Greetings From the Desk of the President

Clarice Blakeney

Days Away from the Fifty-Second Annual Meeting

We are only a month away from the 52nd Annual Meeting of the South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith. I am so excited about the many things the program committee has planned with the help of the Rock Hill District and the UWF of Woodland United Methodist Church.

I am thrilled to be connected to an organization that puts faith, hope, love and action at the forefront of what we do. Our accomplishments are astronomical, we have 2 persons serving on the SEJ Board. Azilee Dickey is the Vice-President and Betty Void is the Chair of Nominations. Sue Owens did an excellent job as president this past quadrennium. The funds she was able to raise with the help of the 14 conferences will make a large impact on the needs of the marginalized.

Serving is a gift and blessing and I am very aware of your commitment to mission. Thanks for always stepping up for our projects and your willingness to give extra.

Although my term will be up in October, please know that I will always be an active member of UWF. Everyone has talents and yours is always needed on all levels; local, district, conference, jurisdiction and general. Learning and doing is what we will need to continue the growth of our conference. Your kindness, encouragement and support will always be an unforgettable treasure.

Thanks for all you do, it does not go unnoticed. Rewards on earth and in heaven.

Clarice Blakeney

LISTENING TO THE VOICE

Greetings to everyone! I love poems. They are my go-to. They inspire me. They make me laugh. A few of them make me cry. I enjoy reciting them. I love to personalize them. One of my favorite poems is “Once Upon a Pew”. I have read this poem hundreds of times. I have recited it so many times at my church and in the community that the congregation often finishes the lines for me. People have heard me do this poem so often they ask me for copies of it, so they can read it at their event.

Through the years the poem has changed what it means to me. Early on, it was just one of the many poems that I said from time to time. As I have gotten closer in my walk with God, the poem has taken on a new meaning. When I am asked to do something, the poem makes me think before I answer. So many times in the past, I have fallen in the rut of saying, “ask someone else”, “I can’t do that”, or “if you can’t find anyone, let me know”. In its own way, this poem shares what can happen if we always turn a deaf ear to the request to serve.

We need you. The church needs you! All of you! There is something for everyone. Everyone is valuable. If we answer the call, when it comes, then no one will get burnt out. No one will have too much on their plate because there is a pew for you.

W. Chandler-Flowers is the Communication coor for the SCC UWF

ONCE UPON A PEW

Once upon a pew I sat - And heard the preacher ask,
"We need someone to teach a class,
Now who will take this task?"

Then God sat down beside me there
And said, "Son, that's for you."
"But, Lord, to stand before a class - Is one thing I can't do.
Now Clarice would be the one to call,
There's nothing she won't do.
I'd rather hear the lesson taught - From here upon my pew."

Once upon a pew I sat - And heard the preacher ask,
"We need someone to lead the songs,
Now who will take this task?"

Then God sat down beside me there
And said, "Son, that's for you."
"But Lord, to sing before a crowd - Is one thing I can't do.

Now Sister Beth will do the job,
There's nothing she won't do.
I'd rather hear the music played - From here upon my pew."

Once upon a pew I sat - And heard the preacher ask,
"I need someone to keep the door,
Now who will take this task?"

Then God sat down beside me there
And said, "Son, that's for you."
"But saying things to strangers, Lord, - Is one thing I can't do.

Now Barbara can talk to people, Lord,
There's nothing she won't do.
I'd rather someone come to me - And greet me on the pew."

As years just seemed to pass me by,
I heard that voice no more.
Until one night I closed my eyes
And woke on heaven's shore.

'Twas four of us together there
To face eternity.
God said, "I need just three of you
To do a job for me."

"O Lord, I cried, "I'll do the job,
There's nothing I won't do."
But Jesus said, "I'm sorry, Friend,
In heaven there's no pew."

VICE PRESIDENT ROYS SPEAKS...

Get ready to have a “rocking good” time in Rock Hill with our South Carolina United Women in Faith “sisters” to celebrate all our accomplishments this year! Our Conference Annual Meeting is being held on October 25-26, 2024 at Woodland United Methodist Church, 801 Cherry Hill Road.

Our scripture focus will be Psalm 146 with our theme being “Praise the Lord! Justice for All!” Rock Hill District Superintendent, Anthony Hodge, will be preaching at our Friday evening worship service.

We are highlighting the Catawba Nation located in Rock Hill by inviting their first female assistant chief, Patricia Leach, to be our keynote speaker. Our Limitless group of youth and younger women will be doing their annual local organization collection drive to benefit the children and youth attending the Catawba Nation Boys and Girls Clubs with school supplies, cleaning supplies and clothing. One of our registration time activities will be a tour to the Catawba Nation Cultural Center. The tour can only accommodate a specific number of participants, so please plan to visit the Catawba Cultural Center before or after attending Annual Meeting if you are not able to go during our activities time on Friday afternoon. Confirmation will be emailed.

We will be doing Move 4 Mission activities such as chair exercise and a class on stretching as a fundraiser for our Mission Giving. Participants will also be able to learn about Vision Boards that can help them focus on self-care, tour various Conference and District displays, and talk to our four state mission project directors or a representative from Wallace Family Life Center, Killingsworth, Bethlehem Center Spartanburg, and Columbia Bethlehem Community Center. These mission projects would appreciate receiving gift cards.

We will have our Prayer Room with a Soul Care display to help church units and districts learn how to organize their own Soul Care events. We will be learning some new hymns with familiar tunes during our Saturday session. This year we will finish by lunchtime, so everyone can get back home earlier or maybe have time to visit the Catawba Cultural Center, 1536 Tom Steven Road.

We were hoping to offer a virtual option to participate this year, but technology-wise, we discovered we were not ready to do that. Please note that check-in on the 25th will be from 3:00pm-5:15pm. The various activities will be happening during this time. Our first meeting session will begin at 5:15pm. Saturday check-in on October 26th will be 8:00-9:15am with the meeting session beginning at 9:15am.

Participants are encouraged to register in September for the lower early registration fee of $45. The regular registration fee starting October 1st is $55 and later registration from October 16 until onsite will be $65. We need time to have everything ready for you! The updated registration form is in this issue.

Charter for Racial Justice

THANK YOU!

A big thank you from our committee goes to those who were able to attend the Racial + Environmental Justice virtual presentation on June 22nd . A special thank you goes to the groups who met at churches to watch the program and included other activities or a meal to discuss what you learned about the threat of incompatible development near historical Black settlement communities in our state. Our guest speakers, Faith Rivers James, Director of the Coastal Conservation League; and Amy Armstrong, Director of the South Carolina Environmental Law Project, did an excellent job sharing the concerns of these vulnerable populations and what their organizations are doing to protect them. To continue to follow this issue and the work being done, you can go to these websites:

<https://coastalconservationleague.org/programs/land-and-community/>

<https://www.scelp.org/strategic-priorities/justice>
Black settlement communities are being affected state-wide. Stay informed of zoning hearings being held by your local governments and speak up for these communities.

As a follow-up to this issue, the CRJ Committee is planning a visit to St. Helena Island to tour the Penn Center Museum and grounds on February 15, 2025. The tour for the museum will start at 1:00pm. That will take about 90 minutes. The Penn Center has maps of the campus for visitors to do self-guided tours. A limited amount of lodging is available at the Penn Center and will need to be arranged as soon as possible. Transportation and lodging arrangements will be left up to districts or churches. We are highly encouraging the participation of our youth. We will be using our Racial Justice grant money from National United Women in Faith to pay for their admission and lunch and perhaps more depending on how many participate. Admission will be $15 for adults and $10 for youth. You may want to allow extra time to tour around St. Helena Island.

While in the area, groups may also want to visit the International African American Museum in Charleston. Tickets must be purchased online to reserve a time slot. South Carolina residents can apply for a discount.

For more Information:
scelp.org

Please let Kathy Roys know if you will be going on this fieldtrip. Kathy5339@att.net Include your district and church with the names of participants. Also include the number of youth coming. This visit can be counted towards a Diamond Unit activity for 2025.

Racial Justice will also be highlighted at this year's SCCUW Faith Annual Meeting including our keynote speaker from the Catawba Nation in Rock Hill. This is another chance for a Diamond Unit credit.

Education and Interpretation

By Beth Addis, Education & Interpretation Mission Coordinator

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! We did extremely well in the Mission u Craft Room this year, since registration was down. We raised $816.75 for our four South Carolina Mission Projects, which is $55.01 lower than last year's $871.76. I want to thank Barbara Gaither, Damita Bridges, Patricia Armstrong, and others who helped staff, setup, or pack up the Craft Room. I received a nice thank you from Jane Crawford, the Mission Representative, Columbia Bethlehem Community Center, that some of the knitted and crocheted items we sent them were especially appreciated.

It's time to start thinking about Mission Today. Please check and make sure you have the latest Mission Today form. It was last updated Feb. 2022. It has a purple border around it and item #2 says "Daily Prayer Guide" not "Prayer Calendar." District Coordinators and District Presidents, my deadline for getting your district reports to me is Sept. 18.

At the Conference Annual Meeting in Rock Hill, Oct. 25-26, we will once again shower our Mission Projects with gift cards and new stamps. The Project Directors said they still used new stamps, so if you buy stamps, please get Forever stamps. They all should have a display and I hope to have a basket on each of their display tables where you can leave your gift cards and stamps. PLEASE indicate on your gift cards the amount of the gift card [even if you have to put a sticky note on it.]

- Bethlehem Center, Spartanburg requests gift cards from office supply stores (Office Depot, Staples), Walmart, or Amazon.

- Columbia Bethlehem Community Center requests gift cards from Dollar General, Home Depot, Lowe's, Ross, Target, Walmart, any Grocery Store, or Movie theaters.

- Killingsworth requests gift cards from Food Lion, Visa, Walmart, or Uber.

- Wallace Family Life Center requests gift cards from Walmart.

I attended an Education & Interpretation Zoom Open House with Shannon Priddy, Executive for Donor Relations and the Liaison for Conference Education & Interpretation Coordinators on Wednesday, July 31. She told those in attendance that the Pledge receipts to National through the end of June were at 22.73% for the year, 1.4% higher than the last few years. If giving continues at that rate, the yearly giving may be up as well. Let's keep giving to the Pledge to Mission and the other four Channels of Giving in our local units, our districts, and our conference, so we can meet our 2024 South Carolina Pledge to Mission.

Officers Training will be virtual this year on Sat, Nov. 9. I hope all District E&I Coordinators will attend. A packet will be mailed to you ahead of time. It would be great to have Coordinators in Anderson, Charleston, and Walterboro Districts.

Kara Simmons, Executive Director, expresses her gratitude for the support and commitment she has received for Columbia Bethlehem Community Center. Because of SCCUW Faith and the surrounding community, the Center has successfully sponsored several programs / events.

During Spring Break, high school youths participated in an Acting/Filmmaking Masterclass where they produced an original film.

During the month of April, several children participated in a Sow and Grow activity. Each child decorated flower pots, filled them with small plants, and watched them grow. The children presented the potted plants to their moms on the Saturday before Mother's Day at the Mommies and Movies event.

In June, CBCC partnered with Richland School District One's Summer Café and Francis Burns UMC to sponsor a Summer Feeding Program. An average of 30 children received free breakfast and lunch daily.

The Ready! Set! Read! Literacy Initiative afforded students an opportunity to enhance reading and comprehension skills, and receive free books. An added bonus was the appearance of Dr. Aaron Bishop, Chair of the Richland School District 1 Board of School Commissioners, and his wife, who read aloud to the children and expressed the importance of reading to succeed.

Local South Carolina farmers in conjunction with the Columbia Housing Authority continue to donate fresh fruits and vegetables to CBCC. Board members and volunteers gather monthly to assemble eighty to one hundred bags that are distributed to residents near CBCC and to those throughout the Columbia Area.

The Center partnered with Discover ME Academy 2024: Black Girls' Clubhouse, Inc. The focus of this event was to provide a safe space for black girls to develop meaningful relationships; discover their talents; and experience healthy emotional and social aspects of child development. Attendance was very good.

Recently, I delivered items from the SCCUW Faith Mission u Craft Room to CBCC. The items were well received and will be available for give away at the August 10th Back to School Event and prizes at the BINGO event for kids.

Upcoming Events include the following:

- August 10, 2024: Back to School Give Away 12:00pm
- September 16, 2024: Community Appreciation Day 12:00pm – 4:00pm
- October 7, 2024: Fall Festival 12:00pm – 4:00pm
- November 18, 2024: Give Thanks Dinner

About Killingsworth - A Place of Safety, Caring, and Support

Killingsworth, a beacon of hope for women transitioning from crisis to stability, continues its mission of transformation. With 14 women currently residing at Killingsworth and two recent graduates, the organization remains steadfast in its commitment to empowering women to reclaim their lives. The dedication of Killingsworth's staff and volunteers has been instrumental in these success stories. A special thank you is extended to the interim Executive Director, whose leadership has guided the organization through these crucial times, ensuring that every resident receives the support and resources they need. To celebrate and support the vital work of Killingsworth, the organization is hosting its annual Gala, "Putting On The Ritz," on November 14, 2024. The event will take place at Seawell's Restaurant, located at 1125 Rosewood Drive, Columbia, SC 29201, from 6:00 to 9:00 pm, with doors opening at 5:30 pm.

The Gala is not just an evening of elegance and entertainment; it is a crucial fundraiser that helps keep the doors of Killingsworth open. Every ticket purchased and every donation made during this event will directly contribute to the ongoing support of women in need. By attending the Gala or making a donation, you are playing a vital role in the lives of these women, offering them a chance at a new beginning. If you're unable to attend the Gala, there are still ways you can support Killingsworth and its residents. The organization has a wish list of items that are needed to ensure the smooth operation of the facility and the comfort of its residents. These items include; stamps, gift cards from Food Lion, Walmart, Visa, and Uber, paper products, cleaning supplies, standard pillows and twin-size sheets. Your contributions, whether through donations or attending the Gala, are essential in allowing Killingsworth to continue being a place of refuge and renewal for women in need.

Together, we can help change lives, one resident at a time.

Respectfully submitted,

Samnorina
