United Women in Faith from Aldersgate & Harris Churches Host Greenwood District UWF Day Apart

How Strong Is My Faith?"

This is a question that was explored at this year's Greenwood District UWF Day Apart that was held on Saturday, March 11 at Aldersgate United Methodist Church. The ladies of Harris United Methodist Church served as co-hostesses with the ladies of Aldersgate. Guest speaker was Rev. Steve Keck, Pastor at Main Street UMC, who is shown above with Carol Marse (center), Greenwood District UWF President, and Dr. Mary Lynn Polk, Greenwood District UWF Spiritual Growth Coordinator, who was also on the program as speaker. Other questions explored were "What is the status of your faith?" and "What would help you learn your faith?"

Reflecting on his personal life experiences, Rev. Keck shared that "Faith is a gift from God—it grows as we draw closer in our relationship with Jesus." As he shared his testimony, Rev. Keck also stated, "You don't know how much faith you have until you need it."

News from Greenwood District UWF

President

By Carol Marse

Dear wonderful Ladies of the Greenwood District,

With June the warmer weather has arrived, and we welcome the summer months. We are seeing beautiful, sunny, summertime days. How grateful to God we are to leave behind the cold, cloudy, rainy days we recently experienced. May He bless you with health and happiness during the coming months. Before you know it, fall will be here, and we look ahead to our Annual Meeting on September 23. Of course, prior to that date our reports are due. (See report forms in this issue.)

Our first report, however, is the Unit Survey (formerly Census) which is due June 30! Please do not forget this important information. I would like to commend those who reported last year: Bethany, Broad Street, Central, Harris, Hopewell-Sharon, McCormick, Mt. Pleasant, Panola, Republican, St. Mark, Tranquil, Troy, Wightman, and Zion. Thank you! I hope we will add even more units this year. Unit Survey (Census) form is on pages 12 and 13 of this issue.

Please note the registration form for Mission U; it is included in this newsletter. We are responsible, along with the Charleston District, for refreshments on Friday evening. You may find the form in MISSION ECHO also.

In talking with our outstanding Treasurer Marcia Miller, I find that our pledge money is a little slow in arriving. This is a gentle reminder that our projects (Killingsworth, Wallace Family Life Center and the Bethlehem Centers) depend upon our South Carolina United Methodist Women for their existence. These centers provide aid and encouragement for women and children—an important part of our purpose. Please don't let them down!

We are all aware of the struggles facing our Units; this is a very difficult time for the United Methodist Church. What we must continue to do is to love God, love others as ourselves and be of service to others. Greenwood District ladies have a long history of devoted service and great fellowship, and we want this to continue.

It is an honor for me to serve as your president, and I care deeply for each and every one of you. May God richly bless you.

Carol

Regular UWF attendees—Past District President Joyce Crouch and daughter Heather— Always a pleasure to see!

News from Greenwood District

UWF Treasurer

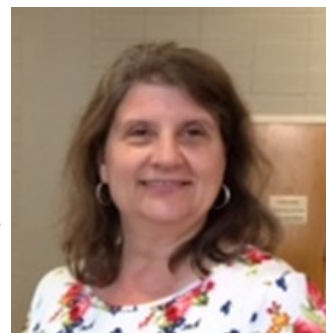

By Marcia Miller

Hello Ladies,

We are into the fourth quarter of our giving year to receive our 5 Star Award certificates of giving. Just to remind you, these donations need to be mailed to me by the end of August.

The Greenwood District pledged $16,000 for the calendar year of 2023. At this time, we have only achieved $2,485 of this goal. Long way to go, so please prayerfully consider a contribution to the missions of our organization.

This is my last year as your District Treasurer. I do not know who will hold this position after me, but I will be passing my paperwork and reports to one of you out there. If our nominating committee reaches out to you, please consider their request. I have met some wonderful ladies over the years.

Have a wonderful day! Marcia

News from Greenwood District Program Resources Coordinator

By Carolyn Cantrell

Greetings, Ladies!

I hope everyone is enjoying this summer. Now is a good time to be reading our UWF Reading Program Books. We may read books from 2018-2023. This is a total of 256 books to choose from.

To see the complete list, go to the UWF Reading program catalogs (on left side of page) and then the reading program books 2018-2023 (excel file). To access the 2023 Reading Program Book List, copy and paste to enter the following address in your web browser:

If you have completed a book share it with someone else so they too can participate in the reading program.

If you have any questions you may contact me at cwcantrell@embarqmail.com or 864-223-0271.

Have a great summer and take a book to read wherever you go!

District Day Apart Is Blessed With Beautiful Music

Contributing to the uplifting spirit of this year's Day Apart at Aldersgate was the expression of faith in music provided by some talented artists. At left with Jane Rowland, Aldersgate UWF President, is Bradley Fuller, pianist, whose prelude plus accompaniment to Great Is Thy Faithfulness and My Faith Looks Up to Thee were so inspiring.

Above, with Linda Woods, President of Harris UWF are Julie Dykes Dutton and husband Tommy who contributed beautiful renditions of God, You're So Good, I'll Fly Away, and How Great Thou Art.

Thanks for the Blessings!

Sign In, Please!

Greeting ladies as they arrived for the District Day Apart at Aldersgate was Sarah Greene, Cluster Leader for Clusters 1 and 2, in right photo. We appreciate Sarah's doubling up and taking on two clusters. Cluster Leaders provide a valuable service by helping to keep the lines of communication open among the ladies in the churches of the Greenwood District. Leader for Cluster 3 is Mary Ann Bayer. Contact information for both ladies is found on page 19—Thank you ladies!

United Women
in Faith

The organized unit of United Women in Faith shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE IS TO KNOW GOD and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive, fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.
