Zoom Sessions

These two classes will be offered through Zoom links that will be sent to you by the leader of the class once your registration is entered/complete.

Lay Pastoral Care: leader, Glenda Spann-Hinnett. This course offers insights into the life span and the dynamics of contemporary life to help church leaders reach out with God's love and care to others. Expressing care to someone in need—whether within the community of faith or beyond—may seem the most natural thing in the world. For some, it is; for others, it's less so. All can improve. Unique to this course is the ongoing training and accountability meetings outlined for those in this invaluable ministry. During the monthly meetings, participants report on what they have learned and also study aspects of caring for situations and conditions of life, such as illness, suffering, grief and loss.

Book to purchase: Lay Pastoral Care by Tim M. Farabaugh $16.95. 978-0881775549

Leader Toni Taylor, Lay Speaker: Living Our Faith in Small Groups (online)

Class Dates: September 24, October 1, October 8, October 15 and October 29. (6:00-7:30)

Living Our Faith in Small Groups will explore different types of small groups in our church ministry, which are not all created equal. The best small groups for forming disciples, are transformation driven. The Class Meeting meets the need for meaningful connection and an safe and trusted space to belong. This small group experience pushes people outside of their comfort zone as they explore their relationship with Christ and with others. "The Class Meeting is about knowing Jesus, being in Christ, and being in an active and transformative relationship with the Triune God." Are you curious and want to learn more? Join us to explore Wesley's Class Meeting and how it is being revitalized to make disciples.

The Class Meeting: Reclaiming a Forgotten (and Essential) Small Group Experience by Kevin M. Watson is required for this class. It can be ordered from Cokesbury, Amazon or Thrift Books.
