each district. We are grateful for all the laity who give of their time and talents through Lay Servant Ministries, United Women in Faith, MenNMinistry, District Lay Leaders, our youth, and our older adults.

Objectives for the coming year:

Continue our work to engage and equip the laity across the Annual Conference with the resources and information needed to assist local churches.

Continue to partner with groups in our local communities and share the love of Jesus Christ.

Continue to embrace our new reality and work actively to ‘be the church’ wherever we are.

Continue to find avenues to bring churches and local communities to the table to focus on mission, ministry, and the response to racism and homelessness.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

We must continue to embrace where we are as a United Methodist Church and Conference. The church is still the church. We are called to be disciples and to show the love of Christ to others. We must continue to be diligent in our missions and ministries. There are persons around us who need to hear the Gospel. Let us continue to be the disciple God calls us to be.

Narrative:

These are extraordinary times in our church and our world. As we navigate the future, may we show God’s love and light to others. Jesus said we are to “love one another as I have loved you.” May the world see us as people who love and respect each other even though we may not all agree on a variety of issues. May we live out our faith in Christ, by impacting lives, and being living testimonies of His love.

*A personal note: I want to thank the laity and clergy of the South Carolina Annual Conference for their support and encouragement over these last 12 years during my time serving as your Conference Lay Leader. It has been one of the honors of my life to represent the South Carolina UMC in so many ways and venues across our Annual Conference and the General Conference. LAY LEADERSHIP AREA OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES - REPORT 2

Nomination of Conference Lay Leader (SR 30f) nominated by the Lay Leadership Area Nominating Committee.

Conference Co-Lay Leader: Betty Void
Conference Co-Lay Leader: Michael Jennings

Note: Standing Rule 30 requires this nomination to be reported as Report 2 of the Lay Leadership Area report. For convenience, this nomination has also been reported as part of Report 5 of the Nominations report.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Purpose:

Lay Servant Ministries is a program of lay leadership development. It is an equipping and empowering system which provides laity the opportunity to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ who then go and make other disciples. It is a significant component of any intentional discipleship system, and corresponds to the Four Priorities of the conference.

Key moments from the previous year:

Lay Servant Ministries has partnered with the new Dementia Leadership group in our conference by providing the lay servant course, "Ministry with the Forgotten," as an introduction to the caring ministry with persons who have dementia and their family caregivers.

The Academy (Train the Trainer) held each year was held at Washington Street UMC for the first time in August. A new format was introduced with a plenary session led by Rev. Ken Nelson, and then an overview of several classes after lunch. The "Teaching Adults" portion of the Academy was held in district clusters at later dates.

Conference Co-Director, David Salter, attended both the CLM Networking/-Leadership Conference and the Association of Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries in Nashville this past January where lots of new information was received and hopefully implemented in the SC Lay Servant Ministries. Several District Directors also attended by Zoom.

Annie Crocker, South Carolina Conference's very first CLM (Certified Lay Minister) was asked by Discipleship Ministries to speak to the entire group in Nashville about her experiences in becoming a CLM and how it has impacted her life. She was very well received.

Many lay servants have stepped up to become Safe Sanctuary Trainers in their respective districts.

New courses, including a course on Sacraments, are ready for teaching in the SC Conference. The sacraments course was taught in Greenwood District this past April.

The number of CLMs in SC is increasing, and many CLMs have assignments to churches. There are now some 12 to 15 CLM specializations.

Objectives for the coming year:

- Continue the great work Lay Servant Ministries is already doing.
- Continue incorporating the Four Priorities into the work of Lay Servant Ministries.
- Begin offering more of the new Advanced Lay Servant courses into the district schools.
- Support the training of more Certified Lay Ministers, especially helping CLMs understand the advantage of specialization.
- Increase the visibility of Lay Servant Ministries and the advantages of participating in lay servant courses.
- Increase communication into local churches about lay servant ministries.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Although speaking from the pulpit has always been one important role of the lay servant ministry, many lay servants will never speak from the pulpit. This is NOT a requirement of becoming a certified lay servant. There is a place in the ministry of caring, love, and service for all lay servants. Lay Servants are encouraged to engage with clergy with the goal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Narrative:

Lay Servant Ministry is for everyone. Lay servant ministry helps all of us become better disciples of Jesus Christ. The Basic course in lay servant ministry would be a great starting point for anyone entering into membership in the local churches, as it is an overview of Wesleyan theology and practice.

Lay Servant Ministry has been the starting point of many of our clergy who have heard the call to ministry. There have been many clergy, new, and seasoned, who have related stories of how attending Lay Servant Schools helped to shape their theology, their compassion for others, and the desire to serve in a ministerial capacity. Others have found their calling into compassionate lay ministry through Lay Servant Ministries.

SOUTH CAROLINA MINISTRIES WITH YOUNG PEOPLE

Purpose:

To equip, enable, and empower young people (6-12 grade) and adults who lead ministries with young people in local churches in the SC Annual Conference.

Key moments from the previous year:

Youth Ministry Events:

- Immerse: Immerse 2023 saw nearly 200 young people and leaders from across the conference participate at Asbury Hills for a discipleship weekend. Participants were challenged to consider the theme “Transformed” and reflect on what it means to live a transformed life for Christ.
- Revolution: Rallying around the theme “We Are ONE”, youth and leaders (over 1000) gathered at the Township Auditorium for worship led by Reggie Dabbs and Sons The Band. Youth were challenged to embrace the ideas from scripture of One Body, One Church, One Lord. Numerous youth responded to an invitation to Christian Discipleship and to a call to explore vocational ministry.

Equipping Youth Workers

- SCMYP Coaching Cohort: One of the most effective means to equip youth leaders throughout the conference is through the SCMYP Coaching cohorts. The cohorts work through 6 sessions of youth ministry basics as participants receive both group and individual coaching from Chris Lynch and Rev. Maggie Cantey that is contextualized to fit their unique situation. Regardless of church size, location, or the employment status of the youth worker (part time, volunteer, full time) the cohorts have proven effective in equipping leaders.
- Collaborative Youth Ministry Think Tank: A new training opportunity this year offered youth workers in a specific area the opportunity to collaborate to consider possibilities to work together and pool resources to work together in ministry with young people within their churches and communities. The think tank was in direct response to identified needs of youth workers across the conference.

Objectives for the coming year:

SCMYP plans to continue to offer opportunities for young people to experience events like Immerse and Revolution in the coming year. In addition SCMYP is looking to partner with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to create an event for youth that are looking to explore a call to vocational ministry in the coming year.

SCMYP plans to offer another round of the SCMYP Coaching Cohorts in the coming conference year as well as continuing to support youth workers with training. Another avenue of support may arise as we continue to explore the future of collaborative youth ministry partnerships within our conference.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Ministries with Young People in the SC Conference are alive and well. Time and again young people in our conference have borne witness to the power of God and the work of the Holy Spirit. The adults in ministry with young people in SC serve graciously and are passionate about equipping this generation of Christ followers to live out their faith in bold ways within the church and beyond. In a world and denomination full of uncertainty, one thing that is certain, the church is in good hands... not just in the future, but right now if we are willing to allow the voice of young people to be heard and play a role in leading us forward.

OUTREACH AREA: CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Purpose:

The Outreach Area distributes apportioned dollars to help with ministry and missions in South Carolina. From scholarships to apportioned dollars to grant money, we seek to empower people. Some seek to continue existing ministries and others seek to innovate. The heart of the Good Samaritan is embodied in our work.

Key moments from the previous year:

With many new faces our work area needs to address many “in-house” tasks: getting to know one another, learning the criteria for our grants, identifying the various sources of funding, etc.

This year we embrace Spartanburg Methodist College. We enjoy a relationship with this institution of higher learning. Through the decades of pastoral ministry, I routinely meet people who look to SMC as a helpful start introducing them to new possibilities for their lives.

This past year the Belin Trust awarded $195,000 for innovative ministry projects in local churches. Through our Advanced Specials Ministries $155,000 went from apportioned dollars to existing mission areas. The Wallace FLC provides an example. It's ministries go beyond the ability of any one local church. When we combine financial resources and hire workers with specific training, we are enabled to share God's love in ways a local church couldn't. Our apportionments make these ministries possible.

With Hunger Ministries we distribute apportioned dollars among local churches seeking to make food available. Five applicants received $449 each, as we provided a total of $2,245.

Through Golden Cross two scholarships were awarded at $1,000 each to students in the medical field. Also, four grants were given to make existing church buildings more accessible for persons with disabilities. These grants totaled $25,000. A little less than $2,000 was awarded to help with Church Extension ministries.

Objectives for the coming year:

First, get new leadership and new faces introduced to the existing programs. Then, organize tasks into working groups. Second, we have a few new possibilities for growth. Bryan Pigford brings this new opportunity.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Outreach is charged with many different responsibilities. It's a privilege to serve in this capacity.

SOUTH CAROLINA
ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS (SC ELCC) COMMITTEE
2023 Report to the Advocacy Ministry Area

SC ELCC has continued to work collaboratively with the South Carolina Association for Community Economic Development (SCACED), The Summit on the Black Church, South Carolina Black Methodists for Church Renewal (SC BMCR), The Carolinas Black Clergy Retreat, and various Discipleship Events. Our budget for 2023 was $35,000. The implementation of Best Practices is still in place.

There was a total of thirty-three SC ELCC Scholarship Application requests in 2023 for various events, of which thirty-one were approved. SC ELCC Grant Funding Cycles One and Two, combined, received One Grant Application from an underrepresented Racial-Ethnic Church in the SC Annual Conference; and, it was funded.

SC ELCC assisted the Summit on the Black Church and the Carolinas Black Clergy Retreat, along with several youth groups, that were monetarily assisted, through an SC ELCC Scholarship, to attend Revolution, an annual youth event held in South Carolina. Funding for individual scholarships for persons in attendance and purchasing an Ad for SEJ BMCR's 53rd Annual Meeting booklet to support its ministry.

There are many Underrepresented Racial-Ethnic Churches in the South Carolina Conference, and Parsonages, that are still in need of repairs. SC ELCC voted to continue to support Grants for necessary repairs other than brick and mortar. In addition, SC ELCC does not fund salaries or transportation.

SC ELCC continues to encourage all our Underrepresented Smaller Membership Congregations in the SC Annual Conference to write for scholarships and grants to help TEACH (train, educate, affirm, communicate, and heal) their leadership and prospective leadership. Start early, and seek assistance from SC ELCC members, and through Mrs. Doris Seals, Conference Staff, to ensure your application is in order, and can be successfully funded.

My sincere thank you to Mrs. Doris Seals, Conference Staff Assistant, and Rev. Bernie Mazyck, Advocacy Chair, for their support.

ALDRSGATE SPECIAL NEEDS MINISTRY

Purpose:

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry provides the highest quality of life, and greatest level of independence, in Christian homes, for adults with special needs.

Key moments from the previous year:

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry was very busy during 2023. God blessed us with a successful Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry Sunday as we tripled giving thanks to our generous supporters. We purchased two homes in Columbia that will be home to 8 adults with special needs. One of the new homes opened in November and is called Tommy's House which is named after Rev. Milton McGuirt's brother, Tommy, who had special needs. We had a groundbreaking for the Sunshine House in Florence at the Methodist Manor which is opening in early 2024. This home was built by funds donated to ASNM by an anonymous donor. Late in 2023, the ministry was fortunate to purchase home in the same neighborhood at Tommy's House in Columbia. This home should open in late spring of 2024. The ministry had a terrific time in August at Asbury Hills. All of the residents from our homes participated in camp at Asbury Hills as well as several staff members. We were blessed by Jim Hudson Toyota who graciously donated funds so we could purchase a new van for one of our homes. ASNM published it's first book capturing the first 20 years of the ministry. ASNM didn't run into many challenges over the past year outside of just trying to keep up with all of the growth and projects, but that is a welcome challenge after the ministry not having any growth with new homes since 2015.

ASNM's objectives for the coming year are the following:

open two more homes in the Columbia area and possibly one home at the Methodist Manor in Florence; maintain the excellent quality of care offered in our homes throughout the growth; expand the scope of the residents we have traditionally served; begin planning a capital campaign for additional homes to be purchased or built; offer lunch to UMC Conference attendees again this year with hopes of serving more folks; participate in more outreach events in the community and within churches in order to inform more people about our ministry; grow our administrative support in order to keep up with the growth of the ministry. We hope to have the opportunity to take our residents on more trips like Asbury Hills and have our residents participate in activities that give back to the community in which they live. Lastly, it is our hope that we can get more churches in the UMC Conference involved with our ministry.

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry is making a positive difference in the lives of adults with special needs in South Carolina. The support of the Churches and the Conference is helping us to further our mission and for that we are grateful. Please know that your prayers are coveted and all donations no matter how big or small are making an impact! We would invite anyone that is interested to come visit our homes as we serve some amazing people.

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

Purpose:

The purpose of Epworth's Children Home is to break the destructive cycle of abuse, neglect, and shame and replace it with an opportunity for each person to live a life of self-respect, responsibility, and productivity.

Key moments from the previous year:

- I. With the support of the UMC, Epworth surpassed our budgeted goal for gifts and contributions in 2023. Through the support of the United Methodists of South Carolina, Epworth is able to offer children and families the support and guidance they need in order to move toward stability and well-being. Last year 92 churches partnered with Epworth and provided much needed support to birth, kin and foster parents.
- II. Epworth continued to expand our footprint into all regions of the state. Overall, Epworth served over 1400 children and families in 2023.
  - i. Epworth's foster care program continues to expand. The foster care staff served 373 children and youth in the program. In addition to serving 373 children in foster care, 20 children were adopted into forever families. Since the inception of foster care in 2017, staff have licensed 286 foster families. Furthermore, we are excited to report that 92% of the children served in foster care in 2023 remained stable and did not experience any moves. Placement stability is recognized as a key factor in increasing attachment and well-being.
  - ii. Epworth also launched our newest Center for Counseling in Anderson, SC in April 2023. The center treated 53 clients in its first year. This center provides in-person and telehealth treatment services to children, youth, and families. The Columbia Center for Counseling continues to provide much needed mental health services to Richland County. The center provided services to 430 clients.

Objectives for the coming year:

Epworth will continue the expansion of the Institute for Child and Family Wellbeing by introducing Kinship Navigation programs in two regions of the state. The South Carolina Department of Social Services awarded Epworth with kinship navigation grants for the Midlands and Pee Dee region. Kinship navigation is a program designed to assist kin caregivers with legal capacity, financial sustainability, parenting and child community connection, and caregiver emotional support. Research has shown that children and youth experience better outcomes with self-esteem and stability when placed with a relative. We are excited to be able to provide support to the many grandparents taking care of their grandchildren in South Carolina.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:*If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Epworth Children's Home has a long tradition of assessing the needs of underserved children and their families and of offering new services and programs that meet the changing needs of South Carolina's families. The centers of excellence under the umbrella of the Institute for Child and Family Wellbeing reflect Epworth's recognition of the demands that the 21st century places on abused children and the families from which they come. Whether Epworth is serving children and families through the traditional group home, foster family programs, kinship care initiatives, counseling programs, family care programs or services for older, disengaged youth, the mission of healing hurts and nurturing hope through Christian communities continues. Epworth is a community where unconditional love and grace are modeled to all persons regardless of gender, race, national origin, or religious preference.

Narrative:

- iii. Epworth launched our Intensive In-home Family Preservation program in Columbia. This program serves birth and kin parents who need treatment services to increase family stabilization and safety. During the initial year, Epworth served 47 families. This program differs from the Homebuilders® crisis stabilization program in that staff remain engaged with families for 4 to 6 months. In addition to our Intensive In-home program, our Homebuilders® prevention programs served 112 families during 2023. Both programs aim to keep children from entering state supported care and increase family stability.
  - iv. Although South Carolina continues to minimize the use of residential care, Epworth continues to serve youth with quality residential services. The Independent Living Center served 22 youth ages 18-23 years of age. This center prepares youth who are aging out of care with the necessary tools to be successful in life. Epworth's Family Care Center served 28 mothers and children during 2023. This program provides a safe space for mothers and their children while going through substance use treatment. Mothers are taught life skills so that the family unit is preserved upon discharge from the program. The traditional residential program served 101 youth.
  - v. Epworth's Early Intervention Center serves children with special needs through a preschool on campus and home-based services. The home-based program served over 135 clients through its programming.
- III. Epworth maintained the coveted 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for sound financial management, and its commitment to accountability, and transparency for the 12th year in a row.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The funding that is granted to The Residents Assistance Program, enables residents to finish out their lives at The Manor and not move from the place they chose to make their home in their Retirement years, whether they need Independent Living, Assisted Living, Alzheimer's/Dementia Care or Skilled Nursing Care. Residents should not have to move from the environment they have come to cherish and call home to another Facility at the end of their life, due to exhausting their life savings.

WESLEY COMMONS

Purpose:

Wesley Commons exists to enrich lives by providing innovative living opportunities in accord with Christian principles. Wesley Commons is a master-planned, full-service Life Plan Community.

Key moments from the previous year:

While we continued to recover from the global pandemic, none were immune to the inflationary forces that created excessive drag on our economic recovery. As these financial storms wreaked havoc on the greater economy; the tumultuous impacts on our residents, staff and the community at large were deeply felt. That being said, I remain grateful and proud to be a part of such a wonderful team of caregivers at Wesley Commons. A team that provided shelter to our Wesley Commons' family, as we worked together to be a shelter from the storm. The impacts of COVID 19 were devastating on so many fronts and touched the lives of every member of our Wesley Commons family in some fashion.... we continue to feel the pain of those wounds. Likewise, the impacts of the dramatic inflationary elements within our economy continue to claw at the wellbeing of all, but we remain a robust community. Our mission of care is resilient and our drive is never diminished. Not only have we remained at high alert protocols for several years, we have also navigated through the correlating financial impacts related to those safety efforts and other legislative missteps. While taxing, we are grateful to have traversed through this awful storm and now see the hint of clear skies ahead... as we accelerate towards a brighter future.

Objectives for the coming year:

As of this writing, Wesley Commons is mapping out several phases of community enhancements that are intended to carry us forward as the community of choice for those seeking exceptional hospitality and healthcare of value. Wesley Commons looks forward to engaging in our plans that have reimagined our campus amenities for our diverse and evolving consumer. Our plans remain heavily focused on forward-looking investments in our hospitality services areas, as well as potential offerings that reflect the demographic shifts ahead.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

“With God’s help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround these persons with a community of love and forgiveness that they may grow in their trust of God, and be found faithful in their service to others. We will pray for them, that they may be true disciples who walk in the way that leads to life.”

- UM Baptism Covenant

Remember when you left your parents’ house for the first time? The excitement, the home sickness, the mix of emotions and you needed a safe place, a home away from home where you could be yourself. That’s what we seek to do in campus ministry. Your campus ministries provide a haven when students need a break, when they need someone to talk to, and when they are wrestling with life’s big questions – vocation, interpersonal relationships, with their very identity.

Isn’t it great to participate in a baptism? Whether you’re the family, the pastor, or the congregation, it’s truly special to invite someone to be a part of the family of God. You know these same students are the ones with whom you covenanted when they were baptized. It’s a blessing when the campus ministry meets a young adult that has yet to meet Jesus. Both of these students need the support of a faith community, people who walk alongside them through those sometimes-tumultuous college and grad school years.

We need your help! Can you spread the word in your own congregations that there are places to plug in while students are in college? Church doesn’t drop them in High School graduation and then pick them up when they have kids. We need to be there especially during these years of transition in young adulthood. I heard one person at Revolution ask one of the campus ministers if there was a Wesley at the school she was going to. Thankfully, there was.

You already give to campus ministry through your apportionments! Thank you for giving them! We greatly need extra support over the coming years. If you have a campus ministry in your area or district or want to support all of them, we need it. We also need your prayers - for our students and fruitfulness in our ministries. We want to create spaces for students to grow, interact, learn, and flourish. Will you help us?

All of God’s Blessings,

Narcie M. Jeter, Chairperson
Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY

Purpose:

Claflin University provides a student-centered, liberal arts education grounded in research, experiential learning, technology, community service, and life-long personal and professional fulfillment. Claflin is a diverse and inclusive community that works to cultivate practical wisdom, judgment, knowledge, skills and character needed for globally engaged citizenship and effective leadership.

Key moments from the previous year:

FEB 2024 - Claflin University received a $1.8 million grant for its CU-DEEP Wellness Initiative which focuses on specific areas of health and wellness, often areas of concern in rural, minority communities. The CU-DEEP Wellness Initiative has four pillars of health and wellness: Dietary Health, Economic Health, Emotional Health, and Physical Health.

JAN 2024 - The Mellon Foundation awarded Claflin University $1,489,000 to establish a Humanities Hub that will focus on place-based collaborations, embedding social justice content in the general education curriculum, and community-participatory research. Claflin's Humanities Hub will promote race/gender equity, environmental justice, and community well-being.

SEPT 2023 – With a No. 9 ranking this year, Claflin University is ranked a U.S. News & World Report Top 10 Best HBCU for the 13th consecutive year. Additionally, Claflin improved in the Top Performers on Social Mobility category as it moved up to No. 9 after being ranked at No. 20 in 2023.

AUG 2023 - Congressman James Clyburn (D-SC, 6th District) presented a check to Claflin University President Dr. Dwaun J. Warmack for $17,417,000 from the U.S. Department of Commerce and the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) for an Innovation Center for Computer Science and Biotechnology. Claflin is the first HBCU to receive support from the NIST construction fund.

APRIL 2023 – Four Claflin University freshmen are now receiving an intimate look at the challenges, opportunities, and skills necessary to succeed in the hyper-competitive corporate environment as the University's inaugural class of BlueCross® BlueShield® of South Carolina Scholars

Objectives for the coming year:

RE-IMAGINING the UNIVERSITY'S GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS – given the speed of change in higher education, general education requirements of the past can be inadequate to meet the needs of future students. For this reason, faculty are taking a deep dive into curricular changes that will better prepare our students for future success.

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY STUDENT CENTER – This year we will open a new 80,000-square-foot center for student life. The game-changing center will serve both students and the wider community and will include an 800-seat ballroom (the largest in the county), a 150-seat movie theater (the only one in the county), and a rooftop patio that accommodates 350 (the largest in Orangeburg).

CENTER FOR ELEVATION AND TRANSFORMATION – This new center, the Innovation Center for Computer Science and Biotechnology, aligns with Claflin's growing reputation as a premier liberal arts college/university and its widely heralded STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) agenda. The state-of-the-art teaching, learning, and research facility will increase the university's capacity for research in emerging bioscience areas, environmental science, and cybersecurity.

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE – First established in 2020, work to fully realize the promise of the Center for Social Justice this year focuses on 1) diversity and inclusion training, 2) police education training, 3) Pathways from Prison, 4) healthcare disparities, and interdisciplinary collaboration.

NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS – With more than half of our students being first-generation students and nearly 75% eligible for Pell Grant support, building support for need-based scholarships continues to be a pressing need for the University.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference: None.

If you take away nothing else from this report, know this:

Support from Claflin University is crucial to Claflin's ability to sustain and build on its proud legacy of nurturing and cultivating future leaders for the ministry of the United Methodist Church. Furthermore, the University remains steadfast in its commitment to honor, promote, and support its affiliation with the United Methodist Church locally, nationally, and globally.

Narrative:

The blessings of this past year have been profound. From our growing nursing program – which now includes two master's tracks -- to the new student center, new programs in downtown Orangeburg, and tremendous growth in the number of opportunities our students now enjoy to study abroad – preparing the next generation of young leaders remains a humbling and awesome responsibility. As a long-time sustaining partner with us in this work, the United Methodist Church sees, with greater fidelity than most, how a community of higher learning can become a community with a higher calling.

We continue in this work ever mindful that we are in the hands of Divine Love and Mercy, the beneficiary of care that surpasses all our understanding.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

Purpose:

The mission of Columbia College is to prepare every student personally and professionally for success through liberal arts and professional programs emphasizing service, social justice, and leadership development.

Key moments from the previous year:

Columbia College welcomed its 21st President, Dr. John Dozier, in July 2023. Continuing to build on momentum of recent years, the College also welcomed Dr. Sandra Rouse '95 as Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students in February 2024.

Capital project improvements include the acquisition and renovation of College Place Church, to be completed in Fall 2024. Two buildings that were beyond repair – Ariail-Peele and Daniel Hall - were demolished to become communal greenspaces for students. Partnering with the Columbia Fire Department, Daniel Hall was used as a training opportunity for their annual Search and Rescue Certification Program.

Student Affairs and Conference and Event Services presented TEDxColumbia College SC, a local, independently organized event curated by the Columbia College TEDx team. This event served as an opportunity for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members to share research and personal experiences relating to the significance of our society and a world that works to establish and maintain connection. Additionally, the Department of Athletics announced the addition of Men's Basketball to begin in Spring 2025.

The Institute for Building Resilience through Trauma-Informed Practices (TIP) began a community partnership with the Alston Wilkes Society, becoming the first community organization in SC to be certified as a TIP agency. The College also partnered with City Year to offer scholarships to City Year AmeriCorps members, alumni, and staff. Finally, the Columbia College Alternative Pathways to Teacher Certification Center continues to build on its success, certifying 90 teachers since 2018 with a teacher retention rate of 97%.

Objectives for the coming year:

We have begun a process for planning our College's growth and impact over the next three to five years. Our vision for Columbia College – called "On the Rise" – articulates how we will grow enrollment and net revenue through the impact we have on our students learning, growth, and success. We will complete the plan this year and begin its implementation. As stated above, we will also complete the renovation of College Place for occupancy in the fall while continuing to address the physical needs of a growing college community.

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

At Columbia College our mission is "to prepare every student personally and professionally for success through liberal arts and professional programs emphasizing service, social justice, and leadership development."

We take pride in our roots as a Methodist-affiliated, liberal-arts college that offers every student an education that spans the arts, humanities, sciences, and social sciences while also preparing students for meaningful careers.

Our staff and faculty aim to cultivate well-rounded, critical, and compassionate people who are encouraged to explore fundamental questions of life, ethics, and human dignity, fostering a sense of responsibility for each other and the world around them. In summary, we change lives – this is more than a slogan or tagline, but an expression that deeply aligns with the outcomes we desire for our students, their families, and their communities. Not only are we committed to changing lives for the better, but to preparing our students to do the same.

Narrative:

"It's ok to do things scared."

This is the advice recent Columbia College graduate Mariah Williams wanted to leave with her fellow Columbia College students. Mariah shared that as an international student, getting involved on campus was intimidating. However, because she felt empowered to try new things – even though she was scared – she found a home at CC. Mariah graduated from Lugoff-Elgin High School. Because of this positive experience, she chose to stay in South Carolina to complete her bachelor's in social work. After arriving at Columbia College, she discovered that living on campus would be an adjustment for her. She was tempted to retreat to her room, but before long, Mariah realized that she wanted to be more involved in campus life.

Even though she was scared, she started a work-study program in Tuition Accounts. Her position in Tuition Accounts led her to a position as Basketball Manager. Her position as Basketball Manager led her to the Columbia College Activities Board, and by her senior year, she served as president. Along the way, Mariah served as an Orientation Leader for first-year students and the Social Work

Honors Society. Needless to say, Mariah fell right into place as a campus leader because she was willing to “do things scared.”

Mariah Williams graduated in the spring Class of 2023 and plans to start her Master of Social Work degree. As an institution, we hope to continue to empower students like Mariah to do things scared. The result is nothing short of inspirational.

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Purpose:

Spartanburg Methodist College is a private residential institution offering associate and baccalaureate degrees within the United Methodist Connection. At SMC, lives are transformed in a values-oriented, student-centered atmosphere in the Christian tradition that encourages academic excellence, intellectual exploration, social awareness, and character development within the liberal arts tradition.

Key moments from the previous year:

- SMC continues to develop and diversify our education offerings as we live into our identity as a 4-year college. Our faculty have developed and approved new Bachelor’s degree offerings in Sports Management, Professional Writing and Digital Communications, and Psychology.
- SMC graduated our fourth class of Bachelor’s Degree students in May.
- SMC debuted the “Pioneer Promise,” a program that guarantees that any student with a 4.0 GPA or higher in High School can attend SMC with no cost for tuition, fees, or books.
- SMC’s athletic programs will be competing at the NAIA (National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics) starting in the fall of 2024, giving our student athletes the opportunity to enjoy the SMC experience for 4 years. Additionally, SMC is committed to growing the relationship between academics and athletics through a faculty liaison, Student Athlete Advisory Committee, and a Faculty booster club.
- SMC was Approved for Listing Without Qualification by the University Senate.

Objectives for the coming year:

- We continue to add to our course offerings and schedule with an eye towards accommodating our 3rd and 4th year students.
- SMC is committed to ensuring that our students have the best opportunity to persist through to graduation. As a result, SMC has adopted a single advisor program. Under this program, a student will have the same advisor from enrollment through employment.
- SMC has a Science building that is in dire need of updating. We have identified the renovation of this space as an institutional priority in the coming years.
- One area of focus will be to support and program for the new NAIA athletics activities on campus.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Since 1911, SMC has provided education and opportunity to young people who might not otherwise be able to access it. SMC strives to fulfill this mission by making the college experience affordable, personal, and effective. Every person on this campus, from the staff to our faculty, to President Cochran, is committed to shepherding these young people in the direction of love, peace, and prosperity.

It is our belief that the ongoing work to move into offering a four-year option at SMC will enable us to better reach these students. Time and again, we have heard from graduating students that they wish they could remain at SMC in our familial, supportive atmosphere. Now we can offer them that opportunity to continue to grow in knowledge, citizenship, and faith while continuing to be nurtured by our committed, caring faculty and staff.

Narrative:

Starting your first job out of college is eye-opening for many graduates. Many are intimidated by the culture and pace of their new company. The Camak Core professional development program at Spartanburg Methodist College is designed to ease that transition and propel graduates to success.

Rodney Setzer '22 learned just how beneficial the Camak Core courses were when he started his job as a trade show coordinator for an electronics company. While he was skeptical of the value of the Camak Core while in school, he quickly noticed how often he leaned on those skills in his new job.

Rodney now shares that the Camak Core gave him essentially an internship during class hours. His professional development classes allowed him to build his professional expertise that led to him being successful in his new career. Rodney believes that his Camak Core classes were just as helpful to him as his Business classes.

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Purpose:

Wofford College provides a superior liberal arts education that prepares students to be leaders who think critically while possessing the knowledge and skills to turn thoughts into action to make positive contributions to the world around them.

Key moments from the previous year:

In 2023, Wofford celebrated the dedication of the Blackwell-Quattlebaum Center for Wellness and Counseling Services in the Hugh R. Black House after a $3.5-million renovation.

In the fall, we welcomed the class of 2027 with 510 new students, which makes it the college's largest class ever. There were 4,186 applications.

Over the past three years, the college community has spent time revisiting its history. Recently, Dr. Dwain Pruitt (class of 1995), chief equity officer and vice president for community initiatives, has secured a grant to tell the college's history of desegregation, culminating in a publication that will be ready in time for the milestone's 60th anniversary in 2025.

We also mourned the loss of Jerry Richardson (class of 1959), who died March 1. His $150 million gift in 2021 continues to inspire our community of learners to seek innovative ways to leverage the things we do well to support student success.

Objectives for the coming year:

Wofford will continue to look for innovative ways to create meaningful experiential learning opportunities for our students.

The Wofford College Wesley Fellowship, under the leadership of the Revs. Megan and Brad Gray (class of 2001), meets on campus weekly and offers a Sunday school class at Bethel United Methodist Church. The group has seen growth and has expanded its reach to include students from other campuses in Spartanburg.

Wofford College is appreciative of its ongoing relationship with Central United Methodist Church. Our Lifelong Learning program is currently housed there and involved 517 learners in 2023.

The college's Emerging Leaders Initiative (ELI), a vocational discernment program for those considering some aspect of lay or clergy ministry, continued this year. The program is led by the Rev. Dr. Ron Robinson, a 1978 Wofford graduate and the Perkins-Prothro Chaplain and Professor of Religion. Eight students received scholarship assistance as participants. Students are exploring ministry in areas ranging from environmental justice, gerontology, chaplaincy, counseling, medicine and social work.

Chaplain Robinson and Director of Career Services Curt McPhail (class of 1996) received a multi-year grant from NetVUE and the Lilly Foundation to establish a Vocation Across The Academy program. A dozen faculty and staff are part of a cohort that is reading books about the theological exploration of vocation. Each will present an action plan for integrating vocational exploration and discernment into their work with students.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

During the 2023-24 academic year, Wofford distributed more than $86.5 million in merit and need-based scholarships, federal and state aid, as well as outside scholarships and loans. A third of Wofford's budget goes toward scholarships and financial assistance, and more than 97% of Wofford students receive some form of financial aid. Specifically, the college's 132 United Methodist students (7% of the student body) shared more than $5.4 million in financial assistance this year (100% of the South Carolina Annual Conference's contribution goes toward financial assistance for these deserving students).

Narrative:

Magic happens when you put those enthusiastic about teaching with those ready to learn. At Wofford, it's an everyday magic that has been a part of the college's culture since the first three faculty stood before the first seven students in 1854. It's a magic that now extends well beyond the walls of Main Building, where those first students lived, ate, took classes and met with professors.

While every student still takes classes in "Old Main," students now also spend time learning from the banks of Lawson's Fork Creek in Spartanburg and in the boardrooms and offices on Capitol Hill. They conduct research with faculty mentors on campus and complete internships abroad. They learn as they serve, lead, compete, perform, live in close quarters with others, and, yes, even when they make mistakes.

For the past decade, Prema and I have been on campus for all of it, and it has been our honor to serve this special place and the teachers and learners who, along with us, call Wofford home.

CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

Purpose:

We are committed to creating disciples of Jesus Christ for the world and are dedicated to serving any and all college student in the Charleston area in three ways: 1. Connect them with Christ. 2. Connect them with each other. 3. Help them through college.

Key moments from the previous year:

1. We have seen record attendance from College of Charleston and the American College of the Building Arts. We have the highest attendance in the past 5 years at Charleston Southern University and Trident Technical College.
2. In 2023, we distributed more than 40 Study Bibles to students who wanted to grow deeper in their relationship with Christ.
3. We have 7 students working in local churches, 25 Student Leaders who are committed to discipling their peers, 8 students leading our Worship Team, 3 students serving on our Board, 2 students discerning/pursuing a call to ministry, at least 2 students desiring to be baptized, and an average of 110 students served every week.
4. A challenge has been the loss at least 2 partner churches due to the current UMC climate.
5. We have seen a growth in support from local churches. We celebrate the fact that we are supported in either prayers, presence, gifts, service, and/or witness by at least 34 UMCs, 1 AME, 1 Nazarene church, and 1 GMC.

Objectives for the coming year:

1. We will lean into Trident Technical College and discern how to best serve this largely commuter population.
2. We will maintain our current level of involvement at each of the campuses we serve and take hold of advantages when they arise.
3. We will connect with more local churches (UMC and beyond).
4. We will fundraise an additional $30,000 in anticipation of future Conference funding changes.
5. We will restructure of Leadership hierarchy in order to be more student centered and driven, relying on their input more often.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

God is alive on the campuses of College of Charleston, Charleston Southern, The Citadel, Trident Technical, and the American College of the Building Arts. There are students who love Christ and seek to live in better relationship with Him.

The Charleston Wesley Foundation is creating spaces for students to explore their faith, discern their calling, and lean into the sanctifying grace from God.

We need prayers, we need presence, we need gifts, we need service, and we need witness.

Narrative:

One student we have connected with is from California. She grew up in a family that does not profess Christ. She recounted a story to me of how she tried to share her faith with her family as she began to take it seriously in later high school, and she was met with resistance and disregard. She only leaned deeper into her faith when she connected with Wesley. Now, she works in Children's Ministry at a local church, is a professing member of that church, and is a Student Leader. This past Christmas, she felt called to gift her brother a Study Bible for Christmas. She chose a Study Bible like the one that Wesley gave her. Since he received that Bible, he has read it every night. Her mother, seeing his excitement to read, went out and bought a Bible for herself. My student was so excited that she burst with excitement to share with me after Christmas break.

What God is doing in these students hold worldwide repercussions. Because of what God has done through Wesley, a family in California is called into deeper relationship with Christ. Because of what God is doing through Wesley, this young lady is invited to share the Gospel with more.

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

Purpose:

The purpose of the Coastal Carolina University Wesley Foundation is to provide a place where young adults ages eighteen to twenty-six can find community, grow deeper in relationship with Jesus Christ, and put their faith into action, through mission and outreach.

Key moments from the previous year:

This year CCU Wesley has continued to grow and we have seen the movement of the Holy Spirit at work among us. Evangelism and outreach have been a direct focus for all participants within the ministry. This focus has helped to reach out to incoming freshmen in the Coastal Carolina University community, as well as re-engage individuals who had previously stepped away from the ministry.

In the fall semester, a partnership with Rev. Hillary Taylor and the South Carolinians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty allowed for our outreach and mission discussions to become concrete action items. Rev. Taylor, and representatives who had direct experiences with the South Carolina death row, shared their stories and allowed for faithful discussion on how our theological belief and political action correlate into what Jesus calls us as disciples to do.

CCU Wesley participants continue to be active participants in the life and ministry of First United Methodist Church Conway. Serving in all areas of ministry from Bible study, Children's Ministry, Youth Ministry, and Worship. The First UMC Conway congregation has welcomed and built deep relationships with the members of the ministry.

Continued challenges with our fundraising efforts have been seen throughout this 2023-2024 academic year. A direct charge to our Coastal Wesley Foundation Board of Directors has been given to help in securing funding for future ministry and mission, especially and in light of the continued growth of the ministry.

Objectives for the coming year:

In the coming year, CCU Wesley seeks to continue to grow its membership, to reach young adults throughout the Grand Strand. As membership grows and more become alumni of the ministry, effort in the coming year will be made to connect with alumni and extended family of current members to help with fundraising and giving efforts.

Overall, CCU Wesley continues to strive to be a place of inclusion and welcome to all who are seeking a relationship with Christ, those who have questions about faith, and those who Christ has called for us to care for within our part of God's kingdom.

Action(s) required from the 2023 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

CCU Wesley stands on the promise that everyone is broken; however, everyone belongs, is welcome and wanted at the feet of Christ and within the CCU Wesley family.

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION (METHODIST STUDENT NETWORK)

Even now, Jesus proclaimed, the kingdom of God is breaking in upon us. The reign of God is breaking into the lives of students at the University of South Carolina and into the campus ministry called the Methodist Student Network (Wesley Foundation) as we worship, serve each other and especially the “least of these”, learn about the mysteries of faith, offer hospitality, work for justice and work for the full realization of God’s rule. It is a community striving to be hospitable to all regardless of background, language, sexual orientation or maturity/expression of faith. We are young, very imperfect but passionate about the spiritual life and are intentional about living it out in practical and faithful ways. These are some of the signs of the reign of God breaking in among us.

We serve. We regularly go to the Washington Street Soup Cellar to serve food and offer words of encouragement. We provide a breakfast for the homeless/food insecure on a Saturday morning once or twice a month. We prepare the food at 6:30 am at the campus ministry center and serve it in a parking lot in downtown Columbia. We also serve dinner, interact and play games with the patrons of the formerly homeless pallet program at the Rapid Shelter. Additionally we serve on other one-off occasions at places such as the Tucker Center.

We are in mission a number of specific times each year though we are called to be in mission 24/7. We do not exist apart from mission. This past year we took three different mission trips to demonstrate and share the gospel in word and deed and so learn from others from their unique perspective. We took a group to serve in Ecuador offering a medical-optometry-health clinic serving 2000 people. We went to the Texas-Mexico border for a service-learning-solidarity trip working with and walking side-by-side migrants and hearing their stories. And we went to Oklahoma for a service-learning trip supported by the Indian Missionary Conference.

We gather in small groups throughout the week support one another and to learn more about the faith. We do bible study, share our lives and pray for one another. We have a number of small groups for special interest populations and also a bible study specific group. This year we held two retreats (Lake Junaluska and Edisto Island) to allow students more time for building the community and intentionally connecting with God. We have an older graduate plus group (Joyful Hour) that regularly meets to provide friendship and faith support.

We worship Sunday evening in a lively and joyous manner utilizing the various gifts of students and a diversity of traditions from the global church. Afterwards we eat together a meal donated by a local United Methodist church of prepared by staff or a local church.

The Campus Ministry Center is a place of hospitality where many students gather to socialize, eat, study and meet to talk. It is also home to other groups and ministries. We have founded several interfaith groups that meet at the center. The “Table of Abraham” (Christian, Jew, and Muslim) has expanded to become Carolina Interfaith A to Z. The Jewish student group, Hillel, is now sharing the building renamed Carolina Faiths Center which has one of four interfaith prayer spaces on campus. We meet together as various faiths several times a month learning from one another and witnessing (from our Christian viewpoint) to our God who considers every person to be a child of God.

Sincere thanks to all the people and churches that support this connectional ministry. This ministry would not be possible without it. Thanks to the Board members, local churches, Sunday school classes, UM Men’s and Women’s groups. We are grateful that they are so helpful. And, of course, thanks to students and staff.

Tom Wall, United Methodist Campus Minister
Columbia Wesley Foundation Director

FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

Purpose:

Francis Marion University Wesley Foundation also known as Alive in Christ Student Ministries on Campus, exists to help students grow stronger in their faith, share the love of Christ on campus, in the community and as they journey through life.

Key moments from the previous year:

This past year our group had the wonderful opportunity to have a weekend Fall Retreat at the coast. We used the theme “survivor” for our weekend. It was a great time of fellowship, worship, bonding, and fun. Like most retreats, this retreat provided the students with an opportunity to slow down, relax, explore nature and listen for God’s voice. Retreats are always a great event for all students. The impact of our weekend was wonderful and students are looking forward to going on retreats next year.

Our group had the opportunity to participate in community service this past year. Our favorite was working in the book warehouse of OM Ships International Ministry, a nonprofit here in Florence.

The support from local churches supplying meals has greatly increased this past year. Our meals are an important draw for a lot of the students in our group. Who doesn’t love a great meal? These churches are doing a great job with the meals and we are grateful for their support.

Objectives for the coming year:

Some of our objectives for next year are to continue to help our students grow in their faith with retreats, worship, fellowship, community service, laughter, Bible study and showering them with the love of Christ.

We will continue to be visible and reach out to students on campus with every available opportunity. Participating at a recent FMU Block Party resulted in nine new students attending with eight of them being Freshmen. This is most we have ever had for students attending our ministry after events like this on campus. We are hoping to continue with growth in our ministry at FMU and every campus ministry across our state, so please spread the word to anyone you know going off to college about joining a Wesley Foundation if they can.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The ministry at Francis Marion University Wesley, will continue to shower God's love upon our students and will continue to reach as many students as we can. The support we receive in various ways is very much appreciated, because with out it we could not exist. Thank you for supporting campus ministries.

Narrative:

In closing I would like to share with you thoughts from one of our students.

What does this group mean to me? Where do I even start? I will go back in time, when I was a freshman, not knowing what I truly wanted to do or where to belong. I then discovered Alive in Christ Student Ministries (The Wesley Foundation) at the student involvement fair and I immediately fell in love. I thought, "Wow, free food, I don't have to eat ramen noodles today." Around that time I did not take the word of God too seriously. I thought to myself that God was trying to tell me something. He wanted me to seek him but I had not been. I realized that God loves us and he is the one and only.

Being apart of this group throughout the years really felt like a new home. I was excited for every Monday, while other people hated Mondays. Getting to know different people, personalities and perspectives helped me for the future. I can agree to disagree and still be your friend. I also gained alot of knowledge when it comes to love. It taught me that there is nothing wrong with having genuine relationships and learning about God together, in fact it feels good that we have that in common. I learned to never loose my salt and light. Alive in Christ taught me to stand tall and firm in my belief and that no one can take that away from me.

FURMAN WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

Purpose:

The ministry of Furman Wesley Fellowship serves the Furman University community in the values of the United Methodist Church. We seek to be "A Place to Be, Belong, Connect, & Engage" for the student of Furman.

Key moments from the previous year:

This year represented one of the best we have experienced during my time at Furman Wesley, in fact, we are experiencing an amazing 3-year stretch! We are having more students attending our Tuesday night gatherings. We currently have about 7 international students participating in our ministry. We continue to be a visible presence on Furman's campus by participating in University wide events...

- Our facilitators participated in the Baccalaureate and Orientation Worship Services.
- We hosted our annual hospitality event, Warm Up w/ Wesley, in which we gave out coffee, hot chocolate, and doughnuts to students, faculty, and staff at the beginning of December.
- We partnered with our Furman Heller Service and Furman's Best Buddies organizations in mission outreach events.

In addition to our on-campus presence, we have led worship at local church events and at the state-wide Wesley Gathering held annually at Asbury Hills.

So, what does this all mean? It means that Furman Wesley [and all our Wesley Foundations] sits at a crossroads. We are experiencing some of the best ministry in our history while at the same time facing the tough challenge of building a sustainable model of ministry. I know the future is unclear and that there is anxiety, but I pray that we lean into the promise that we do not venture alone. I am excited for all that we are doing as a Wesley Fellowship. I am encouraged by our students and their dedication. And, I am honored to be the campus minister of Wesley.

Objectives for the coming year:

Our continued priority is finding creative ways to stay connected to our students, campus, and community. Our group has sought new ways of connecting with students, as well as, partnered with a few other campus groups to provide outreach to the community. Another priority is being strategic about how to provide a sustainable ministry at Furman University. We have been blessed in our ministry with gracious supporters who see the value in our ministry. However, we recognize the importance of being proactive in the ever-changing environment of the UMC and the world in which we live. Our Wesley Board is continually looking at ways to remain a healthy and vibrant ministry. We continue to seek ways to speak into, and connect with, all of our wonderful students at Furman. We have a diverse campus, and it is important for us to live into the whole of United Methodism. We value our role in leadership development and vocational discernment. As each student finds their way into our ministry, it is our desire to help them identify their gifts and discover the ways God may desire to use them for the kingdom. Finally, it is our strong desire at Furman Wesley Fellowship to find ways to engage the larger Greenville and UMC communities. We recognize the connective nature of our church, and honestly our world, and desire to reach beyond the walls in order to give back to the people who are so gracious in supporting our ministry.

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The ministry at Furman Wesley Fellowship, and all our collegiate ministries across the denomination, is some of the most important work we do as an Annual Conference. Our Furman Wesley Fellowship desires to pour into the lives of young people, and we pray that our Annual Conference will join our collegiate ministries' mission by making ministry with young adults a priority in our church.

Narrative:

"I have grown up with zero religious background at all. However, after talking with a few friends, I decided that I would try and join a spiritual life group and after talking to all of them I felt that Furman Wesley had the most welcoming atmosphere. I think joining Wesley has been the single best decision I have made in college so far. I have met many great friends who are all in different spots on their own spiritual journeys and have been able to learn more about myself through them. I have attended the Wesley Gatherings where we strengthen our connections with each other and learn more about the values of the faith. I have also attended the Wesley Freshman Group where the leaders discuss their own experiences and values regarding their faith and help us better understand the Bible. Since joining Wesley on the first night, I have felt a sense of peace that other members had told us Freshman that they had before. If there are any takeaways from my reflection, it's that college is a time of drastic change for everyone as they are exposed to new ideas and people. Wesley has changed me so much for the better in ways I can't even describe, in ways much larger and better than any other group on campus, spiritual or otherwise. So I want to say thank you to the Wesley Leaders whom I met at the Religious Life Fair and invited me to join them at Wesley." [Cole Houser, Anderson, SC]

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Campus Ministry at the Wesley of Orangeburg is vital to our students; it is a ministry that allows young people with different life situations to find a place to explore life spiritually. And as always, to know that Jesus is at The W.O.O. and Jesus will meet at the W.O.O. and He will surely woo you, so meet us at The W.O.O. (The Wesley of Orangeburg).

Narrative:

The Wesley of Orangeburg, #The W.O.O., continues to provide a place and space for students to feel at home. We have seen many of our students need prayer and pastoral care. I am blessed to be able to provide such a service in the name of the Lord. Sharing the word of God with those who are seeking, wondering, and not sure of their spiritual life is truly a blessing. This year, our giving campaign was for all pastors, members of the church, and church to give $20.23 every 5th Sunday. We continue to spend time bringing awareness of the Foundation's ministry to African American churches throughout the state as well as to the students of Claflin University, South Carolina State University, and Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College.

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

Purpose:

We exist to create a nurturing Christian community where students may express, explore, and nurture their faith.

Key moments from the previous year:

One of our key values is including those often excluded. 2023 saw significant investment in our accessibility, including addition of a wheelchair ramp to our main entry and updating a bathroom to be handicap accessible.

We held our first Fall retreat since COVID, helping students grow closer to each other and to God.

Weekly meetings where students are fed by local churches and engage in exploring their faith continue to be the backbone of our ministry. Connections forged here result in students caring for each other throughout the week.

Objectives for the coming year:

Family matters have led to the early retirement of our current Director effective July 1, 2024. We look forward to renewed energy and ideas from our incoming Director.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Hello, my name is Morris Waymer, and I am the chairperson of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. We appreciate your taking the time to review our report to the 2024 South Carolina Annual Conference, which you can read at umcsc.org/ac2024.

The Board of Ordained Ministry is composed of both clergy and lay members who are completely committed to providing faithful servant leadership. We give our time and share our exceptional gifts to the ministry of leadership development with the candidates. As a team, we constantly pray to affirm the calling of each candidate for ministry. We walk with and nurture candidates who seek ordination. We aim to encourage excellence, show compassion, listen attentively, and ultimately guide candidates towards progress – from being ready to become fit for ministry.

We are forever grateful for each member of the Board of Ordained Ministry so that we can develop excellent leaders in various ministry settings. We continue to adapt our interview process and live into how we can make things better. Our Executive Committee meetings are held via Zoom. 2024 marks the second year we have been able to have in-person Provisional and Full Member interviews. We are appreciative of the feedback we have received and strive to make the necessary adjustments.

The goal remains the same. We will continue to work efficiently and be faithful in our two main responsibilities: developing leaders and credentialing clergy.

On Sunday evening, June 9, 2024, at 7 p.m., the Service of Commissioning and Ordination will be held at the Greenville Convention Center to celebrate the fruit of persons who have answered a call to ministry and successfully navigated the requirements for commissioning and ordination. These persons are valued as meeting the standards of readiness and effectiveness for ministry in the local church and other ministry settings.

As of April 16, 4 people are scheduled to be ordained as full elders: Morgan Barner Byars, Kenneth Bernard Middleton, Martin Luther Quick, and James William Smith. I will share updated information about this group at Annual Conference.

One person will be ordained as a full deacon: Katherine Miller Bariou.

3 people will be commissioned as provisional elders: Kendell Linh Healy, Paige Danielle Wheeler, and Nona Margaret Woodle. I will share updated information about this group at Annual Conference.

One person will be received as an Associate Member: Edward Timothy Stallworth III.

Matthew Alexander, who was previously ordained in another Methodist Denomination, will have his orders recognized and is being received as a full member of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Daniel Hembree, who was previously ordained in another Christian Denomination, will have his orders recognized and is being received as a provisional member of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Edward McKnight, who was previously ordained in another Christian Denomination, will have his ordination recognized and is being received as a local pastor of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry would also like to recognize those who have reached an achievement in their continued preparation for effective ministry. The following persons completed the five-year Basic Course of Study in 2023: Vaughn Edison Chichester, George Palmer Hudson, James William Lewis, Sr., and Sandra Guild Stillinger. Thank you for your commitment to completing this educational goal.

We humbly give thanks that each person who has responded to a call to ministry and a commitment to their education, commissioning, and ordination. We ask for God's blessing on their continual journey in ministry, mission, service, and witness. We encourage all local churches and other ministry settings to invite persons to explore a calling to ministry and to prayerfully nurture that calling into leadership.

I want to say thank you to all churches in the South Carolina Annual Conference for the generous giving you share. Your apportionment dollars and giving towards United Methodist Special Sundays provide scholarships for people attending seminary to achieve the necessary education to equip them for ministry. The scholarship recipients that we have received information from are Heather Connor, Amber Forrest, Leah Huggins, Tyner Jiunnies, and Renee Ritter.

We are thankful to local churches and the Annual Conference for ongoing support for the Ministry Education Fund. Through your bountiful giving, the Board of Ordained Ministry has provided financial assistance to students, reducing the cost of their education. We pray you will continue to be faithful in your support of our future leaders as they remain dedicated in their leadership development toward excellence in ministry. Please send your offering to the S.C. Conference Seminary Students Scholarship Fund, an endowment of the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation, which provides scholarships to candidates for ministry from South Carolina attending United Methodist seminaries and theological schools. Your financial gifts are truly welcome. We will update you on these recipients during Annual Conference.

District Committees on Ordained Ministry play a crucial role in the ministry process by meeting with all candidates for ministry. They are an extension of the Board of Ordained Ministry and provide the first line of nurture and accountability for individuals in the process. The Board of Ordained Ministry is deeply grateful for the hard work and gracious dedication of every District Committee.

We celebrate God's call on lives to serve, lead, and experience the joy of ministry. Ministry is a continual journey, and we faithfully provide opportunities for growth to occur. The Board of Ordained Ministry works tirelessly to plan the yearly Bishop's School of Ministry and Clergy Orders gatherings. We recruit and engage seminarians as potential and hopeful leaders in the South Carolina Conference, discern and process Extension Ministry requests as the field of ministry shifts, and participate in Approval for Service requests for persons seeking to join our Annual Conference. We receive and prayerfully process requests for Change of Status of candidates and clergy, and engage persons discerning a call to ministry through the Candidacy Retreats. These are just a few of the ongoing responsibilities of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

As a Board of Ordained Ministry in the South Carolina Conference, we rely on the support of our local churches to identify and nurture candidates interested in pursuing ministry. We are committed to providing holistic and accountable care to all those who feel called to serve Jesus Christ. Though our parish may have evolved, we believe that ministry can still bring hope, joy, and grace to our lives. As a team, we pledge to faithfully attend to the needs of every person on their ministry journey.

The Board of Ordained Ministry would like to express our gratitude for the devoted and competent leadership of two remarkable individuals. First, we appreciate the efforts of Rev. Mel Arant, who serves as the Coordinator of Clergy Services. Second, we acknowledge the exceptional contributions of Mr. Sharome Henry, who works as the Executive Assistant for Clergy Services. Their expertise, guidance, and affection for all people have been invaluable to our Board. We recognize that the efficient execution of our tasks would not have been possible without their direction, leadership, knowledge, proficiency, and dedication.

Thank you for taking a moment to consider the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry as you prepare for the 2024 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Again, you can read our full report at umcsc.org/ac2024.

Payments for group health premiums and Flexible Spending Accounts premiums shall be made on a monthly basis.

D. Cancellation of Coverage

THE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS WELFARE PLAN SECTION

Welfare Plan Structure

The welfare plan made available to South Carolina Conference clergy is the Comprehensive Protection Plan (“CPP”) sponsored by Wespath.

The CPP disability benefits are as follows:

- Clergy disabled on or after January 1, 2002, the CPP disability benefit equals 70 percent of Plan Compensation, with compensation capped at 200 percent of the DAC (Denominational Average Compensation.)
- Clergy disabled prior to January 1, 2002, will continue to receive the same CPP disability benefit per the plan document in-force at the time of their disability claim originated.

The following generally describes the death benefit amounts payable under the CPP to eligible participants and their beneficiaries.

Active Participant Death Benefits: payable upon the death of an eligible active CPP participant, as follows:

- Participant: $50,000, payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Spouse of active participant: 20% of DAC (Denominational Average Compensation) in the year of death
- Surviving spouse of active participant: 15% of DAC in the year of death
- Child of active participant: 10% of DAC in the year of death
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of 20% of DAC, less the annuity benefit payable from CRSP.
- Annual surviving child benefit of 10% of DAC, payable in 12 monthly installments (for those age 17 and younger; benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18)
- Annual surviving child educational benefit up to 20% of DAC, payable in equal installments (for those age 18 through 24 and attending school full-time)

Retired Participant Death Benefits: to be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. The 2012 General Conference approved a change to the CPP program which increases the length of service requirement for retirees. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed on the following table. **Those who retire under the 20-year rule are ineligible for CPP Death Benefit.

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

The Death Benefit amounts associated with retired participants are detailed in the following table:

Plan Provision	Clergy Who Retire Before January 1, 2013	Clergy Who Retire January 1, 2013 or later
Death of retired participant	30% of DAC in year of death	$21,400
Death of retiree's spouse	20% of DAC in year of death	$16,100
Death of retiree's surviving spouse	15% of DAC in year of death	$10,800
Death of retiree's child	10% of DAC in year of death	$8,600
Annual surviving child benefit, payable in 12 mo. Installments	10% of DAC	10% of DAC
Annual surviving child educational benefit, payable in installments	20% of DAC	20% of DAC

Denominational Average Compensation

Several of the pension and welfare plans incorporate the Denomination Average Compensation (“DAC”) into the formula for determining the plan benefit. As reported by Wespath, the DAC is projected to increase from 2024 to 2025 as follows: The 2024 DAC is $78,292. The 2025 DAC is $80,297.

South Carolina Conference (741) 2025 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

This funding plan incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the plan sponsor's obligations and funding of the benefits provided to clergy and laity, as noted below.

It is understood by the signees that defined benefit plan liabilities [Pre-82 Plan, Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and Clergy Retirement Security Program Defined Benefit (CRSP DB) and other sponsored defined benefit plans] continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the plan sponsor still has a liability (obligation) and potential future contribution due to the plan.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007.

CRSP consists of two components:

- A defined benefit (DB) plan--provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church
- A defined contribution (DC) plan--provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences

Elections and Estimates

	Final
Eligibility requirement	100%
Conference Full Time Equivalents (FTE)	401.00

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Plan Overview: Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when it is to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or paid in a lump sum.

Pre-82 Plan (Pre-82)

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

- 1) Years of service with pension credit--approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
- 2) The conference pension rate (past service rate)--the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the PSR, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit. At that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM-based benefit does not change.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

Plan Overview: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full-time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three-quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

The CPP adoption agreement executed by the SOUTH CAROLINA contains its elections to cover or not to cover categories mentioned above.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Purpose:

To encourage the preservation and appreciation of the history of Methodism in South Carolina by promoting the study of Methodist history through articles, programs, projects, and resources. To serve as a “ministry of memory” helping the church to remember how God has worked through the Wesleyan Movement.

Key moments from the previous year:

The Society continued to develop the South Carolina Methodist Historic Trail Project under the leadership of the Conference Historian, the Reverend Dr. A.V. Huff, Jr. Five members of the Society attended the 2023 Annual Meeting of the SEJ Historical Society in July at Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina which focused on Methodism and the Civil Rights Movement. The annual meeting was held on October 21, 2023, at Spartanburg Methodist College with presentations by the Reverend Timothy C. Drum, College Chaplain, and Dr. R. Phillip Stone, Conference Archivist, related to the founding of the College under the leadership of the Reverend Dr. David E. Camak. The Officers were re-elected for 2024-2025. The Society provided an exhibit table at the 2023 Session of the Annual Conference. Two editions of the Society’s newsletter, The Mark, were produced and distributed during the year in addition to the monthly column in The Advocate written by the Society’s officers.

Objectives for the coming year:

The Society hopes to continue and possibly complete the development of the South Carolina Methodist Historic Trail during 2024. The Society will continue to respond to inquiries and research questions and continue to provide material for the monthly column in The Advocate. Several members of the Society are expected to provide leadership for the 2024 Annual Meeting of the SEJ Historical Society in September at Lake Junaluska. The Society will continue the publication of its newsletter.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The Conference Historical Society is active and welcomes new members. It continues to receive and respond to inquiries from across the conference and beyond related to the history of Methodism in South Carolina. A regular presence is provided through its monthly column in The Advocate, its newsletter, and its page on the conference website.

Narrative:

The Reverend Dr. A. V. Huff, Jr., serves as South Carolina’s representative on the SEJ Commission on Archives and History along with the Reverend Dr. Roger M. Gramling, who is President of the SEJ Historical Society. The Reverend Meredith M. Dark, President of the Conference Historical Society, was elected during 2023 to serve as an “At-Large” Member of the Executive Committee of the SEJ Historical Society. The Reverend Franklin B. Buie stepped down during 2023 after many years of faithful service to the SEJ Historical Society, most recently as its Membership Secretary.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION (Form Report)

Purpose:

The main purpose for the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) is to make sure that full-time ministers in the South Carolina Conference are paid to meet the minimum wage, which the annual conference establishes each year upon recommendation by CEC.

Key Moments from the Previous Year:

As 2024 begins, we have much to be thankful for and new challenges to meet. We have adapted to the presence of COVID-19; however, the effects of the pandemic and subsequent inflationary period are still resolving in South Carolina. We are hopeful that stability is returning. Our CEC has continued to work hard to ensure our clergy are sufficiently compensated for their time and effort, and we have been able to come in under budget this year thanks to the assistance of the cabinet.

This past year has been relatively calm for the CEC. We have continued with business as usual, seeking to ensure that full-time ministers in South Carolina are paid to meet the minimum wage established by the annual conference. There are no significant changes to our policy to report.

Objectives for 2024:

Foremost, to meet any challenges which 2024-2025 will bring for churches struggling to compensate their full-time ministers. Continue helping Congregational Development in providing ministry opportunities for this conference. Continue to have a working relationship with the cabinet and extended cabinet.

Actions Required by the 2024 Conference:

Due to the ongoing inflationary pressure, the CEC is recommending a cost of living increase of 3.2% to our minimum salary in 2024: our aim with this increase is to continue to provide competitive minimum salaries as well as to ensure pastors can pay their bills after the large amount of inflation we saw from 2020-2022. This increase also recognizes that no increase was made in minimum salaries for 2021 and 2022. We have asked for $365,000 from the CF&A for 2025 which is the same amount as budgeted for 2024; however, we recognize major budgetary adjustments are likely to be made this conference season. We will make the best use of whatever funds are provided by the conference.

If You Take Away Nothing Else From This Report, Know This:

The funds you provide allow ministry to happen in places where we would otherwise not be able to have a presence. CEC has always been, and will continue to be, good stewards with the money supplied by the conference. Your generosity has not been taken lightly by our committee. We are thankful for all that you have done so we can continue to make sure we take care of our pastors. With that being said, we ask that churches make sure your pastors take their designated time off. A rested minister will function better to promote the ministry God has in store for your church.

Respectfully Submitted:

Rev. Jon Hoin, Chair
jahoin@umcsc.org, 704-839-3953

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION (Detail Report)

Report Number 1

A. The Mission and Changing Focus of the Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation

Historically, the CEC has served to support the full-time clergy in the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Through the years, the CEC has been guided by the United Methodist Book of Discipline; the latest version states the following: "It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference." (The Book of Discipline, 2016, Paragraph 625.2 at pg. 442) The CEC supports the overall ministry of the local church, especially in transitional situations.

B. Total Compensation for Clergy

1. The commission on equitable compensation reminds churches and charges that salary is only one portion of total compensation. Churches and charges are urged to consider dispersing compensation in ways that will assist clergy and their families to retain as great a portion of their income as is legally possible. Churches and charges are reminded to consider total compensation, not just salary, when thinking of clergy family needs. Likewise, clergy are reminded that they are supported in a variety of ways, and total compensation most often exceeds salary.
2. Churches and pastors are urged to keep informed of their income tax responsibilities and rights. Pastors are advised to seek qualified assistance in making decisions that will affect their income tax liabilities.

A. Budget Request for 2025

The CEC requests that a line item apportionment of $365,000 be made to fund the CEC operational budget for 2025. These funds will be used for salary support for base compensation supplements, renewed vitality situations, new church starts, special situations, cooperative parishes, mission situations, and Hispanic/Latino ministries for clergy and situations who meet the criteria to receive funding.

B. Schedule of Total Minimum Compensation for Clergy Serving in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. In accordance with the mandate of the Book of Discipline, the CEC recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 2025 and continuing until changed by action of the annual conference.

FOR FULL TIME CLERGY APPOINTMENTS IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

a. Members in Full Connection, Elders and Deacons	$53,985	$52,311
b. Provisional, Commissioned, and Associate Members	$49,076	$47,554
c. Licensed Local Pastors	$45,528	$44,116

We are recommending a cost of living increase of 3.2% for the following reasons.

- a. The minimum salaries did not increase in 2021 or 2022, and they have not caught up with inflation since.
  - b. The Social Security cost of living increases for 2022 and 2021 were 5.9% and 1.3%, respectively. In 2023, the Social Security cost of living increase was 8.7%. In 2024, the Social Security cost of living increase was 3.2%.
  - c. We do not know what inflation will be in 2024 so we must project an increase that will help compensate for a further decrease in purchasing power.
  - d. Based on the clergy population and salaries in 2022, the 3.2% increase would render only 9% of the clergy population at or below the proposed minimum salaries.
  - e. The increase has a minimal impact on the variable costs of direct billing.
2. Full-time ordained deacons, in accordance with Paragraph 330 of The Book of Discipline 2016, beginning at pg. 254, shall be compensated by the local church not less than the minimum amount for an ordained elder of the annual conference. (See Paragraph 331.10(b) of The Book of Discipline 2016, pg. 263.) Deacons who are employed by the congregation, charge, or cooperative parish less than full time shall be compensated proportional to the percentage of time being served. (Half time would receive not less than half the minimum salary.) Deacons not employed by a congregation, charge, cooperative ministry, or who are appointed under Paragraph 331.6(d) are not affected.
3. Longevity Increases

A clergy person, who has completed 5 or more year's full time service in the United Methodist Church, shall receive in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $175.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service. (In practical terms, this increase would not be applied until the fiscal year following the completed annual conference year. In other words, the first increase would not be applied until the January after the Annual Conference at which the clergy person completes their fifth year.)

Example:

- Year 6 Minimum base compensation plus $ 875.00
- Year 7 Minimum base compensation plus $1050.00
- Year 8 Minimum base compensation plus $1225.00
- Year 9 Minimum base compensation plus $1400.00
- Year 10 Minimum base compensation plus $1575.00
- Year 11+ Minimum base compensation plus $1750.00

C. Housing Allowances

The Commission recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in close proximity to the charge which he/she serves.

D. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross-racial appointment, find it necessary to request an equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis.

E. Utilities Allowance

The Commission requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference designate 15% (or estimate of actual expenses as requested by recipient) of base compensation assistance funded by this Commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service. Under IRS Guidelines, this money may be used for household expenses including mortgage or rent payments.

F. Investment of Reserve Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in reserve be invested and the interest reinvested or used in the Commission's operating account depending on the needs at the time. In accordance with guidelines established with CF&A in 2013 and presented to the 2013 Annual Conference, the floor of the reserve is to be set at $300,000 in order to meet general projection shortfalls, to allow for the unanticipated start of a new church or missional situation, or to deal with an unexpected disaster. The reserve fund shall be invested with the aim of preserving the principal investment, targeting its growth rate to meet or exceed inflation over a given ten year period.

G. Interpretation

The commission recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

H. Compensation Guidance

The Commission recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 419.4 419.6 of The Book of Discipline 2016 (pg. 343-344)

I. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses

1. The Commission recommends that each church set up a reimbursement account for travel and professional expenses incurred by the pastor in performing pastoral duties. Reimbursement for non-commuting church-related travel shall be at the IRS rate in effect at the time of travel. The pastor(s) shall submit a voucher and a log each month for reimbursement. For reimbursement for actual professional expenses (books, subscriptions, periodicals, etc.) the pastor(s) shall submit a voucher with supporting documentation for reimbursement. Remember that failure to submit the proper documentation means the reimbursement funds received becomes taxable income. The amount set by the charge as reimbursement for travel and professional expenses should be determined after consultation with the pastor(s) (and the District Superintendent, if desired or needed) by the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. Each charge should annually evaluate the local needs and expectations of its pastors and set an amount for reimbursement accordingly. Also, the procedures for reimbursement should be clearly stated.
2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel and professional expenses be a part of the administrative cost of each local church and not considered or reported as part of the pastor's compensation.

J. Continuing Education

Each charge shall place in its budget an amount of $750 or more per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund. If the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carried forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's continuing education allowance inclusive of the current year's amount.

K. Vacation Policy

The Commission reminds churches and ministers that vacation time, plus time for renewal and reflection, are an expected part of compensation. Time away is necessary for personal, spiritual, and family health. It is recommended that all full-time clergy and diaconal ministers be granted, at a minimum, annual vacation and days of renewal according to the following schedule:

Total Years of Service Number of Weeks

Less than 5 years a minimum of 2 (including Sundays)

5 years - 10 years a minimum of 3 (including Sundays)

More than 10 years a minimum of 4 (including Sundays)

In addition to the above, it is recommended that the minister, regardless of years of service, be granted one day of retreat a month for prayer and reflection. Also, it is expected that the minister will have at least one day off a week. "Years of Service" reflects the number of years under appointment in the ministry of the United Methodist Church, and not the number of years of service on a given charge. "Vacation" is meant as freedom from any responsibility in the local church or charge, district, conference area, jurisdiction, or general conference. Vacation should be a time of rest, recreation, and renewal. It should not be interpreted to mean time the pastor works at a church camp, is on a mission trip, or at a meeting of a general board/agency of the conference/district. Time away from the charge for annual conference and continuing education events shall not be considered vacation time. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation. It is asked that the Lay Member to the Annual Conference communicate this information to the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and to the local church.

L. Arrearages

An arrearage occurs when full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll, accountable reimbursement, or housing allowance installment is not made to the appropriate pastor. The current procedure for handling an arrearage is outlined in detail at the conclusion of the Commission on Equitable Compensation's report in the 2013 Journal. The Arrearage Policy is also available on the conference website, www.umcsc.org.

M. CEC Grants

Salary supplementation grants are disbursed by the CEC using the processes and categories described in report 3. All supplements are disbursed utilizing the CEC's annual operational budget and/or reserve funds if the need arises (as outlined in point F. of this report).

Report 3

A. Applying for a CEC Grant

1. The District Superintendent shall request the supplementation assistance required by each charge twice each year (by May 15 for the July through December compensation assistance period and by December 15 for the January through June compensation assistance period); these requests must be approved by the Commission before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission and completed by the pastor, the pastor-parish relations committee, and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources. Grants shall be made based on fiscal years (January to December).

2. Application Procedure

CEC requests the following for initial grant consideration:

- a. An application form that includes information about the nature of the grant, the reason for the grant request, percentages to be paid to the various churches involved, the email of the pastor, contact information of the church/charge treasurer (name, address, phone number, email) and other information as designated by the CEC Chairperson.
- b. The above application form is to be presented and approved in accordance with Cabinet policy and then forwarded to the CEC Chairperson by the appropriate District Superintendent.
- c. At the discretion of the CEC Chairperson or request by a member of the CEC Executive Committee, further financial information may be required including, but not limited to: church budgets, bank statements, audit forms, treasurer's reports, etc. Failure to produce the required documents would be cause for non-approval of the grant.

3. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

- Retired supply pastors
- Part-time local pastors
- Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 99
- Special appointment categories within the itinerancy of the United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 344.1 a, b, c of The Book of Discipline 2016 (pg. 281-282).
- Deacons as defined in Paragraphs 329 and 330 of The Book of Discipline 2016 (pg. 254-255) (except as appointed with regard to Report 2.B.1-2. and Paragraph 625.4 of The Book of Discipline 2016, pg. 443).

B. Disbursement of Supplements

All compensation supplements from the CEC shall be paid to the local church involved for disbursement to the pastor or clergyperson, and shall be disbursed monthly. In the case of new mission situations or churches, monies will be disbursed directly to the pastor (as a Conference employee) until there is a church treasurer. Equitable compensation funds will not be used for moving expenses, businesses expenses, or church administration. For charges receiving CEC supplements, changes to the total compensation may be made for longevity (see Report 2.B.3. Longevity Increases above), changes in clergy status, and to reflect changes in minimum base compensation as approved by the Annual Conference. The CEC's maximum salary supplement will be 100% of the minimum salary for the clergy status and applicable longevity increases multiplied by the percentage of support scheduled for that year. The churches on the charge are encouraged to contribute additional monies to the pastor's compensation, but the total salary paid may not exceed 150% of the applicable minimum.

C. Grant Guidelines and Schedules

1. Base Compensation Assistance (BCA)

BCA supplements are designed to help local churches achieve the total minimum compensation for full time clergy. Grants shall be made based on fiscal years (January to December), and unless otherwise designated, shall decrease 25% annually. For grants beginning in July, 100% of the approved amount will be provided for the first eighteen (18) months and will decrease 25% annually thereafter.

2. New Church Starts

a. Salary supplementation for new church starts shall be as follows:

Year 1 and 2: The Commission on Equitable Compensation will pay the minimum base compensation according to the minister's category and half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits. (New church starts that begin in July will receive 100% funding for the first two and a half years.)

Year 3: Support from Equitable Compensation will not exceed 67% of the minimum base compensation amount. The Commission will pay half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Year 4: Support from Equitable Compensation will not exceed 33% of the minimum base compensation amount. The Commission will pay half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Year 5: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

b. New Church Travel: Upon request and appropriate documentation, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will provide travel allowance for new church pastors at the following rates:

First year and a half: up to $4,000.00 annually

Second full year: up to $3,000.00 annually

Third full year: up to $2,000.00 annually

Fourth full year: up to $1,000.00 annually

3. Renewed Vitality Situations (RVS)

RVS are those places that the Conference Committee on Congregational Development has evaluated and determined that short term assistance would possibly greatly enhance the effective ministry taking place. RVS grants would be for a maximum of 2 years and subject to the criteria proposed and adopted by the Conference Committee on Congregational Development. Failure to meet said criteria will result in termination of the grant. Grants will consist of: Up to minimum compensation (as described in Report 2.B.1. above) and up to one-half the appropriate Direct Billing.

4. Mission Situations

a. Mission situations are new and existing churches in transitional circumstances that are in areas that demand an effective ministry but are incapable of providing such ministry without equitable compensation assistance. Mission situations may also include intentional ministry to persons of low income.

b. Eligibility- To be eligible for equitable compensation assistance in mission situations the following procedures must be followed:

- The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a transitional situation. The District Board for Congregational Development in consultation with the District Superintendent will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational Development for verification as a transitional situation.
- The potential new mission situation will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will strive to inform the CEC of potential new mission situations one year ahead of the time the appointment is to start. The CEC will budget for new mission situations after Cabinet approval.
- At the time of appointment, the Cabinet will then designate a pastor or clergy person and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular mission situation.
- In all cases where a new mission situation is to be launched, the District Superintendent shall notify the CEC by December 15th preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in July.

Note 1. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule shall take into consideration all sources of income from the local church or from any other source. In all cases where a mission situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 2. The District Superintendent may apply to the Commission for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment.

- c. Continuation of Supplements and Annual Evaluation- If the ministry being served is unable to meet the schedule below for two years in a row, support from Equitable Compensation will cease after the next year following. An evaluation shall be done annually on each mission situation. The Conference Director of Congregational Development shall provide a report of this evaluation to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.
- d. Payment of Direct Billing Costs for Pensions and Health Benefits in Mission Situations Only- The CEC will pay only the direct billing costs of persons in mission situations according to the compensation schedules listed below. The Commission will send its proportional share directly to the conference office of Pensions and Health Benefits.
- e. Compensation Schedules for Mission Situations- Equitable Compensation assistance in mission situations will be provided for a pastor or clergy person, when requested by the Cabinet, over a ten and a half year period decreasing as follows:

First Year and a Half: The amount of Equitable Compensation support will be according to the pastor's category. If the sole salary paying unit in this mission situation is the Commission of Equitable Compensation, it will pay 100% of the clergyperson's direct bill for pensions and health benefits. If there are other funding sources included, the grant schedule will remain the same, decreasing from the original grant amount.

After One and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Two and Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Three and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Four and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Five and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Six and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Seven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Eight and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Nine and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Ten and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Travel for persons in mission situations will be provided by the District(s) in which the ministry is located.

5. Ministry With Hispanic/Latino People

a. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will operate in light of the Annual Conference's decision to make ministry with the Hispanic/Latino population a priority. Support for clergy working in ministry with Hispanic/Latino people shall be made in accordance with the Schedule for Mission Situations (Report 3.C.4.e.). CEC recognizes that adjustments may be necessary on a case by case basis. The District Superintendent, after consultation with the Cabinet and the Conference Hispanic Committee may request adjustments in the following areas:

- An extension of the initial time period from 1-1/2 years up to 2-1/2 years in which Equitable Compensation shall pay 100% of the clergy person's salary and direct bill for pensions and health benefits. In no case shall this period extend beyond 2-1/2 years. After the extension expires, support will decrease as follows:

After Two and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Three and Half Years: Support from Equitable compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Four and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Five and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Six and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Seven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Eight and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Nine and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Ten and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Eleven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

- A salary supplement for clergy living in areas where the cost of living is high. The maximum yearly supplement shall be $2,400.
- Assistance with travel expenses. In limited circumstances, Equitable Compensation shall provide up to a yearly maximum of $4,000 to supplement the support provided by the district. When assistance with travel expenses is requested, the District Superintendent shall certify that the district will spend at least $15,000 in the current year to provide housing and travel for the clergyperson.
- A salary supplement for experience in ministry with Hispanic/Latino people. This supplement will be in addition to any experience merit that a clergyperson receives on the basis of the policy set forth in Report 2.B.3. - Year 15+: $2,450 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit

All requests for adjustments shall be made in writing. Requests must be approved by the Commission before payment can be made.

6. Special Grants

Occasionally, unforeseen circumstances, both crises and opportunities, arise in which a church or churches would benefit from a short term grant from the CEC. The commission reserves the right to make grants outside of the parameters of the grants outlined above and below, so long as those Special Grants would be consistent with the mission of the CEC and do not exceed a period of 12 months. Special Grants may be issued up to the maximum applicable base compensation without direct billing. Prior to issuing the grant, the CEC will ask for a comprehensive rationale in writing to substantiate the need for a Special Grant.

7. Cooperative Parish Ministries

The initial directors or coordinators of a cooperative parish ministry, which has been approved by the Board of Global Ministries, and application made by the District Superintendent to the commission by January 1st preceding the appointment in June of the same year, may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge they serve agrees in writing to release them for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Purpose:

The Commission is responsible for preserving the historical records of the conference. The Commission also promotes and interprets the conference's history, answers research questions, and supports conference officials in their ministries. The commission is responsible for closed church records as well.

Key moments from the previous year:

The task of collecting and preserving the records of separated congregations has taken up much of the archivist's time this year. Records from over 100 churches have been collected and stored in a digital repository. The archives has continued to answer research requests from local churches and genealogists as well as from conference leaders. In 2023, we answered 213 inquiries. The archives also completed processing the Conference United Women in Faith records, and these are now available to researchers who want to learn more about UWF's ministries through the years. We also worked on additions to the Spartanburg, Greenville, and Marion District charge conference records.

Objectives for the coming year:

In the next year, we will continue to process the records of separating churches and we will continue to provide reference assistance to conference staff, local churches, genealogists, and any other researchers who need to use the conference's records. We hope to make more records available digitally for researchers who are unable to travel to South Carolina. We will also have to bring new commission members into our work. In only ten years, we will be celebrating the 250th anniversary of the founding of the South Carolina Conference, so we should begin to think about what that celebration might look like.

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

Maintaining the permanently valuable records of the conference is a long-term responsibility and one that will have an ongoing cost. But, the commission on archives and history is enthusiastic about its work.

Narrative:

Archives and History is not just about the past, it's also about the future. Archives preserve the records of the past so that people today can understand our shared history, and we preserve today's records so that people in the future will understand how we live today. We do this not just as a tribute to those who served with us in the past and present, we do it so that we can understand their times and the challenges they faced. Methodists have a great story to share, and understanding that connection between the past, the present, and the future helps us tell that story to our churches and our state.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The work of the Committee on the Annual Conference entails planning, implementing, and evaluating the annual conference. The committee always works to be relevant and responsive. The global pandemic not only required the team to be innovative and adaptable in the face of uncertainty, but also gave us the opportunity to look at our work in a new light.

Key moments from the previous year:

We were finally able to gather in person for the first time since the 2019 Conference. We applied some of the conferencing lessons learned during the pandemic to our conference planning. The biggest changes were seen in the agenda. The recognition of retirees became part of the Commissioning and Ordination Service. This allowed us as a body to give thanks to our retirees and their spouses in what many consider to be one of our most visible and worshipful services at Annual Conference. It also created the opportunity to celebrate the continuity of ministry when the new retirees and their spouses circled the newly commissioned and ordained clergy and prayed for them. The service was moved to Sunday evening, following positive feedback from COVID year participants who found it easier for their families and guests to attend. Our daily Business agenda also saw changes. Worship and business ended each day by 6:00 pm creating the opportunity for members of the conference to reconnect with each other and rest. Each day had a significant worship service and a time of Prayer and Praise led by a newly commissioned or ordained clergy. It was also an emotional year as one hundred thirteen congregations separated from the United Methodist Church.

The theme chosen for the 2024 Annual Conference is “Seeking A More Excellent Way: On the Leading Edge of Ministry.” This theme acknowledges the changing landscape of ministry and our commitment to know Christ and make Christ known.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

¶1603 of Book of Discipline provides that the Annual Conference sets the place of the meeting for the sessions of the annual conference, and the presiding bishop sets the date. Under the leadership of Bishop Holston, we project June 8-11, 2025 as the dates for the next Annual Conference. The standing rules of the conference provide that the Committee on the Annual Conference recommend the site of the annual conference two years in advance. Last year the Committee recommended that the 2024 Annual Conference session be held in the Greenville Convention Center. The Committee on the Annual Conference recommends that the 2025 and 2026 sessions also be held in the Greenville Convention Center.

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The committee expresses its gratitude to the 2024 host team under the leadership of the Rev. Jim Dennis, Greenville District Superintendent, for their spirit of adaptability. This team has done tremendous work under some of the most trying circumstances. They have helped care for many of the important details along the way. We owe them a tremendous level of thanks. We also express gratitude to our host church, St. Matthews United Methodist Church and its team under the leadership of the Rev. Kurt McPherson. We are most grateful to our Bishop and the Committee on the Annual Conference for their faithfulness in this season. A special word of gratitude expressed to Pat Mack and Sharome Henry for going above and beyond the call of duty this season.

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT 2023-2024

Purpose:

The purpose of the Committee on Congregational Development shall be to work with the Bishop and Cabinet (Appointive and Extended) to provide long and short term planning and provide the framework for all the efforts of the Annual Conference related to new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization. We exist to continue finding ways to create new opportunities, new places, and new spaces for new people. We work with existing congregations to develop processes to revitalize and develop transformative and impactful ministries and building projects in order to develop more maturing world-transforming disciples of Jesus Christ. We work with the District Boards of Congregational Development, the Cabinet, and Connectional Ministries to identify, resource, assist, support, fund, discover where to deploy planters and develop new church plants, missions, and ministry initiatives to reach the people of existing, new communities, and changing areas across the state of South Carolina. We strive to be a vital resource for local pastors and laity of local congregations as we seek more excellent ways to share the loving gospel of Jesus Christ and Christ Church in extending the Kingdom of God to all of creation.

Key moments from the previous year:

We, as a committee, continue to offer opportunities for MissionInsite orientation and training for the Annual Conference so local churches, pastors and laity may better see, invite, connect, engage, know, disciple, and serve the people of their communities better.

We were able to have our Annual Conference demographically analyzed by ACS Technology this past conference year. The demographic information helped us to better understand and share the love of God through the Gospel of Jesus Christ with people where we see current areas of population and economic growth, areas of decline, and areas where deep pockets of poverty exist in our state.

We were able to support four of the five existing congregations who applied for grants through Existing Church Grant funds totaling $147,050 with grant support that span the spectrum of vital ministry and missional situations to improve and provide needed substance for people in our various communities across this conference.

The generosity and investment of the local congregations into the ministries and the people called United Methodist in South Carolina, through the Ministry of Congregational Development, has allowed us to support local congregations in a variety of ways. Thank You!!!

We are also grateful for your generosity and investment of $303,149 through our new church and acquisition funds. This allows and gives us opportunities to start new ministry in new places for new people in various communities in support of New Churches, New Faith Expressions, Renewal Vitality Situations, and Missional Situations in 2023-2024 around the state.

Again, these accomplishments are possible because of you and your church's generosity and commitment to our God given mission of making principled and life transforming disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

While we celebrate all you have given, and allowed us to partner with our sisters and brothers across the connection here in South Carolina through your generosity and investments, we also grieve some of our siblings in our United Methodist Family in South Carolina and across the Connection who decided to disaffiliate or separate from our family. "Lord, In Your Mercy! Hear Our Prayers!"

Yet, while we grieve the disaffiliations and separations of this past conference year, we celebrate God's gathering of United Methodist and others in the Greenville District affected by separations, who by God's Grace developed a New Faith Community known as "Open Hearts UMC". Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow!!! Hallelujah and Amen!!!

As a Committee, we continue working to learn best practices from each other and our hope is to continue to expand the pool of resources, local church support, and grant funding opportunities in each of our Districts and the Annual Conference.

We continue to devote a large portion of our meeting times to learning what is and is not working in our respective districts, in our local churches, and across our Annual Conference so we can be the best stewards of what we have received, and continue to receive, from our local congregations of the Annual Conference.

Objectives for the coming year:

Our goal is to continue and improve upon our ideals of being a resource for local churches interested in new ministry opportunities, and to be a catalyst for the change and transformation needed to expand and extend the Kingdom of God through the Gospel of Jesus Christ in South Carolina. We will continue supporting our churches through every means of grace God provides for us to support the local congregations.

One of the ways we intend to do this is through our ongoing processes of getting more MissionInSite training for our Conference leaders, District Boards, and local church leaders, both lay and clergy. It is also our hope to get all of our existing congregations, new faith communities and expressions to plot their active membership and participants so they, and we, may see, invite, connect, engage, know, disciple, and serve the people of our communities by loving them better on behalf of Christ Jesus.

We will continue supporting the current plants and partnerships across the connection while prayerfully discerning our next faithful steps or projects as we prayerfully follow God's leading through Jesus Christ as the Holy Spirit empowers us, sometimes pulling and pushing us into the known and unknown world.

One of our major goals this year is intentional reflection on "OUR WHY" and how we plan to fulfill God's Mission and Ministries through our Conference four priorities, our values, our vision, and our purpose.

We strive to see how they (our four priorities, our values, our vision, our purpose) align with God's promises given to us through the gospel of Jesus Christ our Lord, God's Holy Word and Will throughout the Old and New Testaments.

We hope to continue our learning best practices from within this Conference, and conversations with other Conferences, so we can continue making what is good better, and what is better the best it can be for the sake of Christ Jesus and Christ Church in the Wesleyan Traditions.

As in previous years, and as we have opportunity to set aside some funds, we seek to fund opportunities for future leadership development, community engagement, developing pathways for connecting and growing principled disciples of Christ, measuring and evaluating current realities and missional possibilities.

We look forward with hope to partnering and sponsoring multiple smaller conference-like workshops on things like staff/team development, how to lead a visioning process, multi-site challenges, and multi-ethnic/culture transitions into Acts 2 faith communities. We are excited about missional possibilities and opportunities before us even in such a time as this.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

There are no specific actions or votes needed for our report, only submitting it to the record and for your prayers for our assignment going forward.

Know this, if there was one take away for you as a delegate it would be this, you can let us know what help you may need and ask how can we help you? We want to be a resource for you, your pastor, your staff, your leadership and Christ local church in your communities. That support could look like a variety of things: funding, training, coaching, or something we have not thought of yet. Whatever it is you are wrestling with, if you think we might be able to help, then call us! We are here for you!

- Determine, communicate episcopal needs
- Advise about concerns that affect relationships and people of the conference

Key moments from the previous year:

The COE agrees that Bishop Holston has continued to lead this conference by example and provided insight, encouragement and motivation for our congregations to grow spiritually. He has continued to lead the conference in prayer each morning and has remained faithful to the leadership of the clergy and laity by participating in laity retreats and in-person visits to each district as well.

Through positive, consistent alignment, Bishop Holston has kept SC's focus on ministry more than controversy. We support his encouragement to churches to remain focused on mission and ministry.

The Bishop's involvement includes:

- Council of Bishops, Officer, secretary
- SEJ College of Bishops
- Columbia College Board of Trustees
- Duke Divinity Board of Visitors
- Emory University Board of Trustees
- Gammon Theological Seminary Board of Trustees, chair
- Africa University Development Board
- Fellowship of SC Bishops

We are to advise the Bishop concerning conditions in the conference as they affect the relationships and the people of the conference.

We will continue to present to the SEJ COE about Bishop Holston's success over the last 11+ years in support of his continued assignment in the South Carolina Conference. We will facilitate appropriate receptions at the change of quadrennia.

As is stated in the theme of the 2024 Annual Conference, we will continue seeking a more excellent way on the leading edge of ministry.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

This committee, which includes the two SC members of the SEJ COE and the conference lay leader, meets two to four times per year to provide support for the resident bishop's work in our conference and to interpret the work of the bishop and the conference staff to our conference church members. For 2024, the COE will continue to implement succinct, directed conversations on the work being done, with a summary report being sent to the SEJ COE.

The COE offers its unanimous support of Bishop Holston's ministry in SC and his continued assignment to this conference.

THE OFFICE OF CLERGY SERVICES

The Office of Clergy Services (OCS) serves as the bridge between the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM). The Coordinator of OCS serves on the Bishop's Extended Cabinet, and plays a crucial role in facilitating communication between the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the BOM. The OCS provides assistance and resources to the BOM and its District Committees on Ministry (dCOM) who are supervising the credentialing of individuals called to ministry in various settings. The OCS also aids candidates and ministers for ministry at every stage, from initial exploration through retirement by:

- Coordinating the efforts of the Bishop, Cabinet and BOM in matters pertaining to clergy credentialing, leadership development and records management.
- Serving as a resource to assist clergy in developing their leadership abilities throughout the course of their ministry.
- Maintaining the personnel files and records for all the clergy of the conference.
- Managing and monitoring the processing of criminal background checks carried out every three years on all active candidates, clergy, certified lay ministers, and lay supplies (421 conducted during last conference year).
- Receiving Annual Reports from and supporting all Extension Ministers, Deacons, Honorably Located Clergy and Clergy on Personal Leave.
- Serving (Coordinator) on the Conference Ministry Advisory Team, Joint Approval for Service Committee, The Board of Ordained Ministry and the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry.
- Supporting the efforts of the Order of Deacons, Order of Elders, and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members, including two Continuing Education Clergy Gatherings that focused on clergy leadership and spiritual development.
- Working with BOM Bishop's School of Ministry design team to host an evangelism continuing education event in February.
- Planning, managing and implementing the Licensing School for Pastoral Ministry.
- Assisting candidates and clergy both entering and exiting ministry in the United Methodist Church in South Carolina.

Our priority continues to be helping the clergy of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference develop and nurture disciples of Jesus Christ in this rapidly shifting environment. We will keep working to offer useful and innovative support, materials, events and trainings to equip the clergy of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference.

Mr. Sha'Rome Henry, executive assistant to the office of clergy services, keeps providing unparalleled assistance. His unending readiness to assist candidates in their journey through the process demonstrates his compassion for each of our congregations and candidates. Without him, this office's work would not be possible. I am grateful for the twelve district administrative assistants' efforts. They carefully monitor a vast quantity of data that is important to so many different people. I appreciate all the Board of Ordained Ministry. Members of the BOM freely give a considerable amount of time and effort during what has become a challenging period in the history of Methodism. It is a gift to work with our Bishop and Superintendents on many matters related to our clergy and to support them as they continue the important and demanding work necessary to identify, nurture, instruct, and supervise the clergy of our Conference. To better serve the evolving leadership requirements of the conference and local churches, this office is still developing. I am grateful for the chance to serve Christ and the church in this way.

Respectfully submitted,

A. Melton Arant, Jr., Coordinator of Clergy Services

Rationale (2) for the changes to Standing Rule 70: Changing the due date for Resolutions to be submitted allows the Conference Secretary and Parliamentarian time to review submissions to insure they were submitted in the proper manner and form. Any resolution not referred to a board, council, commission or committee of the Annual Conference shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, and shall be reported by this Committee to the Annual Conference with a recommendation of approval or non-approval with rationale. The vote shall be on the petition itself, and not on the recommendation of the committee.

- b. Resolutions delivered to the Conference Secretary no later than ~~March 15~~ March 1 of each Conference year shall be published in the Pre-Conference Journal. The Conference Secretary, in consultation with Conference parliamentarian shall determine if a resolution submitted to the Conference Secretary by the deadline is in the proper format. Resolutions not submitted in the proper format are referred back to the submitter by March 15 to be corrected and resubmitted by March 22. Resolutions received after the March 15 deadline shall be referred to the appropriate committee or similar body of the Annual Conference. They will be considered at the next year's Annual Conference and included in that year's Pre-Conference Journal.
- c. The committee shall act on the resolution as offered and shall not offer its own amendments.
- d. The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals may be an 'Order of the Day' the second full business day of Annual Conference.
- e. The Committee on Resolutions and Appeals shall provide time for persons or organizations offering resolutions referred to the Committee to come before the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals to discuss their resolutions.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

To our Conference, Cabinet Members and Bishop Holston,

We, The Trustees of The South Carolina Annual Conference, offer our gratitude to you for the opportunity to serve. We send deep peace and extend to all the love of our Savior, and offer this report as a review of our Conference activities.

While The United Methodist Church is in unchartered waters, we as a Conference Board have been asked to do things that have seldom or never been done. We have done all within the jurisdiction of an ethic of love and extending fair consideration to all. To the utmost, we have attempted to maintain the sacred trust of the Conference and the United Methodist Church writ large.

Through The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016, ed.) the Trustees are to hold in trust, along with the stewardship, administration, and investments, of assets pursuant to the properties of those churches that have elected to disaffiliate from The South Carolina Conference. In 2023, 113 churches chose to disaffiliate from the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. It was a part of the process to address from each church its financial obligations to both the conference and those who chose to remain in the conference. In 2024, there are more churches that will disaffiliate in accordance with the process.

With humility the board has met to address each church and the process, and we note that with much heartache at times, we made decisions that would never arrive at the full consensus of all involved, however much that was our aim. Nonetheless, it was our constant striving to make amenable that which was entirely emotional and fraught with difficulty throughout.

We have benefitted from the excellent leadership and insight of our Conference Treasurer, Chancellor, and Bishop. At times we have leaned upon the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, Clergy Services, and many District Superintendents. Indeed, we have sought guidance outside our Board to arrive at the best possible outcomes in unprecedented times.

We trust that God is still working in God’s Church to bring about God’s vision of The Kingdom of God. We maintain a common trust through all to do no harm, to do all the good we can, and to keep to the ordinances of God. In all things, we pray for the grace of all.

We pray for this Conference and all its people; we ask also for your intercession. The prayers of Holy People are known to show forth unimaginable power and unfathomable results. We pray that through it all, God will be glorified, and God and God’s people will show forth the love of God.

“Above all, love one another deeply, for love is a covering...” (1 Peter 4:8)

In the Love of Christ,

Shannon Bullion
 Chair, South Carolina Conference Trustees

THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Purpose:

To provide office space for the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, and to operate, supervise and maintain such facilities, renting the space therein to offices, agencies and affiliates of the Conference.

Key moments from the previous year:

The Trustees have completed several projects during 2023. The parking lot was re-sealed and the retention pond cleaned. With the help of energy saving incentives available through Dominion Energy, programmable thermostats were installed throughout the building. Early in 2024, energy incentives were used to upgrade a portion of the first floor's lighting with LED bulbs.

Objectives for the coming year:

The Trustees are seeking more opportunities to use energy incentives to reduce the expense of cost saving improvements. We are currently researching window tinting incentives that will help reduce utility costs. We have plans to power wash the building's exterior.

We continue to monitor the efficacy of major building components such as the heating and air conditioning. We recognize the building is approaching an age where renovation and/or refurbishment will be needed. The Trustees are considering other locations that may be less expensive to maintain.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

The Trustees of the United Methodist Center appreciate the continued support of the churches through the apportionment system. The Trustees strive to be superb stewards of the funds for ensuring the facilities are safe, secure, and properly maintained. The building stands ready to support the various ministries of the Annual Conference.

THE MINISTRY ADVISORY TEAM

The Ministry Advisory Team strives to create a more excellent way in ministry by advising the bishop and district superintendents, as well as the programmatic, administrative and personnel teams of the South Carolina Annual Conference. This team is composed of representatives from all aspects of ministry across the Annual Conference – Clergy Services and Ordained Ministry, Congregational Development, Connectional Ministries, the Districts, Finance and Administration, Benefits and Lay Leadership.

Before navigating the complex and evolving landscape of decisions facing the Annual Conference, our first step is always to listen for God's voice, leaning not on our own understanding – and acknowledging the importance of finding a way forward together.

We are prayerful that this report will serve as a compass, guiding the Annual Conference through a collaborative, transformative process to fully engage our local churches in our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our disciple-making mission has not changed and will not change. Call this process a new trajectory, one that sets us on the path toward a future with hope.

We acknowledge that some have felt called to be in a different place, and they have now chosen a pathway outside of our denomination. For those who remain with The United Methodist Church, it is time to imagine what it is that we are called to do into the future.

We know the instinctive response to the departure of those South Carolina congregations can be to focus primarily on what is lost – connection, collaboration, friendship, and yes, the money. In times of uncertainty, it can be easier to look backward, to where we once were, instead of looking forward, to where God is leading us.

From the wisdom of Solomon, a millennium before the coming of Jesus Christ, to Paul's teachings in the decades that followed the resurrection of our Savior, we have been called to trust in the Lord with all our hearts, and to keep our eyes on where God is beckoning us, never turning back.

As we face our own challenges – and the anxieties and fears that come with them – we pray that those who feel called to continue as a part of The United Methodist Church will embrace these five words as we serve together:

Don't think less, think different.

Now, what does that mean?

It means focusing on what God provides, rather than what we don't have.

It means looking toward a future with hope, not looking back in despair.

It means focusing on the mission and ministry work that is right here in front of us today, rather than expending time and energy worrying about what tomorrow might have been.

Don't think less, think different.

Notice what sets apart the following questions:

"We have fewer dollars to spend, what are we going to cut?" vs. "We have fewer dollars to spend, how are we going to make sure we're still doing the work necessary to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?"

"Where are we going to find more money to keep the church doors open?" vs. "What is happening in our community, in our mission field, that God is calling us to address?"
"How did we get in this situation, and whose fault is it?" vs. "What are our next faithful steps that will ensure that our ministry is effective moving forward?"

Don't think less, think different.

We are praying our way and working our way toward a future in which our local churches are fully engaged in our collective disciple-making mission. With the departure of numerous South Carolina congregations from The United Methodist Church, we know that a reset is necessary.

The members of the Ministry Advisory Team have leveraged ongoing conversations and taken to heart sentiments expressed from the floor of the 2023 Annual Conference. As a result, the ministry areas represented by this team already have initiated measured and prudent changes, including:

- The Cabinet has moved to a new model for district leadership, with 10 superintendents overseeing and serving as chief missional strategists for our 12 existing districts.
- In collaboration with the Conference Committee on Standing Rules, the Conference Committee on Nominations, the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and Conference Connectional Ministries are working to reduce the size of their boards and agencies and to refine many of their processes.

- The Board of Ordained Ministry has implemented changes in the way it interviews candidates for ministry in an effort to become more efficient and to better address the changing leadership needs of local churches.

In addition, the Ministry Advisory Team distributed a survey to more than 2,300 lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference in March 2024. We asked you to help us think through this reset, how your local church can be a part of it, and how you personally can be a part of it.

Clearly, you do want to be a part of this reset, and you know that your local church is the most significant arena through which disciples are made. Here is a small sampling of what we heard from you about the greatest opportunity for ministry for your church in your community:

- “Shining a light of love and welcome to all human beings in the present context of The UMC, with a sustained focus on discipleship and mission.”
- “Developing a ministry with the forgotten – those with cognitive impairment.”
- “Helping people understand that they’re not alone.”
- “Truly rethink a church that reaches out to, serves, welcomes, and encourages all.”
- “Realizing that the people are there if we would only truly see them, care enough to build relationships, and follow through to make disciples for Jesus!”
- “Reimagine evangelism.”

Don’t think less, think different.

How are we going to address these opportunities? Here are some suggestions you made:

- “Helping the congregation to know that they, too, are in ministry.”
- “Continuing to remind, encourage and empower our congregations.”
- “Meeting people where they are, both spiritually and geographically.”
- “We need to be constantly reminded to look outward rather than inward as a church.”
- “Continuing to lead in a forward direction without giving in to paralyzing and polarizing fear.”
- “Treating all who come with dignity, respect, kindness, a smile and a blessing.”

Don’t think less, think different.

So, where do we go from here? To “think different” requires that we reset, realign and respond.

A call for a collective reset emphasizes looking at areas of influence and aligning them with our disciple-making mission and Our 4 Priorities – on the leading EDGE of ministry – Engaging Our Communities, Developing Leaders, Growing and Connecting With Disciples, and Evaluating and Measuring Current Realities and Missional Opportunities.

Transparency, honesty and a willingness to struggle are integral in this process. Rather than assigning blame, the focus is on learning from small- and medium-membership churches, and celebrating fruitful ministry.

One example from our survey of Annual Conference members: There is an opportunity for evangelism, and for the Annual Conference to focus on helping local churches increase their capacity for evangelism in their communities. We can look for ways to use the often-uncomfortable disaffiliation/separation spotlight that is on The United Methodist Church and transform that negative energy into something positive.

As we all seek to respond together, here are some important aspects the Ministry Advisory Team is considering as it continues its work:

- The conference is responsible for a diverse array of individuals – including people in our local church pews and in our communities, potential disciples, clergy, clergy families, and conference leadership and staff. Prioritizing the needs of these key stakeholders is foundational to our work.
- Addressing anxiety related to the unknown, potential changes in The United Methodist Church, and the desire for answers becomes a crucial aspect of the conversation.
- Understanding what we can control and what we can't control in the current landscape is essential. Assumptions about shared understanding of United Methodist principles must be clarified, and the driving forces behind discussions must be explored.
- For all conference and local church leaders, identifying and addressing the “elephants in the room” is crucial. These include our personal baggage and sacred cows that hinder progress. Open discussions around budgets, positions and perceptions are imperative.
- Recognizing the absence of certain voices at the table, such as Hispanic-LatinX, Native Americans, and specific lay leaders, is paramount. Tackling these gaps involves evaluating and reshaping historical structures and perceptions.
- Stewardship and education are keys to effective communication. Recognizing and enhancing values, strengths and assets is essential. In times of financial uncertainty, strategic prioritization and a focus on vitality measurement become critical.
- Aligning mission and ministry for a collaborative budget involves effective communication, funding for diverse church types, and leaning into Our 4 Priorities.
- Outcomes must be defined by what makes local churches successful in making and growing disciples, engaging their communities, developing lay and clergy leaders, and pursuing identified missional opportunities. Fostering stewardship is critical, but it is merely a part of the disciple's growth.

And, throughout it all, we rejoice, knowing that we will think, serve, lead, share and communicate in such ways that the mission is before us, and we have hope for the future.

Don't think less, think different.

2024 REPORT OF THE CABINET Singing A New Song

Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the ends of the earth,
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, you islands, and all who live in them. Isaiah 42:10 (NIV)

We greet you in the name of Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Isaiah the prophet, during a time of challenge and change, shared these words of hope. Sing to the Lord a new song. He reminds us of the importance of worship and praise. Many times we face the challenges of change. We are sometimes forced to consider something new and different. This year has led us to a place similar to the Israelites, facing the challenge of change.

The long awaited General Conference of the United Methodist Church was held April 23-May 3, 2024. We remain the body of Christ. In the words of 1John 3:2 “Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

We thank Bishop L Jonathan Holston and Mrs. Felecia Holston, our episcopal family for effectively leading us through uncharted waters.

We are grateful and excited to report to you that in spite of the challenges, in spite of the changes, Bishop Holston and the extended cabinet continue to pray, worship, and trust in God. Bishop Holston leads our Conference with integrity. We are doing the faithful and fruitful work of leading by example.

This year, the extended cabinet and the Ministry Advisory Team worked collaboratively. The MAT team joined the Extended Cabinet at our annual cabinet retreat to plan for the year. Bishop Holston visited our districts this past year and reminded us to care for our souls as leaders and followers of Jesus Christ. The extended cabinet, which includes our District Superintendents, Conference Lay Leader, Director of Connectional Ministries, Conference Treasurer, Director of Congregational Development, and Coordinator of the Office of Clergy Services, is blessed to be supported by the staff of Administrative Assistants and Congregational Specialists.

We have continued the work of the lay and clergy led salary equity task force. This team of leaders have taken another step toward helping us live into the Cabinet Covenant for Salary Equity. We have recently held tri- district trainings to share their findings and offer some practical ways in which we plan to address the salary equity disparities.

Our district superintendents are adapting to our current reality by launching a collaborative coverage model of our twelve districts. We will share responsibilities to effectively cover and lead as missional strategists. This year, we will provide coverage for twelve districts with ten district superintendents.

We have kept the four priorities identified by our Annual Conference as primary in our work. We provided leadership training and development for lay and clergy. We support the ministry of our laity as we offer support for our lay servant ministries and conference, district and local church lay leaders.

Under Bishop Holston's leadership, we are working with one another as the extended cabinet and are sowing seeds of hope. The Appointive Cabinet has identified an opportunity to empower the local church to accomplish their mission and ministry with resources such as the new "Hope Fund."

Four of our Superintendents will be leaving the cabinet at the end of this conference year, Rev. Jim Dennis, Rev. Joey McDonald, Rev. Dr. Sandra Stevens Poirel and Rev. Dr. Stephen Love. We welcome two new district superintendents, Rev. Chris Lollis and Rev. Jeffrey Salley.

The gifts of reasoning together has served our Annual Conference well. We are encouraged that working together in collaboration with lay and clergy, we are making a positive impact as we meet the needs of today and set the course for the future.

We continue to listen to God's voice as we live into our new reality as the United Methodist Church and specifically the South Carolina Annual Conference. We recognize our limitations but most important, we embrace the power of God at work in all of our lives. "When Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is."

We invite you to join us as we pray together, walk together, serve together and join together with Isaiah and sing the new song as we offer our highest praise to God.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Dr. Stephen L. Love

THE REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE CHANCELLOR

It is my privilege to serve the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church as the Conference Chancellor. In that role I am the legal advisor to the Bishop and the Annual Conference. By Conference standing rule 98, requests for my services are made through the Episcopal office.

It is a privilege to continue work with the dedicated clergy, staff and laypersons of the Conference.

My work this year has included serving as a resource for lawyers who defending local Churches in litigation, working with the Conference Board of Trustees by preparing leases, deeds sales contracts and other legal documents, and assisting in drafting resolutions and resources for the Conference and local churches. I have assisted the Conference Board of Trustees in the process that has allowed local churches to separate from the United Methodist Church. I have continued to monitor the filings in the Boy Scout Bankruptcy. There are still some remaining issues pending before the US Supreme Court. This issue will determine the extent of the releases given to sponsors of Boy Scout troops as a result of the Bankruptcy. Once again, I urge all churches to carefully review your insurance coverages, to comply with the recommended coverages and to have written documents setting forth the parameters of all relationship with groups that the local church sponsors or allows to meet on church property.

Once again thank you for the opportunity to serve this Conference and the United Methodist Church.

Kay Gaffney Crowe

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE MEN N MINISTRY

Charters

We continue to struggle in South Carolina to get increases in Chartered Churches. We lost 113 Churches in June 2023 due to disaffiliation. We now have 57 Active Chartered churches for 2024. We have 122 charters that have lapsed. We will continue to reach out to those churches in the future.

EMS

We had a total of 13 active EMS members with 10 expired in 2023 and 35 lapsed. Most of our EMS comes from our Conference Leadership Team.

Prayer Ministry

We continue to promote the Upper Room Prayer Wall. We have had an increase in SC men connecting to Live Bold. We continue to provide a Prayer Room at our annual Men N Ministry Conference each year. As a part of that, we provide a prayer line number for individuals to call or text prayer needs or concerns. These were led by our Chaplain and Prayer Advocate.

Spiritual Retreat

The S.C. Methodist Men's Annual Conference was held at Journey Church, Columbia, SC on February 24, 2024.

The weekend began with the SC Men N Ministry Golf tournament Friday morning. The largest turnout to date, we had 43 Golfers hit the links at The Spur at Northwoods in Columbia. It was a good day to play and some guys even had a good day of golf. The winning team this year was the team of Ronald Friday, Howard Lofton, James Anderson, and Al Morton. They had a winning score of 61.

Friday evening Journey hosted a small group gathering at the Church.

The event "Cigars & Scriptures was hosted by Ty Williams, with the discussion being led by Journey's Pastor Rev. George Ashford. The topic of the night was how to "act like a man".

The event started with a low-country shrimp and grits dinner. Wow and thanks was said over and over. It was a cool evening outside with everyone sitting under a large tent and around the fire pits, which made for a very uplifting and blessed time together. We were blessed even more because SC Bishop Jonathan Holston was able to join us. Over 100 men were able to gather with us.

Saturday was a great day. Ty Williams, Journey Church, and Rev. Trevor Miller, Mt. Horeb Church, Lexington, sharing the emcee job made it both interesting and enjoyable. Thanks guys. Our speakers: Rev. Rosario Picardo, Mosaic Church, Bevercreek, Ohio, Rev. Percival Reeves, Sanctuary Church, Charlotte, NC, and Rev. Steve Brown, Marion District Superintendent. Each did a masterful job explaining how you can act like a man in your daily walk at home, on the job or just living day to day. Many thanks for a very informative and spirit filled day. There was praise from everyone we heard from after the event. Again, thank you to everyone who was involved in making it a Blessed day.

Teaching Churches

In 2023 we had 4 Districts hold Teaching Church events. The SC Conference has a $400 fund available to each district to help with the cost of the event. We are hoping to expand on the number of Districts hosting a Teaching Church event in 2024.

Leadership

Pastor Trevor Miller continues to send out a weekly “Living Word Devotional” to our Email Constant Contact list. This is sent every Monday with daily devotionals for that week with follow up Scripture for each day. He will continue thru 2024.

YoungER Men

We continue to focus on YoungER Men's Ministry. Several of our Districts have provided contact information for men to work to help build YoungER Leadership. Some of our District Leadership Teams have younger men on them. Our “Act Like a Man” Event in February should help us reach some younger men.

Scouting

Roland Finch, now in his fourth year leading Scouting in South Carolina, has assembled an awesome team. With Scouting now moving past the problems of the last several years, the outlook is once again bright for the future.

Goals for 2024

The Conference Leadership Team has set as our main goal to help the Districts without Teams, to work with the DS and District Lay Leaders in locating men to build those teams. As a personal goal, I have committed to visit each of the 12 Districts this year. God works in mysterious ways as the pandemic showed us. Who knew we could see and talk to each other so far apart. Zoom has become a different and necessary tool we all use. Still nothing beats an in person gathering. Our February Annual Conference has been and continues to be the key to our success in South Carolina. We, in the Leadership roles in the Men N Ministry in South Carolina or any State, must set the example for those who will follow us. Each of us has a circle of influence, sometimes we know who is watching our every move but you may well be the only Christian some people ever know. Set a good example.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kenny Bingham President
Men N Ministry SC Conference

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

Purpose:

We shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship, and expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Key moments from the previous year:

The conference year has been very busy and rewarding, we show up, take action and get it done. We stressed that our membership is open to any woman who wants to inspire, influence, and impact her community to uplift the marginalized.

The Legislative Days for 2023 were virtual presenting four workshops; Healthcare, Predatory Lending, Mass Incarceration, and Just Energy. We learned ways to advocate for the less fortunate.

We continue to meet our $10,000 challenge to the Legacy Endowment Fund and have contributed $112, 947.57 over the last 9 years.

We awarded 5 Presidential Scholarships to assist your ladies with their higher education.

The 2023 Mission Trip was a journey to remember for all the ladies. Visiting Brooks-Howell, Bethlehem Centers, and Scarritt Bennett Center gave us a full view of what our mission dollars are doing for so many.

Our Spiritual Growth Event via Zoom was held April 22, 2023, with over 200 attendees. New Life UMC in the Walterboro District was the host, and the speaker was Rev. Scarlett Hester, Pastor of Bluffton UMC. The theme was "Finding Hope" using Jeremiah 29:11 for the scripture.

The Come Together Be Together Event via Zoom was hosted by the Columbia District on May 20, 2023, with 183 persons registered. The theme was "Get Hope Be Hope" with four workshops to chose from. The keynote speaker was Rev. Mary Johnson.

Mission u was held on July 20-22, 2023, at Spartanburg Methodist College with 130 registered and 16 youth attending. The adults and youth enjoyed their classes.

Objectives for the coming year:

We will stand united and continue our legacy and mission with women, children and youth now and in the future. We are committed to helping all people thrive by providing opportunities for community advancement.

Our Social Action emphasis this year is Climate Justice, Predatory Lending, and Breaking the School to Prison Pipeline. Our workshops will focus on what is happening and what we can do to make a difference in these areas.

We are engaged in a Book Study entitled "So You Want to Talk About Race" led by Barbara Brooks and Jane Crawford via zoom.

The Charter for Racial Justice Committee is stressing the importance of Social Justice for all. We applied for funds offered by National to host our Charter for Racial + Environmental Justice Event on June 22, 2024. We are engaging the youth and teaming up with organizations who can provide information and resources to help save our planet and our vulnerable communities.

We are preparing for our Mission Trip and SEJ Quadrennial Conference in Chattanooga, Tennessee, April 18-21, 2024. We believe TOGETHER we can do more. TOGETHER we can be more. TOGETHER the power of love in action can change the world.

With separation, redistricting and regionalization, our pledges and donations are a main focus for us. We are faithful to our goals for Social Action, Racial Justice, Educational and Spiritual Opportunities, and Leadership Training. As a Sisterhood, we are up to the challenge of service and the work required.

We held our 51st South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith Annual Meeting October 20-21, 2023, at St Johns UMC in Aiken, South Carolina. We had over 200 persons attending, and enjoyed an uplifting message from Rev. Shirley Peterson Gordon, Executive Director and Campus Minister for the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation, serving South Carolina State University and Claflin University. Our theme was Unity in Christ - Ephesians 4:2-3. We paid tribute and dedicated the program book in memory of past UMW Conference President Imogene Steele, who passed away on October 17, 2023.

Our 4 mission projects are in need of your support, prayers and contributions. Due to inflations and community needs, the budgets are stretched at this time.

Rev. Kathy James, Epworth Director of Church Relations, was our guest speaker for Officers Training. We watch a number of videos about the many programs and events happening to help children and families.

Narrative:

United Women in Faith announced on June 1, 2023, that Sally Vonner was elected to the position of General secretary and Chief Executive Officer. Ms. Vonner joined the organization's staff in 2010 as Assistant General Secretary of Membership and Leadership Development. She became the Transformation Officer in 2018 with the reorganization. She stated her primary focus is to continue and expand the mission and reach of United Women in Faith and is committed to lead with faith and trust in God. She was installed on July 29, 2023. We are moving forward under her leadership.

We have a lot to be proud of and our mission and purpose remain the same as we embrace a sisterhood of United Women in Faith who are happy to be members of the organization of faith, hope and love in action. Rev. James Friday did a Leadership Training Event that told us "Leadership Worth Looking For Believing In Listening to and Following".

SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST CAMPS & RETREAT MINISTRIES

Purpose:

SCCARM joins the church to “make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” by seeking, welcoming, and gathering persons into the community of the body of Christ through outdoor camping experiences to more than 5,000 guests annually at Asbury Hills, Camp Providence, and now the new Sea Islands Camp & Retreat Center.

Key moments from the previous year:

Kids, Parents, and Staff have never been more pleased to see camp back into full swing! The exhale along a walk in the woods is exactly what was needed after continued recovery from the pandemic. Thank you God for your love and grace! And thank you to all who continued to believe in the impact of a positive camp experience and to all who continue to support Camps and Retreat Ministries through your prayers, volunteerism, and financial gifts. Mental health challenges amongst our youth was the most common issue we and most camps faced in 2023. As I have often said, camp used to be a nicety, but now has become a necessity for kids to be connected face to face in the out-of-doors, under the canopy of God’s incredible creation. Camp is a unique opportunity to support and steward adolescents as they practice navigating a lived experience with others. In this model of care, we understand it is a privilege to support one another through troubled waters. We see this idea represented in Galatians 6:2, where Paul says, “Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.” We must be fully present to walk with someone through an emotional experience and practice compassion for both the individual and ourselves. Camps and Retreat Ministries is here for you! Take advantage of these marvelous places set apart to experience God! Come camp with us!

Objectives for the coming year:

In the last 10 years the ministry has tripled in growth. We have also acquired and opened a small 74 bed overnight camp (Sea Islands Camp & Retreat Center) on John’s Island.

Summer camp at Asbury Hills continues to be strong, in April 2022, Asbury Hills summer camp was voted once again by Newsweek to be one of the top camps in the US, in Summer 2023 was a season of transition and growth for our staff and campers. Many members of our community tried new things or stepped into new roles. We ran a Pop-up Camp in partnership with the Florence District for the first time and had the opportunity to introduce camp fun to over 80 people right in their hometown. Campers at Asbury and in Florence learned how to set an example through how they live their life as outlined in 1 Timothy 4:12. 2023 brought South Carolina Camps and Retreat Ministries an abundance of life changing experiences. From the mountains to the lake, to the sea, lives were changed as people found incredible opportunities to experience and grow in their relationship with God. 98% of campers gave camp a positive rating. 95% of campers tried something new. 96% of campers stated that they learned something new about their faith. While 98% of campers stated that they felt closer to God as a result of their experience at camp.

Action(s) required from the 2024 Annual Conference:

If you take away nothing from this report, know this:

South Carolina United Methodist Camps & Retreat Ministries would like to thank everyone for their continued support of this most important program in this day and time.

Narrative:

2023 was also a year of transition for Asbury Hills as new full-time staff joined the team. Mark Brantley joined us as Facilities Director in February. Paul Fish joined us as Food Service Director in July. Katie George joined us as Reservation Specialist in August. After 7 tremendous years of service to Asbury Hills, we said farewell to Sarah Moseley, former Summer Camp Director, as she ventures into her next chapter. Asbury Hills welcomed Ann Marie White in August as our new Summer Camp Director. The full-time staff and board of directors are excited about the energy this staff brings to serve all people for Christian birth, growth, and renewal. In 2023, Sea Islands Camp and Retreat Center and Camp Providence welcomed more groups than ever before. It has been amazing to have these properties full of life. Watching the dolphins as the sun sets on Bohicket Creek and hearing excited squealing of kids tubing on lake Hartwell is just the beginnings of the transformative power of these two properties. More information on Sea Islands and Camp Providence and how they can serve the people of South Carolina can be found on our website or by request. As we look to 2024 and beyond South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries is committed to providing holy places that are set apart for all people to commune with God.

JAMES L. BELIN BOARD OF TRUST*Purpose:

The purpose of the James L. Belin Board of Trustees is to ensure that ministry will take place as directed by the intent of the James L. Belin Trust and that all property of the James L. Belin estate, both real and personal, be directed and appropriated for the benefit of missions.

Key moments from the previous year:

The James L. Belin Board of Trustees met June 30, September 7, November 10, and March 7 following last year's Annual Conference. The meetings took place in person and via Zoom. The funds in the Belin Trust experienced a bear market in 2023. The goal was to focus on the long-term and stay the course in spite of market volatility. $22,000 was given to Epworth Children's Home and $10,000 to the SC UM Foundation, among funds distributed to local churches. The 2023 audit was completed by the Brittingham Group without any concerns. In order to prevent embezzlement, the three officers of the Belin Board will be the signatories on checks distributed. All District Superintendents may encourage their churches to apply for funds from the James L. Belin Board of Trust.

Objectives for the coming year:

One of the hopes moving forward is to be able to see success stories of churches who have received funding from the James L. Belin Board of Trust. As stewards of God's money, to see how the funds are used is a hope of the Belin Board. The Board will continue to meet quarterly by person or Zoom in 2024.

SOUTH CAROLINA METHODIST CONFERENCE CREDIT UNION

Purpose:

The year 2024 marks sixty-nine years of service by the South Carolina Methodist Conference Credit Union (SCMCCU) to the Ministers and their families, the churches and their members, and the institutions of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference.

Key moments from the previous year:

The Credit Union was chartered on September 19, 1955, by ten elders of the South Carolina Conference (1785). The Reverend Hawley B. Lynn was elected to serve as the first President. Initially the Credit Union was chartered to serve ministerial members of the annual conference and others under appointment of the bishop, employees of the Boards and Agencies of the annual conference, and their family members. Today, membership encompasses not only the clergy of the South Carolina Conference and their families, but also members of the churches, and employees of the local churches, the Annual Conference, and the United Methodist Colleges, and Retirement Homes of the South Carolina Conference.

Objectives for the coming year:

In 2023 the Credit Union grew in loans, assets, and reserves. Most importantly because of increasing rates, the credit union was able to increase dividends paid to members by 230%! But more than numbers, this is an indication that we have been able to provide greater service to our members during the year. Service to our members will always be the focus of the credit union.

The credit union is currently blessed with a small, stable, and very experienced staff with a total of 70 plus years of combined experience working for credit unions and other financial institutions. This enables the credit union to provide exceptional service with a knowledgeable but personal approach. Alicia Reese serves as the Member Service Representative, Bruce Douglass serves as the Loan Officer and Andy Cox serves as the President and CEO.

On February 26, 2024, the Credit Union's Annual Meeting was once again held at Epworth Children's Home. At the meeting, the members elected Board Directors, Credit Committee members and Supervisory Committee members. The financial condition of the credit union was reported. We encourage all members to attend the Annual Meeting to learn more about your credit union.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY REPORT

Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you. – Philippians 4:9 (NRSV)

Africa University greeted 2024 with bold faith and eager confidence because of the goodness of United Methodists who are faithful, generous, and enthusiastic about investing in transforming lives and communities.

Thank you, South Carolina United Methodists, for the deep commitment and extravagant generosity that has made 100 percent investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment a tradition for your annual conference. Your unwavering engagement has helped Africa University to evolve into the cornerstone institution for The United Methodist Church's mission of disciple-making for transformational impact in Africa and beyond.

In 2023, sustained by the support of The United Methodist Church, Africa University:

- Provided more than $2M in scholarships and financial aid grants to students who would otherwise fail to access higher education.
- Enrolled 2,219 young women and men from 26 African countries.
- Launched its second new academic unit in less than a year—the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences—with a first cohort of 279 students.
- Saw its alumni swell to more than 12,000 serving in 32 African countries, with the addition of 954 graduates in June.
- Developed new products, such as lozenges made from the indigenous Zumbani plant, and IT solutions to reduce food waste and make vital research findings more accessible to those who need the information.

As United Methodists fortify themselves for a vital and vibrant witness beyond the 2020 General Conference in 2024 and its outcomes, Africa University urges the members of the South Carolina Conference to:

- Support Africa University’s effort to secure General Conference approval of Report #4.
- Maintain your investment in the Africa University Fund at 100% of the 2016 budget level as outlined in the resolution that is before the General Conference.
- Help identify at least two (2) more churches (keystone congregations) in your conference that will commit to provide second mile gifts of $6,500 each or $13,000 in total for annual scholarships for two undergraduate students. (This will help address any shortfall in giving to the fund.)

Africa University is grateful for your faithfulness. The students, faculty, staff, and alumni are inspired by your example and resolute in journeying alongside you in the work of inviting, equipping, and sending disciples of Jesus Christ into a hurting world. Well done, and thank you, United Methodists of the South Carolina Conference! Your generous support for the Africa University Fund apportionment ensures that Africa University can continue to nurture and deploy ethical and effective leaders whose daily efforts seed hope by increasing food security, overall health, good governance, abundance, and peace in their communities. Let us keep on doing this important work together and may the God of peace be with you!

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

Lake Junaluska Assembly continues to live into its mission to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind and body. As projected during the pandemic in 2020, 2023 marked the beginning of the “new normal” for organizations like Lake Junaluska. That was indeed the case at Lake Junaluska. All six large conferences returned to Lake Junaluska in 2023 for the first time since 2019.

The 2024 summer season kicks off with the Seventh Day Adventist Camp Meeting on May 19. We look forward to hosting our regular large groups this season as well as a number of groups who are new to our beloved grounds.

Financial Update, Charitable Giving and Capital Improvements

Lake Junaluska ended the 2023 year with a profit and 2024 projections are in line with finishing the year with a balanced budget.

Charitable giving remains strong and, in 2023, we exceeded our fundraising goal to the Annual Fund for the fifth straight year. The Annual Fund is a budget-relieving initiative that is a line item in Lake Junaluska's annual operating budget.

Since generous charitable giving provides opportunities for Lake Junaluska to reinvest into its facilities and grounds, great strides have been made toward improving our infrastructure that will enable the conference center to continue to meet the needs of all guests. Some of the significant improvements completed in 2023 include upgrades to Stuart Auditorium with a state-of-the-art Danley sound system, removal of the Crow's Nest, a new sound/video booth and the replacement of the main projectors and screens.

Work on the Warren Center multi-function event space (the former Methodist Museum building) will be complete by the end of May 2024 and the first events have been booked for July 2024.

Fresh Expressions of Ministry and a Bright Future

The 2024 Theologian in Residence schedule is set for June 30-August 16. Eight theologians will preach on Sunday mornings during the series and will offer personal and interactive experiences throughout the following week. A variety of musicians will participate each week and the Artists in Residence at Lake Junaluska will coordinate local artists to provide altar art for summer worship.

Summer activity programs will also return with offerings such as yoga, QiGong, bonfires, devotions and special events. The Festival of Wisdom and Grace returns on August 19-22, and the 36th Choir Music Weekend is scheduled for October 18-20.

Looking toward the future, Lake Junaluska continues to focus on the following guiding aspirations, which were adopted by the board of trustees in 2020:

- Aspiration 1: To preserve and enhance the lake and grounds so that more people will recognize the natural beauty of God's creation.
- Aspiration 2: To be a conference center that rivals hospitality industry leaders by exceeding guests' expectations through excellence in staff and facilities.
- Aspiration 3: To be the place that connects more youth to Christ through meaningful ministry, recreation, and education programs.
- Aspiration 4: To identify, uphold, and strengthen the Lake Junaluska tradition of implementing innovative, shared experiences – for both individuals and families – that celebrate faith, recreation, the arts, and education.
- Aspiration 5: To be an involved, inclusive community that provides the highest quality of life for residents and guests.

The leadership and staff invite you to visit Lake Junaluska for a conference, retreat, or vacation. The lake and surrounding mountains will provide the perfect setting for you to experience transformation and renewal. To plan your next visit, please visit lakejunaluska.com.

HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER
Hayesville, NC

Purpose:

As a mission and retreat agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, Hinton serves the SEJ annual conferences and beyond through equipping clergy and congregations (particularly small, rural churches) and offering opportunities for individuals and church groups to serve and/or come for retreats and renewal. Our Mission: Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Center serves individuals, congregations, and rural communities through retreat ministries, educational opportunities, and missional outreach.

Key moments from the previous year:

- Retreats: In addition to hosting groups from 47 churches for missional outreach, Hinton hosted 63 additional retreats, including a Rural Clergy Renewal Retreat in September 2023, which offered worship, meals, free time options, and conversational times with rural ministry and clergy health experts.
- Confirmation: Over 280 youth and adults from 23 churches, a majority from South Carolina, participated in Hinton's four Theotokos Confirmation Retreat weekends in the spring of 2023. www.hintontheotokos.org
- Safe and Healthy Home Assessment and Repair Missions: In 2023, Hinton hosted 47 churches and facilitated missional engagement in addressing housing in rural Appalachia. These mission teams helped us work on and improve the health and safety of 61 homes and completed 282 projects.
- Firewood Ministries: In 2023, Hinton leveraged volunteer labor to gather, process, and distribute 706 loads of firewood to neighbors in our community who cannot afford to heat their homes. This is a value of $139,455 and a tremendous savings for our neighbors!
- Volunteers: Much of Hinton's work is completed by volunteers. In 2023, we had 1,164 unique volunteers who recorded 20,180 hours in service to our community. This is a value of $602,575.

Objectives for the coming year:

- Rural Poverty Simulation: In order to understand more about the individuals we serve and in order to promote a "walk alongside model" of ministry, Hinton developed and offers a rural poverty simulation. This year, 460 individuals participated in the poverty simulation. Beginning in 2024 this simulation is being packaged for use in other locations and will be available online.
- Educational Tool Barn: On April 15, 2024, Hinton's new educational tool barn will be dedicated and launched as a new component of Hinton's Safe & Healthy Home Repair ministry. Funded by The Duke Endowment, it will equip our neighbors and mission volunteers with the knowledge and skills to identify and improve the safety and health of homes in Appalachia and in their own communities.
- Beautiful Feet Go BOOM, Cycle of Christian Faith Formation: Over the years, Hinton has developed programming for youth through our Summer Mission Outreach ministry, which also includes missional leadership components for high school students and college-age young people. In 2021 we added our Theotokos Connections confirmation curriculum and Theotokos Confirmation Retreats (noted above), which primarily serve middle school youth. We are currently in the process of developing this pathway, so that young disciples can connect with Hinton from the middle school years through high school and into college. We are working to create a network of engagement that strengthens faith formation for our youth, which will support their participation in their local churches and within The UMC. Because an important component of faith formation in young people is the building of relationships and mentorships with adults, particularly those in their local churches, we will launch BOOM, Boomers on Outreach Mission, in 2024 as another engagement opportunity in our “Beautiful Feet” faith formation cycle. BOOM, which has received grant funding, will be held September 8-12 for adults 60 and older and will replicate our summer mission program that’s offered for youth mission teams. The focus of BOOM is to increase adults’ understanding of their call to nurture and support our younger generations as co-disciples through this shared, connective experience.

If you take away nothing else from this report, know this:

Just as Jesus modeled a life of loving God and neighbor through serving and teaching, Hinton continues to serve in impactful ways in our 3-county area through Safe & Healthy Home Repair, firewood, Christmas Care, and other ministries, as well as focusing on generational equipping through educational ministries, such as our rural poverty simulation and educational tool barn. Also following the life of discipleship modeled by Jesus, Hinton offers ministries for retreat and renewal for all ages, knowing that as we grow in our love for God and ourselves, we are also more able to love our neighbor in transformational ways.

THE ASSOCIATION OF UNITED METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

Dear United Methodist Leader,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, from the thirteen official seminaries of The United Methodist Church (UMC). Collectively we are known as the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools (AUMTS). We are deeply dedicated to the UMC and to forming its leaders for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

We write to commend the attached report submitted to the AUMTS by the Rev. Dr. Dan Aleshire, fellow United Methodist and recently retired Executive Director of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). An organization with a membership of more than 270 seminaries in the United States and Canada, ATS is one of three accrediting bodies who hold our thirteen UMC schools of theology accountable to the highest standards in theological education, and Dr. Aleshire is one of the most respected leaders in theological education.

AUMTS commissioned this study of the thirteen UMC seminaries to address three questions:

1. What is the place of the thirteen UMC schools in the larger ecosystem of theological education in the United States, including the other 38 schools recognized by the University Senate for the education of United Methodist ministers?

2. What is the sustainability of a system of thirteen institutions with official support from the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) of The United Methodist Church?
3. What is the contribution that UMC seminaries make to the witness and ministry of The UMC?

AUMTS commissioned this report in part to assist the denomination in better understanding who we are and what we do within the higher education and denominational contexts within which our thirteen schools function. We also wanted an external perspective on the schools to clarify our strengths, our vulnerabilities, and our needs in faithfully serving the church now and in the future.

Dr. Aleshire visited all thirteen campuses, conducted extensive interviews with the chief executive officers (presidents and deans), other school administrators, trustees, faculty, staff, students, alumni, episcopal leaders, district superintendents, and staff of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM). With our permission, he consulted the substantial data submitted annually by each school to the ATS and the data regarding UMC ministerial candidates and ordinands that GBHEM collects from our schools and annual conferences.

In separate chapters, the report addresses: the history and context of UMC theological schools, the thirteen official schools as a system of UMC theological schools, the thirteen schools as individual institutions, the 38 additional seminaries the UMC University Senate has approved for those seeking ordination in the UMC, and American Protestant theological education. The study also reviewed extensive financial data for each school, including MEF contributions from the UMC. The report concludes with findings emerging from the analyses.

A few key conclusions:

1. A deep Wesleyan theology and ethos pervades the campuses of the thirteen official seminaries. As Aleshire puts it, “these schools are Wesleyan in their bones...” We educate about 60% of (primarily US) UMC students enrolled in Master of Divinity degree programs as they seek ordination in the UMC, and about 60% of all (predominately US) ordinands are educated at our schools. Our faculties overall are 46% UMC (and 60% Wesleyan), and we employ 52% of UMC faculty teaching in all US seminaries. All the other 38 University Senate approved seminaries combined have only 9% UMC faculty. Chapel worship across our schools embodies the Methodist tradition and reflects the range of UMC liturgical practices. Aleshire states, “The thirteen schools...are pervasively United Methodist...Ethos can be taught, no doubt, but perhaps more importantly, it is ‘caught’ – carried from persons to persons.”
2. As is the Wesleyan tradition, the thirteen are also self-consciously ecumenical in thought and practice, teaching students from a wide array of denominations.
3. The thirteen are forming leaders for the future, not the past. Our student bodies overall are far younger and much more racially diverse than the UMC. Half of our UMC students are women. We are deeply committed to racial justice and to the equality of women. Historically we pioneered work to achieve racial equality and women’s full inclusion and continue to do so today. We systematically and enthusiastically engage and support new models of ministry every day.
4. The thirteen schools are very diverse in many ways, including that they reflect the full theological diversity of the UMC. Each school embodies its own range of styles and specialties, yet all thirteen are dedicated to making disciples of Jesus - Christ for the transformation of the world. Through their PhD programs, many of the thirteen educate future faculty who will populate not only UMC and other seminaries, but also UMC-related colleges and universities all over the world.

5. Overall, the thirteen seminaries provide far more resources to the UMC than we receive from it through annual MEF allocations. This is most strikingly evident in scholarships we provide for students; leadership our faculties provide in local churches, annual conferences, and national and international denominational arenas and agencies; and our subsidies for the denomination's Course of Study. In discussing the MEF, Aleshire points out that "the thirteen United Methodist seminaries bring in large amounts of financial resources from beyond the denomination to pay for the preparation of United Methodist clergy and lay leaders in the United States. And [they] provide the second largest source of funds for the preparation of United Methodist clergy from outside the US [i.e., second only to the Central Conference Theological Education Fund]....What other United Methodist organization is producing such a large net return on investment?"
  6. MEF is a crucial material connection that the thirteen official seminaries and their students have with the denomination. We are proud of the historic commitment to MEF as one of the key indicators of the UMC dedication to an educated clergy. It is a crucial source of support for the schools, without which some would be in serious financial jeopardy. Moreover, loss of or radical reductions in MEF undercut the basic economic foundation for students who are seeking ordination, adding to their financial hardship and debt. Overall, Aleshire concludes that "Most of the schools could likely find their way to a financial future that includes reduced MEF income, but denominational funding has value beyond its absolute amount. Its presence solidifies connections and its absence strains those connections, and weakened connections could be the more difficult to overcome than reduced revenue."
  7. Are there too many seminaries? The study says maybe, but maybe not. Many factors must be considered in answering this question, and they are discussed in Aleshire's report. He notes, however, that per capita, the UMC has fewer seminaries than any other Protestant denomination. All thirteen have experienced substantial financial stress and across the last decade have reduced faculty, staff, and other non-scholarship expenditures (including for some radical reductions in the property they own), all while creatively innovating curriculum and pedagogy. For example, almost all provide online learning in one form or another.
  8. We are highly regulated, and the outcomes we produce are continuously studied and evaluated by ourselves and our accreditors. As institutions of higher education that serve the church, we always welcome careful and critical analysis of what we do, which is why we commissioned the study.
  9. The Wesleyan tradition is practiced by many people and institutions across the UMC, thanks be to God! The seminaries, however, are keepers of the "intellectual soul" of the Wesleyan faith through faculty who confirm and debate the meaning of Wesleyan theology and history and who teach generations of UMC ministers, as well as through library collections that chronicle the history of Wesleyan thought and life. The thirteen schools "remember what has been given in the past, test past thought in the context of present realities, curate future possibilities, and ... do all three in the presence of students who will lead the continuing extension of the church's work."

AUMTS will seek to draw further insight from this comprehensive report. We will use it to improve our individual and collective offerings of theological education so we may serve the church and the world to which we are called to minister. Methodism offers a profound legacy of theological education that responds to diverse contexts and times. The AUMTS is committed to maintain that historic legacy and characteristic openness to change for the sake of more effective ministries around the world.

We commend this report to you with the hope you will take time to read and review it. We believe it provides data and analysis crucial to addressing the UMC's vision and urgent priority of developing principled Christian leaders dedicated to the Wesleyan tradition.

We will continue to pray for you as a leader in the UMC and ask that you pray for our schools, as together we discern the future to which God calls us.

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Drew University Theological School educates and mentors pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, thought leaders, and change agents for ministry and service in the church and society. Drew Theological School is diverse in theology, vocations, age, as well as racial, ethnic, national, and international identities. Many Drew students are just beginning their ministry, while others come to graduate theological education with prior ministry experience. The latter reflects a growing trend among all theological schools in the United States and Canada. Drew holds in-person classes in Madison, New Jersey, several classes meet exclusively online, while other meet in hybrid fashion, i.e., partially online, partially in-person. This is also the case with chapel worship which originates in Seminary Hall, but also is live-streamed so that students around the world participate. Drew Theological School is a global seminary with a global student population serving the worldwide church.

In Fall 2023 Drew Theological School welcomed 104 new students in all degree programs, with total student enrollment (by head count) growing from 364 students in Fall 2021 to 407 in Fall 2023 semester. Enrollment of international students at Drew increased from 120 students in Fall 2021 to 169 students in Fall 2023. This number includes students who are studying full-time in the U.S.A. on a student Visa, students who are studying online from their home country, and students in the South Korean Cohort of the Doctor of Ministry program.

Drew's interdisciplinary degree programs provide real-world apprenticeships, promotes adaptive leadership skills, and encourages innovation through team-taught core courses as well as a variety of electives that integrate theological disciplines and faith practices. The Drew faculty's shared values are infused across all aspects of the teaching and learning: 1) a commitment to anti-racism; 2) gender and sexual-identity equality; 3) eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and 4) interfaith understanding and cooperation. Drew Theological School has an increase in United Methodist students, additionally, Drew has many United Methodist Global Fellows pursuing further education for ministry. UMC graduates are serving in conferences across the United States, and especially within our nearby regional United Methodist conferences of Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, and New York Annual Conference.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Duke Divinity School can attest to the work of God's Spirit to usher us into a season of hope and continued faithfulness to the mission and calling to serve the church, academy, and the world. In 2023, the Duke University president and provost appointed Dean Edgardo Colón-Emeric for a full five-year term. In his Opening Convocation sermon, he stated: "This year marks the 25th anniversary of my ordination in the United Methodist Church. This is the school that prepared me. Today, I give God thanks for still allowing me to serve as a minister of the gospel and I renew the vow I made when I was installed as dean. By the grace of God and en conjunto with you, I will uphold this school's 'commitment to God and the people of God, to the highest standards of academic excellence, and to this university.'"

In the next three years, we will celebrate a number of centennial milestones: Duke University and The Duke Endowment (2024), the 17th centennial of the Council of Nicaea (2025), and Duke Divinity School (2026). As a foretaste of those occasions to reflect and celebrate, we have had two important milestone celebrations in 2023. The Office of Black Church Studies (OBCS) commemorated its 50th anniversary, an occasion to rejoice in all that God has done through OBCS to bless our Duke Divinity community and to extend the gifts from the Black Church to the whole church. As just one example of the impact and influence from OBCS, the Rev. Dr. Cynthia Hale (D'79) received Duke University's Distinguished Alumni Award in recognition of her outstanding contributions in ministry and service.

The Hispanic House of Studies (HHS) celebrated its quinceañera (15th anniversary), another opportunity to have our hope buoyed by God's work in our midst. HHS was created by the Divinity School, with support from The Duke Endowment, to support the formation of ministers to Hispanic/Latinx congregations and communities in the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences and beyond. These efforts are not confined to a limited silo but extend throughout our academic and ministerial programs. For instance, we now offer the "Rediscovering the Heart of Methodism" course in Spanish on Divinity+, an online resource that is widely available for ministers and congregations.

This fall, we welcomed 215 entering students from 35 different states as well as new community members who hold either primary or secondary citizenship in 16 other countries including Canada, Chile, China, Finland, Germany, India, Kenya, Mexico, Nigeria, Peru, Russia, Saint Kitts and Nevis, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Syria, and Zimbabwe. The Master of Divinity program gained 104 new students, with 54 residential students and 50 in the hybrid program. The Master of Arts in Christian Practice enrolled 13 new students; the Doctor of Ministry, 22; Master of Theology, 11; Master of Theological Studies, 29; the Doctor of Theology welcomed five new students to campus, and five special students enrolled. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed 11 residential students to campus and 15 in the hybrid program. Across all degree programs at the Divinity School, 31 percent of the incoming class identified as a race or ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 21 percent of all students; Latinx students, seven percent. Fifty-four percent of students in the incoming class identify as female. There were 25 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 26 percent affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Baptists made up 10 percent of the incoming students; Anglican or Episcopal students, 10 percent; and nondenominational students, 12 percent.

Duke Divinity School continues to invest in pathways to support Methodist leadership and pastoral formation. Divinity+ launched the Church Administration series focused on developing practical skills for church leaders. More than 1,000 learners have enrolled in the first two courses, "Theology and Time Management" and "Strategic Management." We inaugurated the Certificate in Chaplaincy, designed to prepare students to provide spiritual care in a variety of settings such as hospitals, hospice, prisons, higher education, and the military. The certificate can be earned as part of the residential M.Div., Th.M., and M.T.S. degree programs.

The school has also welcomed new leaders who bring their gifts to the work of advancing the mission to serve Christ and the church. Two houses have appointed new directors: the Office of Black Church Studies is led by the Rev. Dr. Eric Lewis Williams (D'05), assistant professor of theology and Black Church Studies; and the Anglican Episcopal House of Studies has named the Very Rev. Timothy Kimbrough (D'83), Jack and Barbara Bovender Professor of the Practice of Anglican Studies.

Key members who have joined our staff team include Anita Lumpkin, executive director of enrollment management; and the Rev. Sarah Belles, a Duke Divinity alumna and ordained elder in full connection with the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, as the director of student life.

Several new programs demonstrate Duke's sustained commitment to connecting with churches and ministers. With gratitude to funding from the Lilly Endowment, the Divinity School has launched the Transformative Preaching Lab to prepare creative, culturally competent preachers who can reach audiences in effective and engaging ways. It will expand preaching training for students in the hybrid modality of the M.Div. program with new courses and preaching laboratories along with new capacities to explore and engage digital tools for community worship and preaching. The Transformative Preaching Lab also provides new opportunities for formation in trauma-informed preaching and preaching in immigrant communities, issues that are especially salient in communities across the country and around the world.

The Theology, Medicine, and Culture initiative has launched the Mental Health Track for Christian mental health practitioners as part of its Certificate in Theology and Health Care. This hybrid certificate program offers spiritual and theological formation for mental health clinicians in a range of disciplines. The research and programming from other Duke Divinity initiatives, including Theology, Medicine, and Culture; Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts; Leadership Education at Duke Divinity; and Thriving Rural Communities, continue to provide numerous opportunities to bear witness to God's creativity, compassion, and care for communities and congregations.

Duke Divinity School continues to be grateful for our ongoing participation in The United Methodist Church and partnership with this annual conference. We look forward to our ongoing work with you as we join the leading of God's Spirit in the task of preparing people for Christian ministry. ## ESCUELA DE DIVINIDAD DE DUKE REPORTE A LA CONFERENCIA ANUAL 2024

La Escuela de Divinidad de Duke puede dar fe de la obra del Espíritu de Dios para llevarnos a una etapa de esperanza y continua fidelidad a la misión y el llamado de servir a la iglesia, la academia, y al mundo. En el 2023, el presidente y rector de la Universidad de Duke asignó al Decano Edgardo Colón-Emeric por un término completo de cinco años. En su sermón de la Asamblea de Apertura, indicó: "Este año marca el 25 aniversario de mi ordenación en la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Esta es la escuela que me preparó. Hoy, agradezco a Dios por aún permitirme servir como ministro del evangelio y renuevo el voto que realicé cuando fui instituido como decano. Por la gracia de Dios y en conjunto con ustedes, yo elevaré el compromiso de esta escuela con 'Dios y con el pueblo de Dios, a los más altos estándares de excelencia académica, y a esta universidad'."

En los siguientes tres años, celebraremos varios hitos de centenario: el de la Universidad de Duke y el de La Dotación Duke (2024), el centenario número 17 del Concilio de Nicea (2025), y el de la Escuela de Divinidad de Duke (2026). Como muestra de esas ocasiones para reflexionar y celebrar, hemos tenido la celebración de dos hitos importantes en el 2023. La Oficina de Estudios de la Iglesia Negra (OEIN) conmemoró su aniversario número 50, una ocasión para alegrarse de todo lo que ha hecho Dios a través de OEIN para bendecir a nuestra comunidad de la Escuela de Divinidad y para extender los dones de la Iglesia Negra a la iglesia en su totalidad. Tan solo como un ejemplo del impacto y la influencia de la OEIN, la Rev. Dra. Cynthia Hale (D'79) recibió el Premio al Alumno Egresado Distinguido de la Universidad de Duke en reconocimiento a sus importantes contribuciones en el ministerio y el servicio.

La Casa Hispana de Estudios (LCHE) celebró su quinceañera (aniversario número 15), otra oportunidad para elevar nuestra esperanza por el trabajo de Dios en medio nuestro. LCHE fue creada por la Escuela de Divinidad, con el apoyo de La Dotación Duke, para apoyar la formación de ministros para congregaciones y comunidades Hispano/Latinas las Conferencias Anuales de Carolina del Norte y del Oeste de Carolina del Norte y más allá. Estos esfuerzos no están limitados a un solo segmento si no que se extienden a través de nuestros programas académicos y ministeriales. Por ejemplo, ahora ofrecemos el curso "Redescubriendo el Corazón del Metodismo" en Español en la plataforma Divinity+, un recurso en línea que está ampliamente disponible para ministros y congregaciones.

Este otoño, le dimos la bienvenida a 215 estudiantes de nuevo ingreso de 35 estados diferentes así como también nuevos miembros de la comunidad quienes tienen su ciudadanía principal o secundaria en 16 países distintos los cuales incluyen Alemania, Canadá, Chile, China, Finlandia, India, Kenia, México, Nigeria, Perú, Rusia, Saint Kitts y Nevis, Corea del Sur, Sri Lanka, Siria, y Zimbabue. El programa de Maestría en Divinidad agregó 104 nuevos estudiantes, 54 de los cuales son estudiantes residenciales y 50 estudiantes del programa híbrido. El programa de Maestría de las Artes en la Práctica Cristiana inscribió 13 nuevos estudiantes; el de Doctorado en Ministerio, 22; el de Maestría en Teología, 11; el de Maestría de Estudios Teológicos, 29; el de Doctorado en Teología le dió la bienvenida a cinco nuevos estudiantes al campus, e inscribió a 5 estudiantes especiales. El programa de Certificado en Teología y Cuidado de la Salud le dió la bienvenida a 11 estudiantes residenciales al campus y a 15 en el programa híbrido. El 31 por ciento de los estudiantes de la clase de nuevo ingreso en todos los programas de estudios en la Escuela de Divinidad se identifican como miembros de una raza o etnicidad distinta a la raza blanca. Los estudiantes de la raza negra componen el 21 por ciento de todos los estudiantes; estudiantes Latinas/os/es, el 7 por ciento. El 54 por ciento de los estudiantes de la clase de nuevo ingreso se identifican como miembros del género femenino. Hubo 25 denominaciones representadas en la clase de nuevo ingreso de la Maestría en Divinidad, del cual el 26 por ciento está afiliado con la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Los Bautistas componen el 10 por ciento de los estudiantes de nuevo ingreso; los estudiantes Anglicanos o Episcopales, el 10 por ciento; y los estudiantes no-denominacionales, el 12 por ciento.

La Escuela de Divinidad de Duke continúa invirtiendo en vías para apoyar a la formación del liderazgo y pastorado Metodista. La plataforma Divinity+ lanzó la serie de Administración de la Iglesia la cual se enfoca en desarrollar las habilidades prácticas para líderes de iglesia. Más de 1,000 estudiantes se han inscrito en los primeros dos cursos, "La Teología y el Manejo del Tiempo" y "Administración Estratégica". Inauguramos el Certificado en Capellanía, diseñado para preparar estudiantes para proveer cuidado espiritual en una variedad de ámbitos tales como hospitales, hospicios, prisiones, instituciones de educación superior, y el servicio militar. El certificado se puede obtener como parte del programa de residencial de Maestría en Divinidad, Maestría en Teología, y Maestría en Estudios Teológicos.

La escuela también le ha dado la bienvenida a nuevos líderes quienes traen sus dones para contribuir al trabajo de avanzar la misión de servir a Cristo y a la iglesia. Dos casas de estudios han asignado nuevos directores: La Oficina de Estudios de la Iglesia Negra es dirigida por el Rev. Dr. Eric Lewis Williams (D'05), profesor asistente de teología y Estudios de la Iglesia Negra; y la Casa de Estudios Anglicana Episcopal ha nombrado al Muy Rev. Timothy Kimbrough (D'83), Profesor Jack and Barbara Bovender de la Práctica de Estudios Anglicanos. Miembros clave que se han unido a nuestro personal incluyen a Anita Lumpkin, director ejecutivo de administración de inscripciones; y la Rev. Sarah Belles, alumna egresada de la Escuela de Divinidad y presbítero ordenado en plena conexión con la Conferencia Anual del Oeste de Carolina del Norte, como director de vida estudiantil.

Varios nuevos programas demuestran el constante compromiso de Duke para conectar con iglesias y ministros. Con gratitud por los fondos recibidos de La Dotación Lilly, la Escuela de Divinidad, ha lanzado el Laboratorio de Predicación Transformadora para preparar predicadores creativos, y culturalmente competentes quienes puedan alcanzar audiencias de maneras efectivas y atractivas. Expandirá el entrenamiento de predicación para estudiantes del programa de Maestría en Divinidad en su modalidad híbrida con nuevos cursos y laboratorios de predicación aunado a nuevas capacidades de explorar y emplear herramientas digitales para la adoración y predicación comunitaria. El Laboratorio de Predicación Transformadora también provee nuevas oportunidades para la formación en la predicación consciente de situaciones y experiencias traumáticas y la predicación en comunidades inmigrantes, asuntos especialmente sobresalientes en comunidades alrededor del país y alrededor del mundo.

La Iniciativa de Teología, Medicina, y Cultura ha lanzado el Enfoque de Estudio en Salud Mental para practicantes Cristianos de la salud mental como parte de su Certificado en Teología y Cuidado de la Salud. Este programa híbrido de certificado ofrece formación espiritual y teológica para profesionales clínicos quienes ejercen en un amplio rango de disciplinas. La investigación y los programas por parte de otras iniciativas la Escuela de Divinidad de Duke, incluyendo Teología, Medicina, y Cultura; Iniciativas de Duke en la Teología y en las Artes; Educación del Liderazgo en la Escuela de Divinidad de Duke; y Comunidades Rurales Florecientes, continúan proveyendo numerosas oportunidades para testificar de la creatividad, compasión, y cuidado de Dios por las comunidades y congregaciones.

La Escuela de Divinidad de Duke continúa agradeciendo su continua participación en la Iglesia Metodista Unida y su relación de colaboración con esta conferencia anual. Esperamos continuar trabajando con ustedes al unirnos al liderazgo del Espíritu de Dios en la tarea de preparar gente para el ministerio Cristiano. ## CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY 2024 REPORT TO THE UMC ANNUAL CONFERENCES

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Wesleyan value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from more than 40 denominations, with nearly half of Master of Divinity students coming from the Methodist family, including United Methodist, African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Wesleyan, Free Methodist, Church of the Nazarene, and others. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 419 from 12 countries and 38 states, and 44% persons of color. This diversity is a blessing, enriching our life together and providing a “learning laboratory” for ministry in the 21st century—ministry that cultivates community across difference, welcomes all to contribute and belong, and embodies Christ’s love in and among us.

Candler offers six degrees (Master of Divinity, Master of Theological Studies, Master of Religion and Public Life, Master of Religious Leadership, Master of Theology, Doctor of Ministry) and ten dual degrees, most of which are available in hybrid or online formats. Response to our new hybrid-format Master of Divinity, which launched in Fall 2023, has been strong: 65% of 2023’s MDiv entering class chose the hybrid model, blending online classes and in-person intensives. Plus, around 20% of MDiv students participate in Candler’s Teaching Parish program to earn contextual education credit as they serve as student pastors in local churches. Our proven DMin program—with a near 90% completion rate—is 90% online as well. These flexible options plus Candler’s recognized academic excellence and hands-on learning opportunities are opening possibilities for even more people to follow God’s call to ministry.

Reducing student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority for Candler. In 2023-2024, we are on track to award $6.3 million in scholarship support, with 100% of MDiv students receiving aid. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition. MDiv students also receive financial coaching and complete a financial literacy program to strengthen their budgeting skills and reduce debt. That knowledge will serve them—and the ministries they serve—well into the future.

Candler is growing in exciting directions as it creates avenues to bring high-quality theological education to a wider audience. It is a hub of Christian learning with multiple entry points. Those who aren’t seeking an advanced degree can engage in learning through The Candler Foundry, our innovative program to make theological education accessible to the public through short courses, events, and related activities; the United Methodist Course of Study to educate licensed local pastors; the new Candler Center for Christian Leadership to refine business-related skills of United Methodist leaders; and La Mesa Academy, offering diplomas in pastoral leadership via a two-year hybrid program with courses in Spanish, English, and Korean.

One of the biggest news items of the year for Candler is the announcement that after nearly 18 years, Dean Jan Love will step down from Candler’s deanship in the summer of 2024. Through Dean Love’s transformational leadership, Candler has expanded to offer three new degrees, five new dual degrees, and more online and hybrid options, including the highly successful hybrid MDiv and DMin degrees. She has increased the diversity of Candler’s faculty and student body, continued the school’s tradition of world-class scholarship in hiring 75% of the current full-time faculty, and grown the number of endowed professorships. Her efforts have enhanced Candler’s ability to fulfill its mission in a rapidly changing environment, and she leaves the school in a strong position. The next dean of Candler is expected to be named by early summer.

Candler depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY – 2024 REPORT

Gammon Theological Seminary is the Interdenominational Theological Center's United Methodist constituent member in Atlanta, Georgia. The Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) is a Christian Africentric ecumenical consortium of seminaries and fellowships that educate students to commit to practicing justice and peace through a liberating and transforming spirituality to become leaders in the church and local/global communities. Gammon was founded in 1883, bearing the name of the Rev. Elijah H. Gammon, a generous clergyman, businessman, and philanthropist. Rev. Elijah H. Gammon invested and endowed the founding of Gammon Seminary in partnership with Bishop Henry Warren and the Freedman's Aid Society. Gammon has educated Black Clergy for almost 140 years, with graduates serving every level of the church, including Bishops, Superintendents, General church leaders, Conference staff, and Clergy in every jurisdiction. Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religion and Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. The support given to The United Methodist Ministerial Education Fund by United Methodist Conferences continues to enable Gammon students to be grounded in the Wesleyan tradition of theological education.

Our 17th President/Dean, Rev. Dr. Candace M. Lewis, and the Gammon staff team continue to lead innovatively in chartering a "Brand New Day" for Gammon's recruitment, retention, research and resources, fund development, and scholarship endowments in her first two years of service.

Our new initiatives and celebrations this year, 2023 – 2024, at Gammon, include:

- In May 2023, Gammon held our 1st Annual Student Scholarship Fundraiser Golf Tournament, receiving $70,000 in donations to assist students with their tuition, which also helped Gammon build more relationships and partnerships.
- In June 2023, The Rev. Walter H. McKelvey Endowed Scholarship Fund was launched by Dr. Loretta F. McKelvey (wife of the late Rev. McKelvey) and Dr. Walter Kimbrough with a $50,000.00 matching gift in partnership with the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation.
- In June 2023, The Florida Conference raised and donated over $ 60,000.00 to the Rev. Geraldine McClellan Endowed Scholarship Fund, which is now fully endowed by the Florida United Methodist Foundation.
- In July 2023 and December 2023, Gammon hosted the Ebony Exploration Event for 75 young adults under 35, increasing participation and forming strategic partnerships with external organizations to enhance the program's reach and impact.
- In December 2023, we celebrated our 140th Founders Day Event/Pastors and Leaders Conference, with over two hundred persons attending workshops (in person and virtual) and our Scholarship Gala Dinner, hosted at IMPACT Church in Atlanta, GA.

The greatest challenge facing Gammon Seminary is the rising cost of theological education and the significant debt our students incur as they answer their call to full-time ministry. Therefore, Gammon is committed to raising a million dollars in the next two years to offer full-tuition scholarships to students called and committed to full-time ministry in the United Methodist Church. We are grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education and your commitment to ensuring pastoral leadership is theologically trained to lead us forward in the Wesleyan tradition.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Dr. Candace M. Lewis, President-Dean

GARRETT-EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY 2023-2024

For 170 years Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary has been in service to the Church and the Wesleyan/Methodist connection through the formation of Christian leaders in ordained and lay ministries. As the result of a new strategic planning process that seeks to position the seminary more fully and purposefully in service to the global church, Garrett adopted a new mission and vision that will focus our work to this end: Forming courageous leaders in the way of Jesus to cultivate communities of justice, compassion, and hope...for the thriving of the Church and the healing of the world.

During this past academic year, Garrett also welcomed its largest entering class in over a decade, with 124 new students, and a current enrollment of 314 students representing 37 states and 21 nations from across the globe. We have experienced particular growth in students from the African continent and the Indian subcontinent, adding to an already richly diverse student body. While our denominational diversity also continues to grow, we also proudly welcomed growth in our United Methodist students who constitute more than 50% of our student body.

Of particular importance in the past year has been the partnership we have entered into with Phillips School of Theology of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church (CME). Phillips students are now also fully Garrett students and together we are preparing the next generation of CME leaders in a robust pan-Methodist/Wesleyan context alongside UMC, AME, and AMEZ students. Phillips President, Dr. Paul Brown, is now also affiliated with our faculty, teaching CME History, Doctrine, and Polity, as well as spiritual formation and organizational leadership courses. It is our hope and intention to continue to grow this partnership and foster a truly pan-Methodist/Wesleyan ethos which includes our growing global Methodist partners in Asia, Latin America, and Africa. Additionally, last year, all Garrett degree programs were made truly hybrid so that students can study with us and earn their degrees either on our Evanston campus or in virtual learning spaces around the globe. This has added an amazing breadth of experience and contexts to our classrooms, where we seek to address real-world challenges with gospel inspired solutions or responses.

Garrett's world-class faculty continue developing curricular innovations that are responsive to the church's growing needs, while also contributing a significant body of scholarly work to their respective fields. Our faculty are also at work developing The Garrett Collective, an online platform of theological learning and resources for churches and partner organizations inspired by our faculty's research and/or strategic partnerships. Finally, at this critical juncture in the history of United Methodism, faculty leaders are providing essential guidance to UMC students, while also continuing to envision with hope the next expression of Methodism that is responsive to the Spirit's call for such a time as this.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO
2024 REPORT
www.mtso.edu

Thank you for this opportunity to bring news from MTSO.

Curriculum revision offers shorter paths to degrees

Beginning in the fall of 2024, MTSO will offer incoming master's degree students a slate of revised programs offering clear, achievable paths to their vocations. This curriculum revision will give most students the opportunity to complete their degrees in less time. Under the updated curriculum, the Master of Divinity degree requires 75 credit hours and is achievable in three years. The Master of Theological Studies, MA in Public Theology, and MA in Social Justice require 39 hours and are achievable in two years.

The revised curriculum for each master's degree is organized around four cores: the Values Core, Methods Core, Vocational Electives Core and Integrative Core. Detailed information is available at mtso.edu/degreeupdates.

The MA in Public Theology gets a new name and updated focus

MTSO's newly revised MA in Public Theology degree (formerly the MA in Practical Theology) deepens the knowledge and skills of those working to build societal peace, justice and the common good. The MAPT offers formation for the next generation of practical, public theologians by cultivating abilities for negotiating the dynamic interplay in these areas: Christian heritage, congregational culture and contemporary society; theological, educational and social- science disciplines; and the diversities of human and creaturely existence.

Cross-cultural immersion is expanded

Previously required for the Master of Divinity and MA in Social Justice degrees, cross-cultural immersion trips are now required for all MTSO master's degrees and are covered by tuition. Cross-cultural immersion is not a mission trip. Rather, it is an opportunity to learn from and fully experience another culture, rather than attempting to "help" or impact cultures different from one's own. Trips nurture a global perspective and serve as a foundation for learning to respect the rich diversity of beliefs and practices in the wider church.

Participants in the January 2024 cross-cultural trip visited South Africa. Upcoming destinations include Mexico and Italy.

Respectfully submitted,

Danny Russell, director of communications

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Educating tomorrow's leaders by offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning courses at a FLEXible schedule, Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary serving a diverse community committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry through rigorous academic life. Grounded in the academic study of faith and ministry, theology is practiced in a traditional classroom and remote spaces. Our contextual curriculum features Ministry Collaboration Groups, Practicums, Spiritual Formation Retreats, and Seminars. Students learn from dedicated faculty, experienced pastors, and community leaders about best ministry practices, leaving our graduates with the tools and first-hand experience necessary to meet the needs of a changing world.

At the core of our mission at Saint Paul is the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry through rigorous academic life. In 2024, we are launching two exciting new programs to revitalize current pastors and preachers and prepare seminary students for music ministry. First, with the help of Lilly Endowment's Compelling Preaching grant and the leadership of Dr. Casey Sigmon, Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship and Director of Contextual Education and Pause/Play Center for Preachers, Saint Paul School of Theology is creating a Center that addresses the risk of losing heart and prophetic imagination as a preacher in this divided world. The Pause/Play Center for Preachers' mission is in its name: to hold space for busy preachers to pause and play their way into a renewal of their vocation as preachers of the Good News. Second, for Fall 2024, as part of our Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (MACM) degree program, we will launch a first-of-its-kind specialization in Modern Worship Music. Saint Paul will partner with The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection and their COR Worship Collective to prepare students to write, produce, and perform modern worship music. Students will integrate a worship leaders' skills with their study of theology, the bible, history, and worship in a diverse, inclusive, and spiritually enriching environment. Lastly, we recently completed the (Theo)Logic Studio on our Oklahoma Campus. The Studio serves as a dedicated space for creating, recording, and editing digital media resources tailored to the ministries of students, staff, faculty, and alums, encompassing content development ranging from podcasts and video resources to digital graphics.

We continue to invite Saint Paul students, alums, and friends to join us in a hybrid format, where participants may join in-person or online, allowing everyone to come together as one institution from wherever they are. Saint Paul offers weekly chapel services throughout the academic year featuring students, alums, faculty, and local leaders. In addition, weekly Spiritual Formation allows attendees to engage in spiritual practices led by new Oklahoma Chapel Coordinator Rev. Alanna Ireland '23. Some practices take us outdoors or to other sacred spaces, and others have us connect with community leaders.

For the 2023-2024 academic year, we brought 41 new, faithful theologians from across the world to our learning community. International students from South Korea, Belgium, and Mexico added to the global learning environment on both campuses and online. Twenty-seven percent of incoming students identified as a race or ethnicity other than white, and 53 percent identified as female.

Saint Paul staff and faculty continue contributing to the academy, church, and society. The faculty of Saint Paul School of Theology maintains high standards of scholarship, research, publication, and engagement. Over the past year, their many activities and publications have been so numerous that space permits only sharing selected highlights:

- Dr. Israel Kamudzandu, Lindsey P. Pherigo Associate Professor of New Testament Studies and Biblical Interpretation, published Translation as Incarnation: The Bible in the Twenty-First Century Global South and was the featured guest speaker of our January forum.
- Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church, and Society, published Black Theology and The Black Panthers
- Dr. Elaine Robinson, Professor of Methodist Studies and Christian Theology, published Leading with Love: Spiritual Disciplines For Practical Leadership
- Rabbi Michael Zedek, Rabbi-in-Residence, published Taking Miracles Seriously: A Journey to Everyday Spirituality and hosted a forum with Dr. Jeanne Hoeft, Associate Professor of Pastoral Theology and Pastoral Care, and Franklin and Louise Cole Associate Professor in Town and Country Ministries, on The War in Israel and Traumatized Communities
- Dr. Mike Graves, Professor Emeritus of William K. McElvaney of Preaching and Worship, published Jesus' Vision for Your One Wild and Precious Life (on Things Like Poverty, Hunger, Polarization, Inclusion, and More)

The 2023-2024 Fiscal Year brought a change in leadership to the Seminary. Rev. Neil Blair '80 retired as President on December 31, 2023, and President Jay Simmons, formerly Vice President of Institutional Advancement, took the helm at the start of 2024. In addition, Saint Paul Board of Trustees' Chair Dr. Amy Hogan stepped down as Board Chair, with Ms. Sharon Cleaver assuming the position until the end of June 2024. Our current strategic plan is set to conclude within the coming year. Consequently, the Board of Trustees formed a task force several months ago to prepare the next iteration of our strategic plan. Members of the Seminary's Executive Leadership Team are now working with faculty and staff to refine the draft scripted by the task force. These efforts will continue over the next few months until we have a document ready for review by the Board of Trustees. While we are still too early in this effort to comment on any specific initiatives, the plan ultimately endorsed by the Board will guide all our efforts for the next several years. Therefore, this effort is critical in defining how we ensure that Saint Paul remains a vital and vigorous Seminary committed to preparing our students for creative and innovative ministry.

For the 2023-2024 fiscal year, Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 250 individual students, including 79 new students, with approximately 600 registrations and offering 46 classes. Serving 31 Conferences, 89 Districts, 116 Full Time and 126 Part-Time Licensed Local Pastors comprised these registrations. Seventy percent of these students are taking more than one course. To help offset student costs, twenty percent of all students received aid from their conference or church. COS School continues to attract a diverse student body. One hundred eighty-eight students ranged in age from 30 to 65, and 62 students ranged in age from 66 to 82. Students self-identified across four racial/ethnic groups. Fifty-two percent were male, and forty-eight percent were female. Many COS School students serve more than one church, many rural, with a few dozen students serving three or more churches. We helped 23 students finish the 20-course program this year, issuing them certificates of completion. With approval from GBHEM, the school has continued its course offerings in both asynchronous and synchronous online formats. Utilizing this online format, we reached students in 28 states. We continue to offer online registration completed by the student with the ability to access their student account through Populi as used by our Seminary students. COS also uses the same learning platform, Moodle, as our Seminary students. By implementing the Course of Study School into Populi, these students share the same benefits as the Seminary, allowing them to participate in the Saint Paul experience. They have full access to the Seminary library on campus and online, with several required readings accessible as an eBook. We have invited COS School students to join our Saint Paul School of Theology Weekly Chapel Services and Spiritual Formation gatherings and other Saint Paul events.

Saint Paul is a financially healthy Seminary. We operate with a balanced budget, no debt, and an endowment that is 9-10 times the size of our annual expenses. Sustainability has been our focus over the past six years, and we have achieved our goal. Investments in our future bring exciting new opportunities for our students, staff, and faculty. As always, we continue to be grateful for donations from the community that provide technology, scholarships, and evolving academic programs to students. Our significant technological investments have allowed us to maintain a hybrid educational delivery model, providing a flexible working arrangement for our students.

We are continuing to enhance our partnership with Zoom and Neat. We now have Neat Bars & Neat Boards in all our classrooms. In addition, during this last year, we implemented a Neat Board in Harris Chapel on our Oklahoma Campus. We also have Neat Boards in multiple common areas to encourage ad-hoc use of the technology for breakout groups and other miscellaneous meetings between our two campuses and our remote students. One of the best features of this technology is its ability to receive automatic real-time over-the-air feature upgrades. Zoom & Neat continue enhancing our learning environment by rolling out new enhancements, including enhanced whiteboarding, noise cancellation, and AI features. Our Neat equipment continuously monitors several environmental factors within our classrooms: air quality, temperature, humidity, VOC, and CO2, as well as being able to tell if the classrooms are occupied and how many individuals are in the room. We can also monitor the audio/video quality and network connectivity in each of our classrooms, as well as the connection quality for all remote students attending the class. We are excited about the additional enhancements that will come to our classrooms from Neat and Zoom over this next year.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be your partner in ministry and help those seeking to discover more and answer the call. Your advocacy for the Seminary and generous financial support have been vital in realizing our accomplishments. Many thanks for the innumerable ways you have helped Saint Paul. Your prayers and actions on behalf of the Seminary are a blessing to all of us.

Jay K. Simmons, President

Where Theology Meets Life

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Dayton, OH

For more than 150 years, United Theological Seminary has prepared men and women to serve as faithful and fruitful Christian leaders who make disciples of Jesus Christ. In the 2022-2023 academic year, the seminary served 547 students, representing 36 states, 20 countries, and 43 denominations, with 38% of students identifying as United Methodist. United in Christ, the student body is a multi-ethnic, multi-racial community that is 43% African American, 27% White, 18% international, 9% Hispanic, and 2% Asian or Pacific Islander.* During the 2022-2023 academic year, 120 graduates completed their programs.

Houses of Study

United's academic programs include seven Houses of Study for denominational, church renewal, and/or language- and culture-based ministry, including online Spanish and Korean houses of study. These houses of study have enrolled over 120 new master's students in the United States and around the world.

Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center

In 2023, the Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center, directed by Rev. Sue Nilson Kibbey, engaged more than 5,000 participants through 64 resourcing events and activities. The Center partnered with the Black Methodists for Church Renewal Laity Advocacy Committee to conduct the 2023 Laity Leadership Institution. The Center also launched a Dynamite Prayer movement, based on the guidebook Dynamite Prayer: A 28 Day Experiment (Invite Resources, 2022) by Rev. Kibbey and Rev. Dr. Rosario Picardo. Multiple United Methodist conferences and more than 90 congregations across denominations committed to be part of a Dynamite Prayer Wave and received resourcing on the practice of "breakthrough prayer."

New Faces at United

Over the past year, the seminary welcomed several new members to the United community. Bishop James Swanson, most recently bishop of the Mississippi Conference of The United Methodist Church, was installed as United Methodist Bishop-in-Residence. Dr. Pauline Paris Buisch and Rev. Dr. Xavier L. Johnson joined the faculty as Assistant Professor of Old Testament and Assistant Professor of Preaching and Black Church Studies, respectively, and Dr. Eliseo Mejia came on board as the Academic Oversight Officer for the Hispanic House of Study.

Reducing Student Debt

Finances shouldn't stand in the way of a seminary education. That's why United has launched the Fresh Wind: Where the Spirit Takes Flight campaign to add $10 million to the scholarship endowment, which will dramatically increase the seminary's capacity to provide scholarships to students for many years to come. As of January 2024, the seminary was more than 70% toward the $10 million goal.

A SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING AND MEMORY

June 11, 2024, Greenville Convention Center

“Something to Hold On to”

John 14:1-4, 18-20, 25-27

Good evening. We are so glad that you are all here and were able to attend this service. If you see me moving gingerly, the pulpit is a little taller than I am. I would like to thank St. Matthew United Methodist Church for providing this little riser that I'm standing on. We are very grateful for that, and I want to thank Bishop Holston for inviting me to be a part of and share in this special time of worship. This is always a very special service to me at Annual Conference. I know it is to you as well, because we come to share in our celebration of life for those whom we love and know and have supported. We are grateful for your presence in person and online. We are grateful for the faithful service of our colleagues and their families because as clergy, we know that we do not do this alone, and as leaders, lay leaders, and laity in the church, we know that we do not do this alone. So we are grateful. We are grateful for your presence. We are grateful for you serving as the church visible in this very tender time in the lives of these families and friends and for each other. I want to share with you that the title of the message this evening was submitted quite some time ago. Some of you may wonder why we say "Weebles wobble." Some do fall down. This one did. A few weeks ago I fell and shattered my patella. And when I called the bishop to tell him of that accident, he said, "First of all, I care for you, take care of yourself." And I'm looking at Mrs. Holston and she echoed the very same sentiment. But then as he would do pastorally, because he knows us very well, he said, "Patience is an acquired taste." Bishop. I'm still acquiring. Thank you, and thank you for your patience while we move through this together.

Let us pray: God of mercy, we no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for he is alive and has become the Lord of life. Console those who are fearful and afraid. Bring healing to those who suffer. Comfort those who mourn. Every day is a celebration of the resurrection because you have swallowed up death forever through the resurrection of your son. You have granted new life, abundant renewal and salvation. We pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The scripture that we're going to share this evening is very well known. It is one of the most quoted, most read and most shared. And understandably so, because in this discourse it expresses Jesus' care and concern, his love for his disciples. He is preparing them for a life transition. He gives them the promise of an advocate, someone to walk with so that they will not be alone. He promises you will not be alone, and then he bestows not once, but multiple times, peace upon them. So I'm going to ask you to stand as you are able or would like for the reading of the gospel. From John 14 and these are selected verses and these are the words of Jesus: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also and you know the way to the place where I am going. I will not leave you orphaned. I am coming to you, and in a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my father and you are in me and I am in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and will remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I give you, my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives." And then Jesus repeats again: "Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid." The word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God! You may be seated.

This is a very significant time in our lives individually. As family, as friends, as colleagues. And as the corporate church, it's a time of transition in life. We are each going through a specific experience that we have never had before, as were the disciples in this text that we shared. The reason I say that is many of us in this room have experienced the death, the loss of a loved one, but we have not been through this particular experience. I still remember the day that I was called to come to the hospital because my father had made a turn for the worse. And I remember that day as many times as I had been through this experience. I was still shocked, and when we met to make the arrangements, I remember looking at the funeral director saying, "I know I'm supposed to know exactly what to tell you right now, but if you'll ask the questions, I'll give you the answers to the best of my ability." So I understand that no matter how many times we have this experience, each time we have it, it's new and it's different. And it's a common experience among all of us. We experience grief and loss, but we also experience celebration because there are moments even in our grief, we recognize that we are in the presence of the Risen Lord, which means even in our toughest moments, we are still in the joy of Christ. I am grateful that the entire gospel points to the good news of Jesus Christ and the gift of eternal life, making this a time of celebration while we simultaneously acknowledge our grief and pain. As the pastor, and I'm sure there are some pastors here who might nod and agree with this, it is very humbling. It is an honor to be invited to be a part of these life moments, grief, celebration and even all those in between times. These are moments when God graciously reminds us that we are not alone. These are the moments that we recognize that God comes to us and invites us into the process to participate with God. And yet, there are times, as pastors, we often find ourselves speechless. Now, some of you may find that hard to believe, but there are times we actually find ourselves speechless because there are no words that can take away the feelings of pain or grief. Then Jesus comes alongside. And some words sometimes are really not what are needed from us. Our presence is. Because when we, and I'm not talking about just pastors, when we who embody the gospel show up, we show up as a reminder of it being God who is present and active and loving. We represent God's presence. As God's representatives, we mirror that hope. You show up, you come alongside, and often your presence is the most powerful message you send. And it is what is remembered because the family, the friends, the persons see and remember God being expressed in you. You are the reminders of God's presence. You are the embodiment of the gospel. You are the gospel living and breathing.

Bishop Beard reminded us that we are always looking for a good story. Well, the story I'm about to share with you is not original to me, but I think it illustrates a truth for us. A child's mother needed a push broom. Do you know what a push broom is? One of those big brooms. So the mother needed a push broom and one of those large dustpans, but it was being stored in the basement. The mother instructs the child to go to the basement and retrieve the broom and the dustpan. And the child looks at mom with the pitiful face and said, "But it's dark down there." "Well," mom says, "we'll turn on the light." "But it's scary down there." Mom reminds the child, Jesus will be with you. To which this child says, "I know, but I want someone with skin on." It makes a difference when we have someone walking with us, someone who is present and when you show the work as God's representative. The strength and the power of the Holy Spirit shore us up, help us through these difficult times. We are reminded in Galatians that it is a great gift. Sometimes we don't think of it that way, but it is a great gift to support one another and to bear one another's burdens together. You are a beloved child of God right now. You are the bearers of the hope of the gospel. You are the ones that God has equipped to show up and be those reminders. And I thank you for doing it. You were here. You're online. You're supporting one another.

Grief and loss are universal experiences for all of us, and sometimes we forget, even for children. We grieve because we love. We grieve because something in life that is precious to us has changed. I remember a detective once saying about children who were in traumatic situations, and trauma can be defined by however it affects the individual person. He would give children a stuffed animal before he left. And he said he did that because children need something to hold on to. And so do we. D.W. Winnicott was a pediatric psychiatrist and he was the chief proponent of what is known as object relations theory. Now what that is is a fancy term for Linus and the blanket. Basically, the theory says that children identify transitional objects that are so important to them. So important that if they take it to church and they leave it on the pew, pastor, you're going to get a call from a frantic parent who says, "Pastor, would you please let us back in the church? We left something." Now they're not going to tell you what it is. If you leave that prized object and you go on a vacation, you're going to turn around and go back. I see the heads nodding. You're gonna turn around and go back and get it, or you're not gonna have a peaceful vacation. That happened to my family. I had a little wooden toy pig. I don't know why we were attached to that, but we went back before we got to Folly Beach, and the pig went on vacation. Children will attach to something because they find some sense of coping and some type of peace, knowing that that object is there. All of us need something to hold on to.

Well, the Scripture we shared is known as a part of the farewell discourse of Jesus that was given just at the close of the Last Supper. Now, that was also a farewell dinner. In fact, we heard part of that reference this morning with Reverend Quick, and we did not consult with each other. Jesus meticulously planned that meal with his disciples, and every detail was important. Because of his deep love for them, his care for them, he knew what lay ahead of them while they could not even begin to face it. Everything. The place. The meal, the timing, even how it was prepared and the way the invitations were issued to them to come. He meticulously cared for them. Jesus was deeply and first-hand acquainted with the feelings of grief. At the death of his friend Lazarus, it is recorded in Scripture and known as the shortest verse in the Bible. And you know that in vacation Bible school when children need to learn a verse to repeat and to recite, this is one they will go to. They will love to go to John 11:35 and Jesus wept. I never had a problem with that being their verse because somewhere along the way that was going to be important. And it was in this context that he offered care and concern and compassion and he gave them something to hold on to as he did us. He reminded them, "You have sorrow now. But I will see you again in your hearts will rejoice." Now that would be hard to hear. What they were getting ready to experience had never happened in history and hasn't since the resurrection. It only happened once. There was no way they could understand what was ahead of them. But we are grateful that Jesus came along beside them, that we have the story recorded. And Jesus comes along beside us and sends you, sends you as God's representative. You are a vital part of God's work. Laity and clergy: You are a vital part. You have been called by God to serve however you serve, and every one of those callings is important. They're knit together to bring the tapestry into a whole. Keep remembering you are the living, breathing carriers of the gospel of hope to do God's work.

I always loved when I was in the local church and I'm getting ready to go back. That every Sunday there was a way to announce there is good news. So here it is. The good news is that we are living eternal life right now and it is a joyful experience in the midst of whatever. There is a story of a little boy who begged for a dog. Now I have a 5-year-old grandson who sort of directs my life most of the time and, and he's really interested in a pet so I can identify with this. This little boy begged for a dog. He explained to his mom and dad, "I want a dog to cuddle with, to sleep with me, to play with, to throw the ball." This went on for a very long time and finally the day came. Dad said let's go to the pet store and look at the puppies and see what they have. Well, the little boy went back and forth, back and forth, back and forth looking at all the puppies and dad finally called the question. I don't know about calling the question, right. Well, dad called the question. And went over to the little boy and said, "Have you chosen a puppy yet that might be just right for you." He stood up to his whole four feet. I mean I'm eleven inches taller than his whole 4-foot self and he said "I did." And he said well show me which one you want. So he pointed over in the corner to a little bouncy puppy with the tail wagging and puppy face. But Dad wanted to make sure he had the right one because this was too big to make a mistake. He said, "Show me exactly which one." So he went over, they let him go in and he went right over to that little puppy and pointed to the one with the tail wagging. He said, "This one, Daddy, the one with the happy ending."

You see, that's us. We already know the end of the story. The first disciples were experiencing for the first time. They couldn't completely understand that Jesus understood. They needed something to hold on to, and he gave it not only to them, but to us. He gave them joy, he gave them hope, and we have the same because of not who we are, but who and whose we are. But we are Easter people. Every day, Easter, Lent, Easter happens to be my favorite liturgical cycle. I love them all. I love Christmas. I love Christmas, and I do understand you can't have Easter without Christmas, but I love Lent and Easter. And we are Easter people. We do not grieve as people with no hope. You can say "Amen" louder to that. We do not grieve as people without hope. Because the hope doesn't come from us, it's a gift. We are living in the resurrection now. God loved us so much that God was willing to sacrifice his own Son for us all the way to a cross. Now that was Good Friday, and then Sunday came and gave us the assurance that we can rejoice on our worst, most challenging, desperate moment. Has anybody ever had one of those? Even in those moments, that's when Jesus comes to us, giving us his blessed assurance, and his hope and his presence and his promise: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. I go to a prepare a place for you. Why? I will not leave you orphaned. Peace I give you, my peace I give to you." He repeats again: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. And do not let them be afraid."

As you leave here, remember, hope overcomes despair. Trust overcomes fear. And faith overcomes doubt. You are a beloved child of God. You are living the resurrection life right now. You have an advocate. You have the Holy Spirit and God is so gracious and so abundantly blesses us. Look around the room. These are the ones that with this moment, at this time, in this moment, will never be repeated. So once in a lifetime moment, these are the ones that God has sent to walk with us together. You. You are the joy-filled gospel. You are the gospel with skin. You embody the presence and the activity of Christ. You are the reminders that nothing, nothing you can name, can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ. God loves you so much. He was willing to sacrifice his own son and gave him up. Jesus claimed victory over death, and my friends, that is something to hold on to. And the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

ACTIVE MINISTERS

TIMOTHY WARREN BURLESON August 22, 1954 – March 21, 2024

Tim Burleson left this world to join the Lord in Heaven on Thursday, March 21, 2024. Born in Asheville, NC, Tim always had a calling to serve others. He helped families and children by way of DHHS in child protective services and was also a Baptist minister. He attended several churches in his career in the Baptist denomination before converting to Methodist and continuing his service to God and others as a minister.

Among his endeavors of service he became the chaplain for Motor Racing Outreach, AMA Pro Racing and WERA. He was blessed with the ability to answer his calling and be a part of the super bike racing world, which was a love of his, along with golfing and the beach. His dying wish was to be back at the beach, which was successfully carried out during his final days.

Tim was a graduate of Appalachian State University, which for those who knew him, he jokingly and proudly boasted was the superior school. He was a dedicated alumni and enjoyed attending their football games seated right behind the marching band.

Though his life was cut short, it was full. He had lived, loved, laughed, lost, won, and everything in between that we would call a good life. He was taken from us by multiple myeloma and kidney failure. It was a rapid and aggressive onset which took him from perfect health to a seat next to Jesus in only 5 week's time. He did not suffer. He is predeceased by both parents, Ruby McCraw Burleson and Warren Burleson.

He is survived by his loving wife Caroline Burleson, his children both by marriage and blood, Timothy G. Burleson, Greg Bradham, Anita Bradham, his grandchildren, Leah (Chris) Dumas, Melanie Burleson, Messiah Bradham, Cameron Boozer, Axton Kincaid and Khortanna Kincaid. He was blessed with 26 years of marriage to Caroline, who describes him as her unwavering rock, her constant and real love.

His Celebration of Life service was held at Little River United Methodist Church in Little River, SC on Saturday, April 13, 2024.

DONALD E. LOVE April 13, 1952 – July 26, 2023

Rev. Donald E. Love, age 71, of Charlotte, NC, passed away on Wednesday, July 26, 2023, at his home with his wife and children by his side. He went on to be with the Lord after a courageous 10-year battle with metastatic prostate cancer.

Donald was born on April 13, 1952, in York County, SC, to the late Leon and Zelder Love. Generous, hard-working, God-centered, industrious, dedicated and loving all describe Donald.

He was a past member of Cedar Grove United Methodist Church (UMC), Wesley UMC, and current member of the South Carolina UMC Conference as a pastor for the Western York Charge (New Zion UMC, Shady Grove UMC, Sharon UMC).

In addition to his work as a devoted family-man and business professional, Donald led a tremendous life of service, much of it volunteer. Donald coached and held leadership positions for West Park Youth Athletics for 20 years ('80/'81-'00); impacting the lives of many children. He served as a scout leader for Boy Scouts Troop 45 for another 20 years ('89-'08).

Donald's life of service continued in the United Methodist Church through United Methodist Men leadership, lay speaking and various other church leadership positions both at the local and state level. Donald answered the calling of ministry by becoming a pastor for the Western York Charge in September 2017.

Donald is survived by his wife, Toni Lowry Love; his children, Tesia Love and Tavis Love (Shelley); his granddaughter, Karis Love; his eight of nine siblings; and a large extended family.

MICHAEL STEVEN PHARES
January 24, 1955 – December 17, 2023

SFC Michael Steven Phares (US Army Retired) was born January 24, 1955 in Baltimore, MD and went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, December 17, 2023 at the age of 68.

After spending his formative years in Elkins, WV following a distinguished military career from April 8, 1944 to February 1, 1996, SFC Phares retired.

During his service he received multiple accolades and medals including the Bronze Star. Upon retiring from the military, Michael pursued his education in Land Management and Forestry obtaining a Bachelor's degree from Western Oklahoma University.

He relocated to South Carolina to serve as the ROTC instructor at Andrew Jackson High School and worked many years as a land surveyor. While attending Pageland United Methodist Church, and serving as Lay Leader, he answered the call into full-time ministry. He served as pastor of Ebenezer United Methodist of Chesterfield and Bethel United Methodist of Patrick for 11 years.

Throughout his ministry Reverend Phares was very involved in sharing the gospel with the community and played a significant role in establishing the Bible Release Time classes in the local school.

Michael enjoyed reading and listening to old classic music, especially bluegrass. He also had a passion for watching bigfoot documentaries and classic television shows.

Mike loved his wife, his children, his grandchildren and his church family.

KAREN ELIZABETH STARR
March 25, 1958 – January 8, 2024

Reverend Karen Elizabeth Starr met her Heavenly Father on January 8, 2024.

As a pastor, Karen had a passion for ministry, for making and encouraging disciples and nurturing her congregations. A trail blazer, she was among the first women ordained into the United Methodist Church. She entered the ministry when it was difficult for women to gain acceptance in the local churches. But she persevered and was very proud of her 43 years in ministry. She completed her earthly assignment serving the Friendship-Heath Memorial Charge in the Rock Hill District.

A graduate of her beloved USC and Duke School of Divinity, Karen's ministry was colorful and extremely expansive having served throughout the entire State of South Carolina where she established many life-long friendships. The world truly was her parish. Additionally, Karen is particularly known for serving as the Chair of the Florence District Committee on Ministry and was mentor to many candidates who were led to explore their call into ministry. For those assigned and entrusted to her care and guidance, their lives were forever touched, and her wisdom was vital in shaping their ministries.

Karen loved the children in her congregations. She probably spent as much time preparing the children's moments as she did her sermons. The children loved her and looked forward to their times with her. Occasionally chaotic and always full of fun, the messages taught a lesson while engaging their senses. It was sometimes hard to tell who were the kids and who was the adult. After all, she was a big kid at heart.

Karen was a Gamecock forever! A graduate of USC and a staunch supporter of Lady Gamecocks Basketball, she prided herself in meeting "Champ", Dawn Staley's dog when she stopped by her office to gift some heirloom USC porcelain to her favorite coach. And would ensure church services didn't run over if Lady Gamecocks were playing that afternoon.

Despite being a Covid long haul survivor, she found a way to continue a strong ministry, preaching with the use of oxygen, sometimes with the help of a walker or in a wheel chair her messages never wavered.

She will be forever remembered for her love of Diet Mountain Dew, chocolates, Lady Gamecocks and, of course, her beloved animals.

She was preceded in death by her father, David Glen Starr and mother Marion Greyson Starr. She is survived by her family of fur babies, Shelby, Gypsy, Sam, and Salkehatchie, her honorary nephews Jude and Jace Coates, her sister Glenn Ellen Starr Stilling, as well as many friends and congregations who will forever remember the impact she made in their lives.

A Memorial Service was held January 30th at Crescent Hill Memorial Gardens, 2603 Two Notch Road, Columbia, SC. Shives Funeral Home, Trenholm Road Chapel, served the family.

DAVID C. SURRETT
November 13, 1958 – January 21, 2024

Rev. David C. Surret was a native of South Carolina. He was raised in Aiken by his father, the late Forest C. Surret and Davie Surret, alongside his siblings. As a youth, his mentor Rev. Robert James encouraged him to join the ministry.

While attending Duke Divinity, David met his wife of 40 years, Donna Mercer. Together they had three children—Myles, Lydia, and Alec. David went on to serve 14 churches across South Carolina. He also served as president of the Conference Council on Finance & Administration.

While David had many talents as a pastor, he was known for his ability to connect with others on a deeper level and through this talent he made lifelong bonds with church members and clergy alike. He never forgot the unique honor of pastors—to be with people during the best and worst times of their lives.

David was known across the country not only for his contributions in the church community, but for his work with the Boy Scouts.

David was an Eagle Scout, Vigil Honor member, and was recognized with three national awards: the Distinguished Service Award, National Outstanding Eagle Scout Award and the Silver Antelope award.

In addition to his wife, children, siblings, and mother, David is survived by his nephew Bennett, his niece Caroline, two grandchildren—Forest and Thea Surret— his close friends and caregivers, Evelyn Correll and the Reverends Patricia Parish, Gary Phillips, and James Correll; along with many children he “adopted” along the way.

RETIRED MINISTERS

PAUL MCKINNEY BALLARD, JR.
July 22, 1944 – December 28, 2023

Reverend Paul Ballard, Jr. grew up in the small town of Ninety Six, SC, but his love for travel took him to five of the world's seven continents over the course of his life. After high school graduation in 1962, and after earning an associate degree in Business administration from Palmer College in Columbia, he worked in administration at Greenwood Mills.

In 1968, he resigned his position to follow God's call on his life into full-time Christian Service and relocated to Wilmore, Kentucky where he received a BA in Bible from Asbury University, followed by a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary.

For the next thirty-five years, he served in the pulpit ministry in more than ten United Methodist Church communities.

One of the highlights of his life was being a part of several United Methodist Volunteers In Mission teams, taking him on mission trips across the country and the world. He found great fulfillment both as a pastor and as a missionary.

Paul spread laughter and joy wherever he went. He thought it important to stay connected, and one way for him was through letter writing, which he enjoyed. He cherished experiences, and lived to serve God and to serve others.

He was a student of the Bible, and his primary aim in life was to make Disciples.

Paul loved his family dearly – wife, Anne; daughter Kim (Mike); son Tim; sister, Jenness (Joe); niece, Leeann (Brent); and brother-in-law, Leroy (Wanda).

September 19, 1935 – September 26, 2023

Donald Eugene Cavin, age 88, son of the late Hugh Weaver Cavin and Nellie Marie Wright Cavin, passed away on Tuesday, September 26, 2023 at his home in Surfside Beach, SC surrounded by family. Predeceased in death by his wife of 62 years, Catherine Cox Cavin, he is survived by children DeLeith Brooks (Cris Anderson), Sandra Pouncey (Ken), Scott Cavin (Jean), Wes Cavin (Lee Anne), 9 grandchildren (Blaire, Brittany, Joy, Blake, Kyle, JC, Anna, Mac, and Morgan), and 10 great-grandchildren.

A dedicated leader, Don was a selfless member of the communities in which he pastored, serving on many non-profit boards, coaching youth sports, and providing care as a volunteer EMT as a public servant.

As a young man, Don was a skilled fast-pitch softball player; bowler (even had a 300 game to his credit); and could often be found on a basketball court or softball field into his 40's. The big G's were his passion, though—Golf and the Gamecocks. Don was a member of various Country Clubs through the years, and taught his sons to love the game as well. As a 40+ year member of the University of South Carolina Gamecock Club and season ticket holder for football, basketball, and baseball, Don traveled across the US with family and friends to see the Gamecocks play.

Don battled serious health issues over the last 32 years and fought them off in valiant ways, even astounding doctors and caregivers with his resiliency. In recent years, he suffered declining health due to severe seizures and the impacts of his various illnesses. As a believer in the saving grace of Jesus Christ, Don has received his new body and mind and is more alive today than ever. We take great comfort in the words from Revelation 21:5 - "And He who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also He said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

ANNETTE COKER EDWARDS

July 25, 1939 – March 8, 2024

Annette Coker Edwards, aged 84, of Orange City, Florida passed away peacefully on Friday, March 8, 2024, surrounded by family and friends.

Annette was born July 25, 1939, in Charleston, South Carolina as the second child to parents Kirby and Bertha “Evelyn” Gardner. She married Wymon Coker Sr. in July 1957, and they had three sons, whom they raised together in the Charleston area until his death in 1979. After Wymon’s passing, Annette returned to school at Baptist College at Charleston for her degree. It was shortly thereafter that she felt – and answered! – the call to the ministry. Annette was one of the early women accepted into the Candler School of Theology at Emory University and was ordained in the United Methodist Church. In 1986, while completing her studies, she met and married William “Al” Edwards, with whom she relocated to McClellanville, S.C. to serve at the McClellanville Methodist Church.

Over the next two decades, Reverend Annette Edwards served congregations throughout the Low country in South Carolina. She served faithfully, loving those whom she served and touching so many lives. In retirement, Annette continued her work at Ralph H. Johnson VA Medical Center of Charleston as a chaplain; it was there she met Ray Morgan, with whom she had spent the last 17 years.

Annette was our “Butterfly Woman” and her family and friends loved gifting her with all sorts of butterfly items for her collection. She loved to travel with her friends and spoiled her grandchildren with trips all over the globe. Annette often joked to her children that she was spending their inheritance and enjoying it while she could! Annette was a larger-than-life presence who made an impact on everyone she met. She was a trailblazer for women in the church, the fun aunt, world traveler, confidant, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend to so many.

Annette leaves behind her beloved partner, Ray Morgan; sons, Wymon “Dwain” Coker, Jr. (Beth) of DeLand, Florida; Douglas LeGrand Coker (Judy) of Bremen, Georgia; and James “Dale” Coker (Jenny) of Charleston, South Carolina; five grandchildren – Christian, Brandon, Allison, Jessica, and Ashley; five great-grandchildren; sister, Carol Marie (Wallace) Boulware; nieces Denise Whitehead and Debra Gardner; nephew Kenneth Gardner; her special true friends, Donna Farmer and Dr. Carol Graf. In lieu of funeral services, we will gather to honor Annette with a celebration of life on Saturday, July 27, 2024, at 10:00 a.m., at Cokesbury United Methodist Church, 4990 Dorchester Rd., North Charleston, SC 29418. We invite all friends and family to attend and share their memories of our beloved Annette.

Nick Elliott, one of God’s called disciples, went home to rest on Sunday, April 21, 2024, just as he desired – on a Sunday morning. He was a pastor to the end. Nick was a father, husband, brother, friend, mentor to many, and shepherd to more. He was a regular guy called to special service for God. If you weren’t touched by Nick, you never met him.

Nick served God under the banner of the United Methodist Church from his teenage years in Shelby, NC until his retirement in 2010 as Executive Director of Southeast Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission in Atlanta (10 years). Nick’s call was unique as he went from bricklayer to pastor. He pastored Sandy Springs / Zion UMC, Piedmont; Harris UMC, Greenwood; Herbert UMC, Georgetown; Leesville UMC, Leesville; and St. John’s UMC, Lugoff; and he served as interim pastor at Advent UMC, Simpsonville.

Nick's next unique call was to missional ministry. This call came on his first volunteer trip (as a brick mason) on a trash mountain in Haiti as he watched a naked child eat an orange peel and used gum from the mouth of an American. God asked him, "What are you going to do about it?" In Nick's missional service he has touched lives in every jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church and in 110 countries, and he fell in love with God's children in Cuba.

Nick was preceded in death by his parents, Adlai and Grace Smith Elliott of Shelby, NC. He is survived by his God-given helpmate of 42 years, Judy Tabor Elliott; his children, Jill Reames (Michael) and Nick Elliott, Jr. (Sabrina); his children of the heart, Kristal Hicks Speakman (Shawn) and Mikelle Hicks Porter (Christopher); seven grandchildren who were the greatest joy on this earth to him, Jackson, Andy, and Meredith Reames, Jacob and Joshua Honeycutt (Elliott), Devin Elliott, and Christopher Speakman; his beloved "Sissy", Connie Dedmon (Roy Lee); and nieces, Lizzie Grace, Sarah, and AnnaLee.

A celebration of Nick's life and ministry was held on Friday, May 17, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. at Thomas McAfee Funeral Homes, Southeast Chapel, Simpsonville, followed by a time of visitation.

February 11, 1931 – September 2, 2023

The Rev. Dr. Thomas Copeland Jones, 92, of West Columbia, passed away on Saturday, September 2, 2023. As Thom often did, he had a special way of letting everyone know about his life! Here is his obituary, as written by Thom himself:

***** I dreamed once that I did a film to be shown at my service. I thanked those who showed up and said that I had finally made a complete ash of myself, but some say I did a pretty good job of that while I was alive! I was born in Sumter, SC on February 11, 1931.

My parents were Thomas C. "Snook" Jones and Mary Drose Jones. I was educated in the Sumter City schools, Wofford College, The Julliard School of Music, and Duke Divinity School. I was a Boy Scout and attained the rank of Eagle Scout.

I spent 45 years in the pastoral ministry in the United Methodist Conference of South Carolina and five years as the Director of Creative Arts in Worship for the United Methodist Church Worldwide for the Board of Discipleship in Nashville TN. I also served as a chaplain at Lexington Medical Center for 41 years and in 2021 was named "Emeritus Chaplain."

During this time, I had a number of other "Chapters" of my life. I did local theatre, was President of CMFA for seven years, and was a member of the Board for more years than I can remember! I danced with the Carolina Ballet, The Columbia City Ballet and served on the USC Board of Dance. I introduced dance into Methodist worship, dancing to a newly introduced hymn named "The Lord of the Dance." There are so many great stories connected with that hymn, but I am trying to keep this short. I performed one-man shows throughout the US and parts of Europe. While at Julliard, I modeled in New York and danced on Broadway, and even performed on the Perry Como Show. I am a member of the North American Academy of Liturgy and was installed in the Societas Liturgica in Paris in a year I cannot remember. I sang with The Palmetto Mastersingers, serving on the Board for many years, including two terms as President.

My Life has been blessed with such fullness that events run together. Many people have played a great part in bringing joy to my life. My wife, Sue, of 64 years is at the top of the list, along with our daughters and five grandchildren. I have enjoyed watching our grandchildren become their own special persons and I expect to continue to watch them grow.

There are so many people that have been special to me throughout my life. For fear of offending any of them, I will refrain from trying to name them all. I hope you know who you are. Maybe now I will be able to tell those who left before me how much they mean to me. To those still here, thank you for sharing your love. You have blessed my life and filled my heart with joy! *****

So, there is Thom's message to us all! I hope his words touched each of you as they did us. We know beyond a shadow of a doubt that he touched so many lives for so many years and in so many ways - from marriages and baptisms to funerals, counseling, and grief support groups. He had the innate ability to lift the spirits of everyone he came in contact with, regardless of the circumstances. And everyone will always remember "Thom's hugs." He will be missed beyond measure.

Rev. Jones is survived by his wife, Sue Moormann Jones, daughters Amary Sox (Mark) and Kramer Hanshaw (Darrell), all of West Columbia; and his grandchildren, Thomas Parker Hanshaw, William Sox, Copeland Hanshaw, Dawson Sox, and Amelia Hanshaw. Thom also leaves behind his spoiled and beloved cat, Chloe to keep Sue on her toes!

A memorial service will be held at Ashland United Methodist Church, 2600 Ashland Road, Columbia, SC 29210, on Sunday, September 10, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. Reverend Scott Efirid officiated. The family met with friends after the service in Ashland Hall. Inurnment with the immediate family will take place at a later date at Bush River Memorial Gardens.

STEPHEN MCDANIEL MCCORMICK
June 12, 1953 – February 15, 2024

Stephen McCormick grew up in the Socastee community of Myrtle Beach. He graduated from Socastee High School and Horry Georgetown TEC where he received a degree in Forestry. He worked in Forestry for several years before accepting the call to ministry. He began his ministry with a mid-year appointment in 1982 at Mesopotamia/Asbury Charge in Gaffney, SC. After graduating from Candler School of Theology at Emory University, he went on to serve churches in the Spartanburg District, Rock Hill District, Columbia District, Greenwood District, and Hartsville District. He retired in 2019.

Steve's passions for ministry were Salkehatchie Summer Service where he co-directed the Lancaster Camp for approximately ten years. Near and dear to his heart was the Kairos Prison Ministry where he shared God's message with the residents of several different facilities since the early 1990's. He found support, had lots of fun, and made everlasting friendships through the Body Challenge/Spirit Challenge hiking group of pastors that would go on hikes in various places once a month.

He was married to his wife, Patricia, for 43 years. He had two daughters, Jennifer Braeunig and her husband Jeff of Simpsonville, and Justine Mullinnix and her husband Jeremy of Greer. JAMES ROCHELLE MCGEE
March 30, 1948 – January 3, 2024

James R. McGee was born in Orangeburg, SC, the third of four boys. According to his mother, despite being the smallest brother, he was the scrappiest of the bunch.

The truth was, that even from a very young age, he had an ardent sense of justice and desire for fairness. As he grew, his temper cooled, but his passion for doing what is right— did not.

He graduated from Clemson, came home to work with his brothers at Cleckley and McGee, and served on the Orangeburg County Council for 12 years. He married his best friend (trite but true) on December 27, 1969. They were married for 54 years.

One night, he "got the call," and shortly thereafter entered seminary. Upon graduation, he was ordained into the ministry, which became his life's greatest work. He was eventually called to be the CEO of the Methodist Oaks and to help start the PACE program in Orangeburg, before returning to the pulpit.

He was a champion for human dignity.

He could fix Anything with Duct Tape or WD-40, had a beautiful whistle, and was really funny if you were paying attention.

He loved to share the good news, and always wanted to invite people into Heaven rather than scare them out of Hell.

He is survived by his wife, Marty, his daughter, Annie, and her children, James and May, and a whole host of McGees and Salleys, who love him very much.

His life was his greatest sermon.

ALAN NATHAN QUARLES
June 24, 1953 – November 8, 2023

I am Jaime Q. Killough, Alan Quarles's niece. Unfortunately, I have received the letter that was sent to my grandmother, Doris Kemp, asking her for a picture and written memoir for my uncle. Even so, at the time it was sent we were still navigating the waters of caring for my 95 year old grandmother who has a very failing memory while grappling with the fact that our world was and is still a bit dimmer. The time has passed to submit the picture and memoir, and it is my sincerest apologies for not getting a picture or memoir to you in time to commemorate one of the greatest and godliest men I have ever known. In no way, do I want our lack of response to be a reflection of our love for Alan. In some ways, I am thankful that I have only now read the letter because I can't type this email without tears brimming in my eyes. In case you don't know Alan, I've included a picture for you to see, and I'd like for you and whoever reads this to know a few things about him.

Alan loved so many things! He loved his family, especially his great nephew, Little Curtis; his mother, Doris; and his brother, Wesley. He loved dogs, especially Dallas. He loved food, especially casseroles. He loved plants, especially his banana trees. He loved being a mentor, especially to Reverend Cameron Levi. He loved holidays, especially Christmas (because he was a child at heart). He loved the seasons, especially the snow (which we rarely saw) and awakening of spring. He loved music, especially old gospel hymns that reminded him of days long gone. He loved old tv shows, especially "The Andy Griffith Show". He loved life and living, especially when he was able to talk with someone and share a good laugh. He loved cars, especially the big, gas guzzling ones. He loved clothes and shoes, especially comfortable shorts and flip flops. He loved giving, especially his time. Above all, he absolutely loved his faith, especially our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Oh, how he loved our Lord! I encourage you to read 1 John 4:7-12. These are words that totally and completely illustrate his love for those in this world, love that is only manifested in Jesus Christ.

Alan taught me two of many things, and I never even told him. Just love the life that God has given us and with gladness in our hearts and laughter on our lips, make life better for those around us. The second trinket of wisdom is fairly cut and dry - discerning between what to do and what not to do. If it doesn't glorify the Lord, no matter how good and wonderful it seems, then it mustn't be done. The End. Move on.

I'd like to thank you for taking the time out of your day to read this small snippet about a man who deserves a biopic of epic proportions (because he would love that too!). Our family would also like to thank the Methodist Church for giving my uncle a home as a pastor. He was so grateful to be part of something much bigger than himself and to be afforded a platform that he used so graciously to spread the Gospel and encourage others to do the same.

~ With love, Jaime Q. Killough

CLOIE LUCILLA MACK
October 13, 1934 – May 30, 2023

Cloie Lucilla Mack was truly a phenomenal woman, she was petite in stature but a powerful force and pillar of strength to her family!

Cloie, was born to Robert and Ethel Mack on October 13, 1934. She was a lifetime resident of Cross, South Carolina. She attended early schooling in Cross, SC, however in seeking post elementary schooling, she found it unavailable for her in Cross because of segregation. Undeterred, she went to Charleston and lived with her Uncle and Aunt, Arthur and Marthena Guest, to attend Burke High School (graduated in 1951). Still yearning to go forward, she enrolled in Claflin College in Orangeburg, SC, her mother's Alma Mater. Cloie graduated from Claflin with a BS Degree – Class of 1956. She began her teaching career in Central High School/Elementary as a beloved fourth grade classroom teacher. Inspired by the influence of her principal and mentor, the late Mrs. Ruth Townsend, Cloie was encouraged to pursue a master's degree in education at the University of Indiana. After receiving her Master's degree, Cloie became a Reading Specialist and thrived in her career receiving many accolades, including Teacher of the Year- 1985-86.

Cloie was a loyal member of Jerusalem United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir for many years and served as a nurturer to the sick and shut-in. She was a devoted member of Berkeley County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and Jehovah Chapter 203 OES (Eastern Star). She enjoyed singing and serving others.

Her passions were baking, canning fruits, shopping for outfits and hats and owning fancy cars. She always enjoyed having a nice automobile.

Cloie loved her family and especially after her mother's passing in 1966, she stayed in the homestead in Cross to care for her father. Cloie became the matriarch of the family.

Cloie married the late Harry Castleberry in the early 1960's and to that union her daughter, Monica Lashawn Castleberry was born. Sadly, Monica became the "littlest angel" after three months.

Cloie later married Reverend Robert Mack of St. Stephens the former Pastor of Jerusalem Methodist Church.

Although Cloie's official residence was in St. Stephens, she never truly left the family homestead in Cross. She was dedicated to the home that her parents built and their legacy. She kept the family home alive, and it became a gathering place for family members throughout the years for short stays and family reunions.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote. If there are occasions when annual conference or clergy session cannot safely assemble in person or where the assembly would be otherwise unnecessary, but vital business of the Annual Conference needs to be conducted, the Presiding Bishop with a  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority of District Superintendents may in their discretion call a regular or special session conference to conduct the business of the Annual Conference or clergy session using remote voting.
  - a. Remote voting may be by use of a secure digital voting system approved by Conference Secretary. This provision for remote voting includes all matters that may come before the Annual Conference, unless prohibited by the Book of Discipline. Further, voting eligibility and voting margins designated in the Book of Discipline or Rules of the Conference will be followed.
  - b. The bar of a virtual conference or clergy session will be those eligible, registered and signed in to the virtual session. Official attendance will be considered those who register for the virtual session.
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from this roll.
3. Lay members of boards, councils, commissions and committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, but not including the undebatable motion calling for the previous question, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other - motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.

8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his or her seat.
  9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
  10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
  11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
  12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
  13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:
    1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
    2. To adjourn.
    3. To take a recess.
    4. To raise a question of privilege.
    5. To call for the orders of the day.
    6. To lay on the table.
    7. To order the previous question.
    8. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
    9. To postpone to a given time.
    10. To refer.
    11. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
  14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
    1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
    2. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.
    3. To lay on the table.
    4. To take from the table.
    5. To call for the previous question.
    6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
    7. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
    8. To call for the orders of the day.
  15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
  16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
  17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

Regular Calendar and Consent Calendar

18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
  - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
  - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
  - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
  - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.

19. It shall be an Order of the Day on the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
20. It shall be an Order of the Day to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees no sooner than the next business day following the initial report of the Committee on Nominations, or on the last business day in the event of a one day session. If additional nominations have been made per rule 19, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference Secretary for use in the election.
21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.
22. There shall be a Consent Calendar for the session of the Annual Conference composed of items to be "moved to the record without reading" and such other items which do not necessarily require deliberation by the Conference in open session. The Executive Committee of the Committee on Annual Conference shall determine items to be placed on the Consent Calendar and shall distribute a list of those items in the pre-conference materials. Items placed on the Consent Calendar shall be limited to items requiring no more than a simple majority vote for adoption. Prior to the adoption of the Consent Calendar by the session, any fifteen members of the Conference may request that an item be removed from the Consent Calendar, and it shall be removed and considered at an appropriate time as determined by the President and the Secretary. The Consent Calendar shall be adopted by a majority vote of the session.

Voting Procedure

23. At any session of the Annual Conference there shall be a Board of Tellers which shall conduct elections as the Annual Conference may direct. The Board of Tellers shall be nominated and organized by the Conference Secretary and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that this include at least one (1) minister and at least one (1) lay person from each district.
24. Voting shall be by voice or by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chair of the Conference. A standing or written count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting.
25. The Conference shall fix the voting area, also known as the bar of the Conference, at the opening business session and voting on all Conference matters must take place within the prescribed area. The voting area of the Conference shall be distinguished from other areas of the meeting site. Voting shall be by official badge only. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the Conference shall be entitled to vote. No member may enter the voting bar after the question is put.
26. Chairs of Annual Conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on administrative matters arising between regular meetings of these bodies.
27. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
  - a. District Nominations
    1. Each local Church may submit nominations to the district superintendent. The district superintendent and the District Board of the Laity will be responsible for requesting a list of nominees from each local church. These nominees shall be selected by the Church Council, certified by the Council chairperson and pastor. Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election. Elections shall be conducted at a meeting, called by the District Superintendent between January 11 and January 30, of all district lay members of the succeed-

- ing Annual Conference.
2. A training session shall be held in each district no later than January 30 of the year in which delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this session is to prepare lay members of the Annual Conference elected from the charges of each district for this highly important quadrennial process of the United Methodist Church. The training session, which would precede the district nominations for the pool of possible delegates, would include the following:
    1. The important role of Annual Conference lay members
    2. Connectionalism / Representative system.
    3. Functions of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.
    4. Commitment and involvement of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
    5. Process for selection of Bishops.
  3. This training session shall be planned by the District Superintendent, the District Lay Leader, and a committee of no less than five (5) persons; and include all persons in the district who have served as delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
- b. Conference Procedure
1. A maximum of 120 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Board of the Laity, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. Each of these may select up to five (5) additional names.
  2. The biographical format shall be consistent for all nominees and shall be submitted on a form prepared by the Board of Laity. It shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by the District Superintendent no later than March 1st. It shall include prior years elected to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference; sex; race; age level and a summary of qualifications up to fifty (50) words in length submitted by the nominee. If a biographical sketch does not adhere to specifications of this resolution, the name and sketch shall be omitted from publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.
  3. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots. The Conference Secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.
- c. On the first ballot, the Bishop may read only the names of laity who receive a minimum of 12 votes for election as delegate to General or Jurisdictional Conference. VIII. DCM/CCM STRUCTURE

The DCM/CCM design will effectively equip local churches for ministry and strengthen the connections for ministry among local churches, districts, annual conference and general church agencies. The initial assigning of annual conference staff into the districts (District Congregational Specialists) has produced concrete results of building ministry programs around needs identified by local churches. The connection design is strengthened by having selected laity and clergy persons from the DCM make up the CCM along with representatives from general agencies and others to insure inclusive membership. By streamlining the organizational structure, the connectional response to the needs of the local churches will be timely and efficient. Also this structure will facilitate a more direct connection between general agencies and local churches.

The meetings shall include a gathering/worship time followed by a session with all ministry area members for the purpose of evaluation of ongoing ministries and discussion of emerging needs. CCM Ministry Areas:

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference can be found in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the pattern for an annual "Conference" was begun. The practice was brought to America as the Methodist Societies developed here.

In the early days of American Methodism the Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic boundaries we have today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The work of Methodism in South Carolina was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of a South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, by leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church to minister to African Americans, many freed slaves, who would not accept the continued segregated worship of the races. A history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey by John W. Curry (St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.* The two conferences became one in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference.** The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.
