United Women
in Faith

Mission

United Women in Faith seeks to connect and nurture women through Christian spiritual formation, leadership development, creative fellowship, and education so that they can inspire, influence, and impact.

Vision

Turning faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world.

Purpose

To be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the church.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Isaiah 9:3

You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil.

Greeting!

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving Day, sharing a meal, fellowshiping with family and friends. What a blessing in the present of our Lord and Savior.

Throughout 2022, we have encountered various difficulties adjusting to new situations. Women of the Orangeburg District United Women in Faith, it has been a pleasure working with you, and we value the innovative ideas you have provided during these trying times. You have all preformed an outstanding job of serving the needs of the church, community, families, women, children, and global ministries.

Hebrews 6:10, NIV:

God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.

¹⁰ If either of them falls down, one can help the other up

¹¹ Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Greetings United Women in Faith

Wow! This year is almost over. Can you believe Christmas is just a month away! I am not sure about you but, it has been quite a year for me. There have been ups and downs, good days and bad days, celebrations, and failures. Yet, we are still here. And yes, that is a reason to give God praise. For in His word, it says in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will for you in Christ Jesus.

Trials and tribulations don't generally make us think of joy. Yet the Bible tells us to expect trials and tribulations and to rejoice in them, especially when we choose to follow Christ. So as the holidays approach us, remember to give thanks, be grateful and praise His holy name. Don't get caught up in the hustle and bustle of shopping and expecting gifts. Give the gift of love and make great memories with family and friends. Do something for someone in need, who cannot give you something in return. I would like to ask you to pray for one another, pray for your families, pray for the world, and pray for my family and I.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving and a very Merry Christmas.
To God be the glory for all He has done.

Sincerely

Patricia S. Salley
Spiritual Growth Coordinator

SOCIAL ACTION

Children in Jackson Need Clean Water

Ladies, as you may already know, Jackson, Mississippi faced serious flooding a few months ago which devastated their municipal water system. The water system in this city was already facing serious problems before the flood. Since that time, residents have had to boil water or buy bottled water.

At the end of September, members of our Conference Charter for Racial Justice Committee attended a Zoom meeting with our other Southeastern Jurisdiction conferences, 14 in all, to plan a new Charter for Racial Justice event for next year for each conference. During this meeting, we learned from a public-school employee and United Women in Faith Mississippi Conference officer from Jackson, MS that even though residents in predominantly black communities in Jackson have been told by local officials that the water is safe to drink, it comes out of the tap looking brown and muddy. The residents refuse to drink it. This school employee told us the water fountains at the schools had to be covered to protect the children. Her UWF Conference has been supplying water to the school children. The other conferences offered to assist in this effort to provide clean drinking water to school children. Our UWF Conference is participating in this project, so we are requesting monetary donations to be sent through treasurers (local to district to conference) up until February 14, 2023. Please specify it is for: Jackson kids' water. The Bethlehem Center in Jackson, MS is coordinating this project. This is a National UWF Mission Institution. Participation and discussion of this project can be counted as a Diamond Unit activity for local church units. Thanks for showing these children some love this coming Valentine's Day!

*As of the time of this report, the Governor of Mississippi declared that a state of emergency will continue for the water supply in Jackson.

This request for help is also on uwfaith.org/news/latest news/.

Our Conference event on Racial Justice with an emphasis on environmental issues will be online June 24, 2023, at 10:00am.

Kathy Roys, Charter for Racial Justice Committee member
