Reverend Arthur Rose, Jr. Pastor

Eva Manigault President, Mt. Zion United Women in Faith

Greetings, Sisters in Christ,

United Women in Faith has seen many changes and challenges in 2023, Thanks for our prayers, God's grace and mercy; we have managed to remain a strong sisterhood which embodies faith, hope, and love in action.

I pray that as 2024 draws near, our labor of love will be a living sacrifice that honors our Father in all of our words, thoughts, and actions. Additionally, I pray that we will never lose heart to work in love and faith and to hold fast to the magnificent hope we have in the Lord Jesus.

1THESSALONIANS 1:3 NIV

3 We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Orangeburg District United Women in Faith Annual Meeting

The Orangeburg District Annual Meeting was held via Zoom on September 16, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. The Host church was New Covenant United Methodist Church Bowman, South Carolina. District President Barbara Simpson, South Carolina Conference President, Clarice Blakeney, Orangeburg District Superintendent, Reverend Kenneth L Nelson, and Local Unit President, Sonya Benjamin all expressed warm wishes.

Reverend Sherri Y. White, pastor of New Covenant Church, Bowman, South Carolina blessed us with a great message that highlighted the theme: "Unity through Love." There was a total of 62 virtual United Women in Faith in attendances.

Orangeburg District Executive Team expressed gratitude and commended all local units for their outstanding and ongoing commitment to mission work for women, children, and youth locally and globally. This was an extraordinary act of kindness that exemplified one body, one spirit working together in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

51st South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith Annual Meeting

The opportunity to serve as the Host District for the South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith Annual Meeting occurs once every twelfth year. Ladies, it is an honor for our District to be a part of this historic occasion.

It was an incredible experience. I appreciated Reverend Kenneth Nelson, Orangeburg Superintendent, and Reverend Shirley Peterson Gordon their heartfelt sermons on the theme: "Unity in Christ" and the text: Ephesians 4:2-3. The "Oaks of Righteousness" liturgical dance ministry team of Edisto Fork UMC, Orangeburg, South Carolina, was spiritually moving. The workshops, fellowship, and food were all excellent.

Thank you very much, Orangeburg District United Women in Faith for being a group of strong women committed to "Faith, Hope, Love in Action to Fulfill our Purpose." We are grateful for your assistance and financial contributions.

On behalf of the Orangeburg District Executive team, we thank the SCCUW Faith Program Planning Committee, we also thank Saint John's UWFaith for graciously serving as the host church for the SCCUW Faith Annual Meeting.

Respectfully Submitted,
Barbara Simpson
 President, Orangeburg District

Received this beautiful in recognition of Veteran's Day

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion, says my soul, therefore I will hope in him." Lamentations 3:22-24

We are truly blessed and thankful by your generosity and faithfulness to the United Women in Faith with your giving for the 2023 year for the mission projects, ministries, and annual conference donations by the local units.

The 4th Quarter report is due by December 5, 2023, for (October-December).

The annual training for the local treasurers will be in-person; January 13, 2023, at Mt. Zion UMC, Bamberg, SC. I will have packets available with forms for your quarterly reports, audit form and due dates for reports and other information. If you are unable to attend, I will mail your packets.

Reminder: If your remittance report was not sent in before November 15, 2023; it will not appear in the Lantern for this quarter.

Thank you all again for your generous support.

Blessings to all.

Announcements

Greetings, United Women in Faith.

Over the past year, I've had the pleasure of serving as Interim District Communication Coordinator. The experience was amazing, which provided me an opportunity to develop and communicate at a new level of creativity.

I am delighted to inform you of the following wonderful news; please join me in congratulating:

- April Dobson for her dedication to serving as the Orangeburg District Bamberg Cluster Leader.
- Barbara Nimmons for her dedication to serving as the Orangeburg District Communication Coordinator.

- Mrs. Mary Rivers for her many years of dedicated service as Cluster Leader for the Bamberg Orangeburg District United Women in Faith. You will be remembered.
- Thank you, Mrs. River and the floral arrangement group, for your time creating the gorgeous floral center pieces for the SC Conference 51st Annual Meeting, Aiken in SC.

In light of a shortage of tote bags, which were not available for distribution during the annual meeting, and because Orangeburg District served as the host district, we decided to provide tote bags to the other 11 South Carolina Districts and SC Conference members. We appreciate the ladies of Orangeburg District for their patience and willingness to accept the replacement tote bags with the red heart logo on the front; We have a list of the ladies who received replacement bags, and We will contact you to arrange for delivery of the replacement tote bags.

If you were unable to attend the 51 SCCUWFaith Annual Meeting held at St Johns UMC, Aiken, South Carolina, October 20-21, 2023, don't worry; we have a few sets of souvenir tote bags with matching ink pens available for $10.00 + $4.00 shipping and mailing, while supplies last.

Hello, United Women in Faith,

As we find ourselves in the holiday season, I trust that each of you had a joyous Thanksgiving, surrounded by the love of family and friends. In this season of gratitude and reflection, let us take a moment to acknowledge the countless blessings bestowed upon us by the Almighty. As we revel in the warmth of His grace, may we also extend our hearts to those who may be less fortunate, embodying the spirit of giving and compassion that defines this special time of year. For it is in God’s blessings that we find the strength to be a blessing to others.

South Carolina Conference United Women in Faith 51st Annual Meeting Spiritual Growth Memorial Services

In the spirit of the season, let us join together in offering a prayer of gratitude and intercession. Loving Lord, we come before you with hearts full of thanks for the holiday season and the joy it brings to our lives. We acknowledge your goodness and grace that you generously pour out on us and all your people. Let us remember to lift up those who may be alone, ill, or facing times of stress and difficulty. May your comforting presence be felt by each and every one, bringing a special peace in their hearts and abundance of your sufficient grace.

We are grateful for the privilege of approaching you in prayer, knowing that you are a God who answers prayer. In Jesus’s name we pray.
Amen.

Best regards,
Patricia S. Salley

November 9, 2023

To: South Carolina Conference, District United Women in faith and all Church Women

My Dear Sister in Christ,

I would like to officially thank United Women in Faith ladies, churches, South Carolina Conference and Districts for all they do for their community.

I especially want to thank all the ladies for their generosity in giving so many needed supplies.

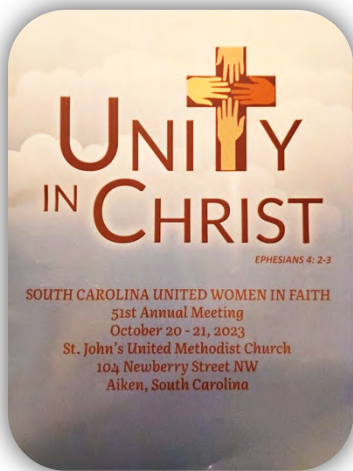

We had no idea that you were donating supplies and when Linda Anderson came back from speaking with a carload of supplies, I was overwhelmed with thanksgiving. What a wonderful testimony of God working through His Church.

How encouraging it was to our ladies to each get a box filled with cleaning supplies, tissues, toilet paper etc. plus gift certificates.

All our staff and ladies, who are residents here, at Stand at the Crossroads Ministries thank you with a sincere love and much gratitude.

God Bless You all,
